Dear Sir

I have been trying my best to make good in this world but it seems impossible, so far I have made enough money to keep my father and mother alive, I'm looking after them instead of looking after myself.

I was a painter when I was there but it didn't do any good here because I didn't have the papers to show that I am a painter, the only place that I made good was at the Fort Gunn Ind. School.

I stop painting now and I'm going to work in a big store here, I have to learn first before I can get good wages.

In a letter to me you said that you would help me out if you can but some or if you couldn't. Miss Egan is the one that helps me.
Good bye.
