Mr. Friedman
Dear Sir:-

I am writing
this short letter to you this morning to tell you who I am.
Well, I am a brother of Gertude J. Juan who graduated in your school some years ago.
she died on the 17th of this month and I want you to know about her death and discontinue sending papers to her name.
she lived a good christian life
and died a very quiet and happy death, leaving her husband and two little children behind.

To mourn her loss. Her kind deeds and good works will always be remembered by every one who know her.

I close now with best wishes, I
am yours truly,

Edward Jackson.

9. Tell me anything else of interest connected with your life:

I have often think of Carlisle and know that the happiest days of life were spent there.

Am married and have two children. I keep house for my husband, father and an old grandmother about eighty years of age.

I also raise chickens

Ambrose Johnson an ex student of Carlisle is doing well. He works hard and is an honor to Carlisle. Last year he raised a lot of corn, beans, water melons, pumpkins and sorghum. We have no water now, so there wont be any crops.

Josephine Ramon Eschief is a housekeeper also.
