M. FRIEDMAN, SUPERINTENDENT.

Edwin Smith, a Clallam of the class of 1901, who was for several years center on the football team, is now occupying one of the most important positions at the large government school at Chemawa, Ore., and reports indicate that he is very successful.

—Edwin A. Smith, an ex-student, writing from Chemawa, Oregon, says: "The Red Man and the Arrow hold a very prominent place in our home. It is just like getting a letter from home, and we are all anxious to know the contents. I wish to congratulate Mr. Warner and the football team for their splendid showing this year. This means much to the young Indian."
