Several Carlisle athletes have been honored by being selected for the All American Team. One of these was Isaac Seneca, a Seneca Indian, who was graduated in 1900. He was selected for All American halfback in 1898. He is now employed as instructor in blacksmithing at the Chilocco Indian School in Oklahoma. He is married, owns his own home, and has made a splendid record.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. I. Seneca at Chilocco, Okla., a daughter of our school blacksmith.

Blacksmith and Wagon Shop.

Isaac Seneca, full-blood Seneca Indian, presides here as foreman, with Bloss Jaloma assistant. The shop is large, and well equipped with four furnaces and power blower; trip hammer, anvils, benches, vises, band saw, shrinker, power grinders—emery and stone; tire bender; power drill, and a great supply of rod and band iron, made-up horse shoes, etc. Attached to the shafting the boys have improvised a fan fronting the forge fires which is strong enough to keep even a blacksmith cool.

Horse shoeing and wagon and agricultural implement repairing is done here and done well. An electric motor drives the machinery. The institution is divided into two shops—one for wood and the other for iron. Above the wood working shop is a store room filled with supplies, such as wagon spokes, fellows, wheels, hubs, rods, poles, axles, single and double trees, bolsters, hounds, thimble skeins, etc. A full line of all sized bolts is carried.

While THE JOURNAL reporter was present Assistant Jaloma removed a corn from a horse's hoof.

The demands of the school for all repairs of iron work are here met, and an apprentice in Chilocco's blacksmith and wagon shop, is equipped to stand alone in these trades in any community.

A GRIDIRON STAR OF '99.

Isaac Seneca of Chilocco Was Member of All American Team.

E. K. Miller, superintendent of the printing plant, and Isaac Seneca, blacksmith at Chilocco, visited in the city last evening (September 4th). Seneca is an Indian belonging to the tribe of that name. He was graduated from Carlisle, the famous Indian school, in 1899. He was a star football player and won the honor that year of being on the All-American football team. This is an honor that the stars all seek and few in proportion ever attain. Seneca played fullback for Carlisle for several years, and he was quite a hero of the school in those days when the gridiron sport was more strenuous than nowadays. Seneca is a cracking good mechanic and has been a very efficient blacksmith at Chilocco for some time. He is a fine specimen of the athletic Indian and is a handsome fellow to boot.

Dear friend:-

It has often been said that students at various schools who have made any special reputation as athletes, never amount to anything after leaving school. To show that this statement is not true, as far as Carlisle is concerned, I have prepared an article, to be illustrated, on the splendid success of some of our prominent graduates and exstudents who while at Carlisle were conspicuous in athletics.

I propose to publish this article in the Red Man, our school magazine, and afterwards in pamphlet form for general distribution. The article is now ready and I am waiting for some suitable photographs to illustrate it.

I would like to have a photograph of your shop with you and the boys under your instruction, at work. Could you have such a photograph taken for me? If you will send me such a photo with the bill, I will be glad to send you check to cover the cost.

Wishing you continued success, I am Very truly yours
