Supt. M. Friedman,
Carlisle, Pa.

My dear Sir:

Yours of the 19th ult. reached here safely and was very interesting. Perhaps you doubt my existence but I am alive and as loyal as ever to Carlisle. I joy when she wins her games and am pressed when she is defeated. But thank the Carlisle foot ball team of 1911 for its success.

The Indians have spend a very happy Christmas. Perhaps it would be interesting to know that the Pimas have spend what would be called a white Christmas. At least that was the expression by the whites who have witnessed the occasion. The church was most artistically decorated. Inside were two Christmas trees on which hung many nice things.

A few speeches were made and singing by the Day School children; Then the Santa Claus entered gayly dressed in red and white. Afterwards, I found it was our own William Nelson, who so ably carried himself for the occasion.

Wishing you a successful and a Happy New Year. I am,

Yours truly,
John E. Johnson.

Mr. Moses Friedman,

Dear sir: Since leaving Carlisle I have realized what it is to engage in the battle of life.

I have been quite successful in my career. I have just started and I mean to keep up a brave heart. I thank you again for the training received at Carlisle.

Somehow there has been some misunderstanding about my whereabouts. I've received mail directed to Sacaton Arizona. The direction of my letters should be Blackwater, instead of Sacaton.

I'll close with best regards to you and the whole Carlisle
family.

Yours respectfully,
John E. Johnson.

Mr. E. K. Miller Editor,
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of February
sixteenth was received,
also the most beautifully finished magazine, "The Red Man."

You were asking whether I was a Carlisle
graduate or an ex-student.
I am a graduate, a
member of the class 1910.

According to some misunderstanding I was called Johnson Enos
the reverse of my name
also leaving off my given name John.

My correct name
is John E. Johnson.
resident of Blackwater,
not of Sacaton, Arizona.

Kindly let my fellow-
students know.

Yours sincerely,
John E. Johnson.

John E. Johnson, who was known as Johnson Enos at Carlisle, is now at Blackwater, Arizona. He says: "Perhaps you doubt my existence, but I am alive and as loyal as ever to Carlisle." He says the Pima Indians had a very happy Christmas. The little Pima children celebrated the day as we did here, and William Nelson, Class 1910, was their good Santa Claus.

Mr. Jno. E. Johnson, Blackwater, Arizona.

My dear Friend:

I want to thank you for the letter you addressed to me in response to my Christmas greeting. Also please accept my thanks for the kind wishes expressed in your letter.

The card that has been received from you is one of many hundreds that have been filled out by former students at this school. The information contained is a record of splendid achievements and proof of the fact that the Indian young men and women who have been trained at Carlisle are certainly making a very creditable showing.

Let us hear from you from time to time so that we can keep in touch with you and with what you are doing.

Extending best wishes for your continued success, I remain,

Sincerely your friend,

HKM.

Superintendent.

Yours truly,

Jno. E. Johnson.
