Another of the Carlisle students who had the honor of being an All American quarterback was James Johnson, a Stockbridge Indian of Wisconsin. He was considered one of the most wonderful athletes of his day. After graduating at Carlisle, he entered the dental department of the Northwestern University at Chicago, working his way, and was graduated in 1907. He is now located at San Juan, Porto Rico, where he is practicing his proprofession. Reports reach us that he has a fine practice. He married a Carlisle girl, and his wife is also employed in San Juan in the government service as clerk.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

UNITED STATES INDIAN SERVICE,

James Johnson, another Wisconsin Indian, was considered a wonderful athlete in his day. From Carlisle he went to the dental department of Northwestern university, was graduated in 1907, and is now earning $4,000 a year practicing his profession at San Juan, Porto Rico.

Two Popular Ex-Students. 210

Dr. James E. Johnson, of the class of '03, and his wife, who is also an ex-student, are visiting here. Their home is at San Juan, Porto Rico, where Dr. Johnson is engaged in the practice of his profession. During the past year his business amounted to $4000.00. He will be remembered as the famous All-American quarterback and captain of the football team in 1903. After leaving Carlisle he graduated from the Northwestern University. Mrs. Johnson is employed by the Bureau of Education at Porto Rico, as stenographer and typewriter, at a salary of $1200 a year. Dr. and Mrs. Johnson have been spending a ten weeks vacation in the States and left for Porto Rico Sept. 24th.
