

Walter Regan, one of our ex-students, writes Superintendent Wise a very cordial and interesting letter. He reports his health greatly improved, and is conducting a store for his uncle in Hoopa, Calif. He also has a ranch. The sending of a dollar for the JOURNAL, also indicates his interest in Chilocco affairs. Walter reports hunting and fishing excellent at that place.

Death of Walter Regan, Carlisle Ex-Student.

On Tuesday, December the 10th, Walter Regan succumbed to pneumonia at the home of his sister, Mrs. Wilson. Walter was a Hoopa Indian about 30 years of age, a graduate of Carlisle Indian School, and well known throughout the Indian Service. After graduating from Carlisle, he attended Dickinson Law School for a short time, afterwards accepting a position as issue clerk at Chilocco Industrial School. He was a pupil at Chemawa when Mr. Rakestraw was in charge of the school. The funeral was directed by Mr. Sherman Norton and the services conducted by Mr. C. D. Rakestraw, during the course of which he said: "Little did I think when Walter was a small boy at Chemawa and always accompanied me on hunting and fishing expeditions that he would be cut off in the prime of life and that I would have the sad duty of assisting in his burial rites." Funeral services were held in the school chapel, which o'ershadows the school ball field, where Walter oft in the past two years of his sojourn at Hoopa has assisted in the training of the school football and baseball teams. Four fellow athletes, Amos Holmes, Anderson Mesket, Eddie Hayden, and Nelson Billy, tenderly bore his remains to the grave.
