

A letter from Miss Robbins last week tells the sad news of the death of Pearl Hartley in a hospital in El Paso, Texas, about three weeks ago. Pearl was a pupil here for several years, but has been away for two or three years. She was always frail in appearance, but uncomplaining. She was passionately fond of music and was a fine pianist. Her former teachers and schoolmates were grieved to learn of her death.

Pearl Hartley is now at Phoenix, Arizona, where she expects to remain some months in the hope of benefitting her health, which has not been of the best of late.
