Mr. Genus L. Baird, class '02, was one of the interested spectators at the Philadelphia game. Mr. Baird is now located in Philadelphia where he is following his trade of printing.

Genus Baird of the class of 1902, an Oneida Indian, a prominent baseball player, is a member of the faculty of the government school at Pipestone, Minn.

1909 242
We notice quite an improvement in the general appearance of the "New Era", Rosebud, So. Dak., since Genus Beard has taken hold of it. His friends at Carlisle are glad that he is making good. The last issue of this magazine is a good one, both mechanically and as to contents.

242
Genus Baird, a graduate of the class of 1902, left for South Dakota last week, where he has been appointed to the Rosebud Boarding School. He has had four years, experience as assistant printer at this school, and for past two years he has worked in an extensive printing plant at Harrisburg, so that he is very well fitted to do satisfactory work in the west. Genus is conscientious and a hard worker, and has other qualities that will make him a credit to the school that has developed his power.

Indian School,

Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Sir:—

Writing to you for assistance, I wish to thank you for a recommendation for a re-employment into the service as a printer or disciplinarian. The times are getting rather strenuous, and positions hard to get.
They are scarce.

P.S. I have left the City and went to the Country for a few days.

I have been out of the Service about a year, and have been working at my trade. And on account of dull season we were obliged to lay off.

Now will you oblige
me by recommending me for a re-employment, ^{or} Either as a printer, or Disciplinarian and I will greatly appreciate the kindness, I remain

Respectfully

James Bird

Dear friend:-

I have your letter asking for a recommendation for a reinstatement into the Indian Service either as a printer or as a disciplinarian. As Mr. Charles E. Dagnette, Supervisor of Indian Employment, has to do with the appointment of Indians into the Service, I suggest that you write to him about your reinstatement. His address is Denver, Colorado.

I am glad to know you have been able to find steady employment in Philadelphia for a year. Times are hard all over the country now and I trust that when you get work in the Service again, you will aim to keep at it as long as possible. A man can always find steady work in the Service if he will apply himself diligently.

with my best wishes to you, I am
