Dear sir +:

Your letter of the 12th ult also the blank enclosed were received some time ago. I have given the matter a thorough consideration.

I am sorry to state that I decline to fill out the blank for the reason which I believe is simply discriminating the Indian who has not as yet reached a point worthy of boasting. Yet I have a loyal interest for the school and its welfare. Although my time spent there was short.

I must close wishing those who are to be the members of the graduating class of 1910 a success in whatever career their lives may be.

Very respectfully.

Wm Sherrill
