Mr. Milton Whiteman,

My dear Friend:-

I have your letter of September twentieth, and am very glad, indeed, to hear that your sister, Florence Whiteman, and your wife, who was Fannie Rolling Bull, are both getting along nicely, and that you are proud of their training. I assure you that I am also proud of their good record and am glad to hear that you are doing well.

I note that you desire the name of an old coin dealer, and the only one I know of is Mr. Thomas L. Elder, of 32 E. 23rd Street, New York City.

I shall be glad to hear from you at any time.

Very respectfully,
