Any general statement or wishes of patron or pupils, together with Agent's estimate of place, people, and pupil:

B. J. Zimmerman has a good home and seems to have good judgment in regards to boys. He milks a good many cows and a boy's work would be quite hard in mornings and evenings but good experience in cattle feeding will be gotten.

Mr. Zimmerman has no excuse to offer for the boy's not attending church more than, he did not care to go and that bad boys who collected about the church would have bad influence upon him.

Mr. Zimmerman would like to have another boy to work with Obed during the summer. He said he would give Obed $10.00 per month during this coming summer if he would remain with him.

Obed seems satisfied and is doing extra well in his school.

June 1st, 1916.

Mr. Stephen Axtell,
Kamiah, Idaho.

My dear Mr. Axtell:

Arrangements are being made so that your son Obed can join the party of home-going boys leaving here on the evening of June the 7th. At his request a ticket for his use to Kamiah will be provided and it will be appreciated if you will let me hear from you after he has arrived at your home.

Obed has been taking high school work in the Carlisle schools this year and has worked hard and it is believed that the rest at home should benefit him. As he has made so good a record at Carlisle we regret to see him leave and it is hoped it can be arranged so that he can take additional school work next year if he is then physically strong enough to go ahead with his studies.

Very truly yours,

HKM.
