I am glad to receive your kind invitation of 19, Inst/ I shall ever be glad, also, that I was educated at your splendid Institution. I regret, however, that I cannot be with you at Commencement. Next year
I may come. I hope so.

I wish you one and all, great success and and greater prospect
FOR THE Coming session.

I am doing well,- have plenty of money, good business &C. I owe all of my success to a College course at Carlisle.

Most Resp.

Mr. Abraham E. Lawshe,
Superintendent, San Carlos School,
San Carlos, Ariz.

My dear Sir:

I would be pleased to have you inform me where I can get into touch with Job Hunter Boy, a member of the San Carlos Apache Tribe who was enrolled at this school from 1884 to 1894. He was formerly located at Apache, Oklahoma, but a letter that was addressed to him at that point in December, last, has been returned to me unclaimed.

Assuring you that your assistance in this matter will be appreciated, I am,

Very truly yours,

HKM.

Superintendent.

P. S. I would thank you, also, to give me information regarding Madoc Wind, who was located at Roy, Arizona, about a year ago.

San Carlos Agency, Arizona,

February 26, 1914.

Superintendent M. Friedman,
Carlisle Indian School,
Carlisle, Pa.

Dear Sir:-

In reply to your letter of the 7th instant I have to advise you that I have been unable to locate Job Hunter Boy or anyone who even knew him.

Modoc Wind gravitates between Globe and Miami, Ariz., and a letter addressed in care of Rev. J.F.G.Harders, Globe, Arizona, would probably reach him.

Respectfully,

A. D. Lawrence
Superintendent.
