Dear Willie.

You will please pardon me for ^{my} late reply.
I've had sickness in the house and I really could not find a chance to write you. I was certainly glad and surprised to hear from you. - I've been asking several persons if they had any of the maple sugar on hand.

Of course its a little early just now, but the latter part of the month, those that go out to sugar camp will be moving, I can get all you want by next month, if you can wait that long.

I will send it as soon as I can get a hold of some I will have to order it from some clean person, they ^{are} generally quite clean. We get for our use 60 lbs of the pulverized, every year and it lasts the year around. I make syrup with it, I have some, but its awfully dark, it is not very good, I certainly would send you some of it, but you won't like it. - Dear Nellie, I would write you a long letter, but the little boy I'm taking care of is not well and I'm writing this in a hurry. - I rec'd the invitation to the Carlisle Commencement, I get one every year, and am always happy to get the invitation, it always brings back to memory the pleasant years I spent there, I wish I could go back there to see the-different changes.

Of course I don't know hardly anyone there now. - I was saying, I'm going next year, if I live till then. -

Well, Nellie, I've changed my name since you saw me last, I've been ~~married~~ almost a year now. - Write I shall be glad to hear from you.
So long, Yours fr. Alice P. Fairbanks.
