Dear Sir:-

As I have little time this afternoon I'll write and tell you few things about my life. I am very healthy and strong I think I can do some star playing in football.

I am spending my time in fishing, I haven't stop fishing yet since I left Carlisle.

More fun in fishing than any thing else and it is easy money.

Last summer I was in Prince Rupert B.C. work at my trade as a carpenter, I was getting 50¢ any hour. I made pretty good little money. Sometimes in winter I help my brother his store as a store keeper. Every fall I try to go back to Carlisle but something always happen to my family. Remember me to my friends at Carlisle. Your friend David Quitorie.
