It seems very sad that the Indian Dep't is making such an effort to have the large Indian schools of the country discontinued especially Carlisle, I think that I can talk with more intellengence on this question than a great many of our Government Officials for the simple reason that I have gone the rounds in the Indian schools as a student and employee and my knowledge comes from actual experience.

The sooner the Reservation Boarding Schools are done away with and the Iidian children are taken away from their people and made to attend our large schools like Carlisle there by coming in contact with white people the sooner the question of Indian education is going to be solved.

I say get the Indian children as far away from the reservation as possible for the home inviorment is what is keeping them in the rut. So I say again keep Carlisle.

Dear Freind:-

Your letter to me of Jan. 13th. has been mislaid for some time, but I hope that this answer will not be too late. I am mailing under this cover the blank that you requested me to fill out and I hope that it will be satisfactory.

I should have liked to visit Carlisle this spring but I fear that I will not be able to do so. I have a tender spot in my heart for old Carlisle and I sincerely hope that she will still be Carlisle when I can spare the time to pay her a visit.

Wishing you and my old school mates a very prosperous and happy commencement this year, I remain ever,

A Carlisle boy,

P. S.
