Kind Sir:-

I received your letter some time ago; and I have been thinking of the many useful occupations I have been at since I left the Carlisle school so that I might write you a long letter. But alas! I can hardly answer at all. When I left Carlisle in March 1895, I took a position as teacher in the Ind. Service and held that position until the year 1900. When I went to housekeeping, and have held that position since. I remain Respectfully
Ida McTavish.

Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Friend,

At this time of year since I left the school I like to sit and think of my Alma Mater, the many joys while there and lessons learned. I am proud of her progress and always interested in the new things she does and receives. Were I to visit there I'd marvel at the many changes for the better, yet my heart would ache for those who had departed forever. How far away from our old school we are scattered, each busy at his or her calling, and our ever-welcome friend, The Arrow, comes to cheer us when the week's work is done. I am Laundress here. Have a fine bunch of boys and girls to work with, I have tried my best to ^{keep them} clean and free from disease. If I have influenced them in other ways for the good, will leave that for the Supt. to say. I would dearly love to be at Carlisle for Commencement, but can't come.

With best wishes to all Carlisle and greetings to the alumni.

Very Respectfully,

Ida (La Chapelle) McTavish

My dear Friend:

I want to acknowledge receipt of your letter of March the 3rd, containing the information that we may at all times depend on your kind wishes and good will. Your letter is one of many similar ones that have come to me this year from graduates and former students and it is a pleasure to know that you are one more who is doing something worth while.

It is to be regretted that you can not arrange to be with us during the time of our Commencement Week exercises, but it is hoped that it will be possible to pay us a visit at some other more opportune time.

Extending best wishes for continued success in your work wherever you may be located and hoping to hear from you from time to time, I remain,

Sincerely your friend,

HKM.
