Mr Friedman,
Carlisle Pa.

Dear Sir,

My sister Minnie Charles has written to me and tell me, she cannot endure to stay with Mrs. Pennock, and she says, she has always been the same but gets bad
reports but since
the matron made
her rounds, she has been getting excellent reports

and has not acted
the same all the time. I have been with the family
myself for a long time and know just how it is.

Minnie wants to return to school
or change her place.

I think it would be best for her
to return to school.

Please see to this.

I have wondered why Minnie hasn't had good reports
I understand just how she feels and am sure she tries hard to have good reports.

Sincerely, I am

Mrs. Clarinda Charles Skye

Dear friend:-

I have your letter relative to the return of your sister Minnie to Carlisle and have to say that she is at the school now, having returned on the 12th inst. She can do as she thinks best this winter, remain at Carlisle or go to another home in the country. I was not aware that her reports were bad. There was some trouble between Mrs. Pennock and her last spring but they seemed to get along all right this summer.

Very truly yours

Superintendent.
