I have attended the Protestant Episcopal church and the Women's societies to help along the uneducated women in their trying to live a christian life. We are pulling along with them slowly but surely. To day they held a meeting in my house and they were greatly pleased that they were allowed to meet in such a cheerful and good ordered home. In their speeches, they expressed a desire of having a nice clean house in the future.

12. Tell me anything else of interest connected with your life.

I do a great deal of needle work with which I get money. I take more interest in my own house-work.

When it ought to be a dollar $1.00

I am glad the
The school <sup>paper</sup> will be coming to me each week for I love to read the doings of the dear old school, tho the dear old friends are no more there. We are both ex-students and like to read the little paper.
