CJR (Comar)

Mr. W. D. MacLarty,
Browns Valley, Minnesota.

My dear MacLarty:

I shall be glad to help your friend Samuel J. Brown, Jr., to get a position in the State of Minnesota, but I am somewhat embarrassed to write a letter of recommendation, as I have no personal knowledge of him and therefore my letter would not carry very much weight. All that I know is that our records show that he was at Carlisle from Oct. 6, 1895, to March 19, 1901, and that his record there was good. The thing that would count, in my mind, is to have letters of endorsement furnished by people who have personal knowledge of Mr. Brown.

With cordial regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

(Sgd.) C. J. Rhoads

Commissioner.

My dear Sir:

Referring to your letter of July 20th,
I have to advise that I cannot give you the present address of Spencer Williams. The last we heard from him, was while he was located in Philadelphia.

Very truly yours,

Superintendent.
