Good-bye, oyster.

Nature has turned a new leaf.

Shad for all, one day last week.

Lots of shopping and new suits these days.

Baby Catherine Bakeless can call Blanche.

Quite a thunderstorm on Thursday evening.

Jessie Ferris has recovered from pneumonia.

The Band on the stand gave a good concert Saturday.

Miss Burgess is at her post of duty after a brief illness.

The athletic-field track is moving forward to completion.

Miss Bowersox spent Sunday at her home near Middleburg.

Miss Weekly made a business trip to Philadelphia, on Saturday.

Some Klamath, Oregon, children are on their way to Carlisle.

Miss Miller is confined to her room with erysipelas, but is improving.

Mr. Vaux, of Philadelphia, was here on a business trip, last Thursday.

Miss Jacobs, of the sewing department who has been ill is again at her post of duty.

Mr. Dagenett has gone to New Jersey on a business trip connected with the school.

Mr. Jordan and his boys are still at the evening-up process of campus improvement.

Misses Clara and Mary Anthony of N. College street were Mrs. Given's guests to tea, Wednesday.

As we went to press yesterday the combined societies were preparing for an entertainment to be given last evening.

Mr. Thompson is engineering the shop court flower beds, and we are going to have nice flowers there again this year.

Grace Thumbeau, who came in from her country home suffering with rheumatism is well again, and anxious to return to work.

Rev. H. B. Stock of the St. Paul's Lutheran Church will officiate as chaplain during May. He preached his first sermon last Sunday.

The tailors' team knocked out 6 runs against the printer twirler the other evening, "shut out" being a foreign thing to the typos, they managing to get in 2 runs.

Mary Wolfe, 1900, has received an appointment to the Government School at Crow Agency, Montana, and Minnie Nick goes to take her place in the home of Jacob Edge, Downingtown. Minnie is as pleased with her prospects as is Mary.

The lawn mowers singeth these days!

Miss Harn has been ill, but returned to her work in the sewing department, full of her usual enthusiasm.

Mr. Harkness has the most exalted position on the grounds. He and his boys are painting the roofs.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennison Wheelock's youngest child, Master Paull, is taking treatment with special nurse at the Todd Hospital, Carlisle.

The recent rains, insufficient as they have been for general vegetation, put out the destructive mountain fires so near us in the South Mountain.

The small boys deserve a great deal of credit for being so kind to the birds. The robins are very tame, and a Baltimore Oriole in the trees this week has been attracting attention and admiration.

Miss Barr attended the Convention of Nurses held in New York City last week. At least she went, but was so ill while there that she was unable to attend. She presented a paper, however, which was read by some one else.

For days the weather has been so cold that steam was required to keep indoor workers comfortable, but Tuesday a hot wave brought the mercury up to 90. Before the next morning, however, storms were followed by a cold wave.

Harold Parker has been chosen President of the Junior class which met last week and formed a class organization. The other officers are: Vice President, Eugene Fisher; Treasurer, Mary Bruce; Secretary, Wm. Mt. Pleasant; Reporter, Marguerita Scholder; Critics, Grace Warren and Thomas Walker. Miss Wood is the teacher of this class.

The game on Thursday with Susquehanna University, here, resulted in a victory for our team by a score of 9 to 6. The feature of the game was Pratt's fine pitching for the home team, striking out 14 men. The Susquehanna representatives are an unusually well behaved lot of young men, and their visits here are always looked forward to with pleasure.

The Susans had a very interesting meeting last Friday evening. This being their closing meeting for this year, a special program consisting of essays, declamations, vocal solos, duets and instrumental solos, was prepared. It would not be fair to point out any special one as doing the best for they all did well, and did themselves "red" — a sign of danger to their brothers, the Invincibles and the Standards.

The Fourth was a hot one.

A fine shower cooled the air.

Boom-it-ee-bang-bang all day.

The crackers get louder every year.

Rachel Washington came in from Alterton for the Fourth.

Miss Miller and Mrs. Canfield spent the afternoon at Newville.

Isabel Young is learning the Livingston system of dress cutting.

Maude Sampson, of Umatilla, Oregon, joined our school on Tuesday.

Mr. Shelly, tailor, resigned and has taken his family to other parts.

Mrs. Lininger of the sewing department is away on her annual leave.

Miss Cutter will go to Cold Spring Harbor L. I., again this year to summer school.

Miss Roberts, of South Dakota, arrived on Saturday to be one of the teachers.

The place is rather quiet after the Fourth is over and so many lively teachers gone.

Miss Elizabeth Paull is spending a few quiet weeks at the near farm with the Bennets.

Watermelon days have come but it is well to be frugally festive with the pioneer fruit.

Miss Forster will attend the Martha's Vineyard School. She left Saturday for Harrisburg.

Mrs. DeLoss was on the sick list for a day or two in the hospital, but is up again and on duty.

All the small girls of the school have been placed in the darning class and are doing nicely.

Miss Clara Smith has gone to her home in Erie, Pa., and will attend summer school at Chautauqua.

Mr. Weber and family are in Reading a few days, visiting friends and relatives of their former home.

Miss McIntyre has gone to her Indianapolis home, and will attend school during the summer, near there.

Miss Botsford, who has been visiting the school for a few days, has gone to her sisters in Connecticut for a time.

Miss Roberts took thirteen of our girls to a lawn fete given by the Methodist church on the afternoon of the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Warner have gone to their New York State home for a vacation, returning in time to start the football practice before the first game in the Fall.

Sunday evening service on the campus was a treat.

Misses Marion and Roxana Pratt, of Steelton are Fourth of July guests at the Major's.

Printer Fred Tibbetts is spending a few days with his sister, Miss Zenia Tibbetts at Downingtown, Pa.

Miss Emma Veale, daughter of the Assistant Superintendent of the Vineland New Jersey Training School, was a guest of Miss Miller, on Sunday.

Miss Carter left on Monday for Massachusetts. She intends spending most of her vacation among the charming Berkshire hills.

Professor Bakeless is in attendance upon the National Education Association and Indian Teachers' Institute, Charleston, S. C.

Mr. Elmer Simon will spend a part of his vacation in the vicinity of his second Alma Mater—the Indiana Normal, this State.

As some of the little folks had never before seen fire works the pyrotechnic display on Wednesday evening was a great revelation to them.

Miss Reasoner, who has been visiting her aunt Mrs. Given for a few days, left on Monday to visit her sister, Mrs. Burns, at Wilmington.

Yesterday, Mrs. Cook and son Hobart took their departure for Wallingford, Conn. Mrs. Cook will attend the Martha's Vineyard summer school.

Maud Snyder who is having a siege with her eyes is helping the printers this week with folding, and other duties not requiring close looking.

Harold Parker has gone home, to Kiowa and Comanche Agency, Oklahoma, for the summer. He is the son of Quanah Parker of Southwestern repute.

Misses Wood, Senseney, Newcomer, Jones, and Stewart have gone to Chicago to attend the great Cook County school, each taking a special line of study.

Willie Paul, who went to a country home a few weeks ago, fell from a cherry tree and broke his arm the other day. He has returned to the school and will soon recover no doubt, as every attention will be given him.

A party consisting of ten boys from the school went to Boiling Springs on the afternoon of the Fourth for a trolley ride, and on their return were caught in a rain storm about half way. There being no power they had to remain in the car during the storm, but fortunately did not get wet, returning in time to attend the Lawn Social on the Dickinson College Campus.

DISCHARGED FROM SCHOOL.
