Dear Sir:--

Your esteemed favor of the 19th. is received, as is also the panoramic view of the school, which you were kind enough to send me.

It has been about fourteen years since my Carlisle diploma was received. During that time, I have been actively engaged in work of various kinds, and have never had an opportunity to visit Carlisle. The view of the grounds as they appear in the picture, brings to my mind many pleasant recollections of my school days. There have been many changes there in the student body as well as in the faculty, and, although, I would be almost a stranger at Carlisle, I shall certainly be pleased to come back to the old school some day for a visit.

At this time, I am connected with the Yukon Mill & Grain Company at Yukon, Oklahoma, in the capacity of Assistant Manager. I have been in this business for six or seven years, starting in this office in the position of stenographer. I have never forgotten the lessons of discipline learned at Carlisle, as they have been the means of helping me to advance in my chosen work.

Mr. M. Friedman, Supt. #2

With very kindest regards to you, and wishing you all the compliments of the season, I am,

Yours very truly,

Mr. Francis O. Jones, who visited his former teachers and other friends here recently, has been promoted to a better position than traveling salesman. He is now sales-manager of the Aetna Mill and Elevator Company, Pittsburg, Kansas, which is one of the largest mills in the state. He feels very happy over this promotion. "Frank" says, in speaking of it: "You know I always believed in going forward instead of backward and in relying upon my own ability. This promotion came to me unsolicited, but is the result of putting my best efforts into my work. It pays to do every job the very best, for someone is going to observe how it is done. * * I still have a warm place in my heart for Haskell and enjoy my visits there very much."

Mr. Frank O. Jones, who was graduated from the Haskell Normal department several years ago, and later was a teacher here, is now assistant manager of the Yukon mill and grain company, Yukon Oklahoma. In a recent letter to Superintendent Wise he said in part: "I thank you very kindly for your expressions of friendship and goodwill, and assure you that I have always endeavored to use to the best advantage the opportunities that have come to me. I have very pleasant recollections of my experience at Haskell and have never regretted the time spent in your good school."
