Mr. M. Friedman, Supt-
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Sir,-

If your clerk or whoever addresses your letter has no respect for no one else but himself or herself as to address my letter like the enclosed envelope I would kindly ask a favor of the person to write my name properly or not write at all.

Please do not take me to be a rogue or something mean as I am a woman that tries to do what is right. I have lived here four years and I am sure my neighbors can tell you the same about my character. Oblige Lettie B. Scott.

My dear Mrs. Scott:-

It annoyed me greatly that you should receive the School paper addressed as it was. It was an in-excusable error made by one of the pupils assisting in the Print Shop. I have called the attention of the Printer to the error and I trust it may not happen again.

Very truly yours

Superintendent.
