My dear Sir:

I will take this opportunity to inform you that permission has been given your daughter Estelle to go to your home and that arrangements have been completed for her to leave here this afternoon. Transportation for her passage to Rosebush will be provided for her use.

Estelle has taken a Civil Service examination to test her fitness for appointment to a position as assistant clerk in the Indian School Service and it is hoped she will be notified soon that she has qualified for such an appointment. I will then assist as may be desired to bring her qualifications to the attention of the Office at Washington.

Hoping that I will hear from you when she has arrived at your home, I am,

Very respectfully,

My dear Friend:

I thank you for your favor of July the 29th, expressing your appreciation of what has been done to assist you here at Carlisle and containing the information that Eliza Jackson may be interested in enrolling at Carlisle. A letter has been addressed to the girl and an application blank will be mailed her. If it is returned to me satisfactorily filled out and she does not have access to the public schools near enough to her home her enrolment here can be effected.

Hoping that the remainder of the summer will continue to be pleasant for you and Ada, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Dear Friend:

Your letter has been received and I am delighted at any time to do any thing requested of me by any of my Alma Mater's officials. It is my duty now to support such school, a school that gave me such service, to aid me in my education.

The Indian boys and girls of my home town have all the educational advantage my wish for. There are only three families of Indians there that I know and are opposed to Indian School education.

But there is one name I will give still I doubt about her tho' the mother was at Carlisle some years ago.

Eliza Jackson. Rosebush Michigan.

Sincerely Yours,

Estelle Bradley.

Children showing one-eighth or less Indian blood, whose parents do not live on an Indian reservation, whose home is among white people where there are churches and schools, who are presumed to have adopted the white man's manners and customs, and are to all intents and purposes white people, are debarred from enrollment in the Government nonreservation and reservation schools. Superintendents, in all cases where doubt exists as to the degree of Indian blood of a child proposed for transfer, should fully satisfy themselves of the facts by affidavits from reliable persons, which affidavits must be kept on file at the school.

A pupil who has been regularly enrolled in a nonreservation school must not be taken to any other non-reservation school without the consent of both Superintendents and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Superintendents will be held to strict accountability for such pupils taken to their schools.
