I have had misfortune since my marriage, I have been supporting my little girl who is now five years old and myself since the day she was born. I have worked hard and in the honest way and improving myself everyday to live upright. I started the rooming business a year ago last January with but little money. Although I had Two Hundred Dollars in the bank, I bought furniture and furnished eight rooms, including a grand upright piano, for my daughter, at the cost of Thousand Dollars. When its all paid I expect to start a bank account again.
