Dear Sir.

I have been thinking over some young people that I tho't would be desirable pupils for Carlisle, and have only one that I think would like the advantages that Carlisle^{offers}.

Edward Pierce, my husband's brother has passed his 16th birthday and has been attending the day school here. His mother thinks it not unwise for him to start in some trade along with school work. He has worked some in strength grade but there you can find out just where he belongs. I have told all I can just what Carlisle does for her pupils and I think he will like the school.

Let his mother, Mrs Lydia J. Pierce

I have your letter of the 29th inst. giving the information of the death of your wife Asenoth Bishop, and wish to extend my sympathies to you in this your time of sorrow.

The records show that your wife while a pupil was a splendid girl in every way and I am sorry to know that we have lost a woman of such strong Christian character.

I am going to have the little notice which you sent me published in our school paper so that her friends may know of her death.
