Mr. Edward H. Wood
Sacaton, Arizona. Box 48

Dear Sir:-

I have your letter informing me of the death of your wife, a former pupil of this school, and regret very much that Carlisle has lost another of her good Indians. What is your loss is ours too for I believe she was one of our students who was trying her best to live up to the ideals of Carlisle.

We are not printing the Arrow this summer but I shall remember to insert a notice of her death in one of our future numbers.

With my kind regards to you, I am

Very truly yours

Dear Carlisle Arrow:-

Have been trying to locate some of the Carlisle friends & school-mates of my wife formerly Gail Hamilton who died the 9th ultimo and found no way, only to write to her dear little paper she died very suddenly and left a husband and five children she tells me who were her closest friends I read the Arrow every time it comes to see if I can find any of the names and whereabouts of her friends but its all in vain. May this sad news reach all the friends of my dear wife.

Yours for sadness,

Edward H. Wood,
