Dear Sir:-

Will now acknowledge the receipt of your kind remembrance of me in the form of an invitation to your Commencement.

I deeply regret, in not being able to attend, much as I would like to meet old acquaintances, as I have no doubt that "Dear Old Carlisle" will again see many of her old children.

I have not any experiences to write about.

I only hope this Commence-ment will surpass all others, and that the out going class are prepared to stand the hard knocks of the cold world and to fight a hard battle for the right, and also to still uplift our race.

I close with best wishes to all and many thanks for the remembrance, this is the first in six years. |

Sincerely

Mrs. Walsie F. Snyder,

Dear Sir:-

Sorry

I put you to so much time and trouble, I mislaid it in the first place and at the same time my spare time was taken up by my folks, who are on the sick list.

Therefore I delayed in my reply.

I answered a few of the questions.

I'm always glad to be remembered by those at the school.

I am yours truly

Mrs. Daisy F. Snyder
