The Gobbler's Tale

A Story for Thanksgiving Day.

"Tell us the tale, 'o, gobbler dear,"
Cried the wee little turkeys all,
As they went to bed at the twilight hour,
In the fragrant pine tree tall,
"Tell us a tale that will stir our blood,
And cause us to shake with fright!
Tell us a tale of an awful deed
That was done at the dead of night."
"Well," said the gobbler, blinking hard,
"I've just such a tale to tell:
Back in the years when I was young—
I recall it now full well—
November 'twas, and the night was clear,
And the man in the moon he smiled,
As we turkeys all in a careless mood
To the hen-roost gayly filed.
Just as the clock was striking nine,
In the farm-house standing by,
I heard the steps of the farmers' man
From my perch on the cross-bar high,
And then on my ear fell a doleful sound
As he went on his murderous way,
For my friends all fell at his cruel hand,
On the eve of Thanksgiving Day.
Perched up on high, I escaped their fate,
Tho' to stir, I did not dare,
But my heart grew sick as I saw my mate
Lying cold and lifeless there.
She soon was plucked and put to roast,
In the old stone oven gray,
And they carved her flesh with greedy zest,
On the bright Thanksgiving Day."
Big round tears from the gobbler's cheek,
Fell fast as he heaved a sigh;
Ah, me, said he, I am old and tough,
..And too' some day must die,
I am old and tough, but should it happen
That I fall in the self-same way,
I'll be avenged, when they pick my bones
On a bright Thanksgiving Day.

AGAIN VICTORIOUS

The Indians make ex-champions of the Pride of the West

Last Saturday the Carlisle Indians locked horns with the far-famed, much-heralded Champions of the West at Minneapolis, Minn., and after a hard fought battle, fighting against heavy odds in weight and muddy field succeeded in placing the name and fame of the eleven from the Minnesota University on the retired list, and those who were the Champions now use the prefix ex- before the title. The Indians will enjoy the privilege of the word.

Fully twenty-five thousand people were present at the game, among them many Indians from the reservation, and when the two teams entered the large enclosure the greetings were loud and long. Of course Minnesota had rooters galore, but the Indians, chafing under their defeat by Harvard, a short week before, had made up their mind to run the Gophers to earth and bring home to their friends a scalp from Minneapolis. They went at the Gopher aggregation with teeth, hammer and tongs. Weight, such a heavy handicap against them, was offset by speed and a thorough understanding of signals. The Indians played football as only the Indians can. Archie Libby, ever on the alert, swift as a streak of graphited lightning, made Minnesota look foolish by kicking three field goals. And Hendricks, just as a diversion, scores a touchdown for the Gophers to ponder over.

Seventeen to nothing in favor of the Indians. Oh Minnesota, we can not refrain from singing the good old-fashioned doxology. The crowd of spectators were naturally in favor of the University team, but after a short lapse of time it dawned upon the rooters that Minnesota was up against the real thing, and every play that the Indians made was a friend winner. At the end of the game the Redman was a 17 to 0 favorite. The game was clean and both teams showed the true sportsman spirit and few penalties were inflicted.

The Indians have now lowered the pennant of the champions of the West and are looking for the Champions of the South.

Details of the game and opinions of the Press will be found on another page.

Y.M.C.A—Reception—Y.W.C.A.

The reception given on Thursday evening last by Y.W.C.A.—Y.M.C.A. for the benefit of the new students who entered school since July was a great success.

The gymnasium in which the reception was held was tastefully and richly decorated with national flags. One would hardly believe this was the same gymnasium in which the socials are held on Saturday evenings.

Entering into the main room the vice president from each Association stood at the entrance greeting students cordially.

In looking around, table games, and questions up along the sides of the Hall were to be seen.

The program was so arranged that everybody could take part. It consisted of a question contest and table games which were amusing.

The second feature of the evening was that of potato and sack racing. The first two winners were awarded a Carlisle badge.

The answers to the questions as stated before were gotten up to decide who should have the first and second prizes. These being Bible questions the Bible and the Book of Psalms were awarded.

The Y.M.C.A. Glee Club was the next number on the program, in which they sang the old southern plantation song which was well rendered as was manifested by hand clapping and other demonstrations of approval heard from all sides of the room.

The Y. W. C. A. vocal quartette was next to sing. Their singing was so well received that they were compelled to give an encore which they did.

The cornet solo by Paul White and trombone solo by Charles Huber were so excellently rendered that they were asked to give an encore, Mr. Stauffer at the piano as accompanist.

Light refreshment was served, consisting of ice cream, cake and coffee and the evening was most pleasantly spent.

The two presidents of the association are to be congratulated for making the enterprise so successful, ably assisted by Misses Bowersox, Hill, and Roberson.

Occasions of this character are a great benefit to the student body, and are always looked back upon as one of the joys of life at Carlisle. —MANUS.

PROVERB

We must never forget, as we think or speak of patriotism, that such private virtues as honesty and industry are its best helps.

Jamestown Exposition in 1907

It is impossible to estimate the value of tangible results that will accrue to States, Municipalities, and foreign countries following participation in the Jamestown Ter-Centennial, at Norfolk, Va., in 1907. Many reasons and advantages combine to make this statement a patent fact, when the importance of the celebration, its geographical location and its unique character is remembered. A slight conception of the favor with which the Exposition has met may be formed, when it is pointed out that more than four-fifths of the available exhibit space has been applied for, seven months before the opening date. The applicants represent every line of domestic and foreign manufacturers and producers, who realize that a similar opportunity for improving commerce and trade conditions generally throughout the United States, European and South American countries has never before been offered.

The plan of combining municipal exhibits with manufacturers of cities has struck a popular chord. Commercial organizations are exerting efforts in this direction that promise to result in many cities being represented along this line. It has been satisfactorily shown that the Jamestown Exposition will have an attendance never before equalled, with the possible exception of the Great World's Fair, and the advantages of displaying the varied resources, raw materials, manufactured products, and exploiting inducements to capital seeking investment, will bring results that could never be accomplished through any other business channel.

In response to President Roosevelt's invitation to participate these nations have accepted, and will be represented either by warships, detachments of troops, or civil delegations, while some will make industrial and technical exhibits: Great Britain, Germany, Russia, Italy, France, Belgium, Mexico, Venezuela, Denmark, Japan, Costa Rica, Argentine Republic, Chile, Guatemala, Switzerland, Haiti.

Many of the States of the Union have erected buildings, including Virginia, New York, New Jersey, Missouri, Ohio, Massachusetts, Connecticut, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Kentucky, Michigan, Wisconsin, Rhode Island, and several others are expected, while each State will contribute to the great historical, commercial and industrial exhibits. Cities that will participate independent of the States in which they are situated will embrace Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Hartford, Syracuse, Milwaukee, Richmond, all of which will make extensive displays, combining municipal, commercial and industrial features.

The Jamestown Ter-Centennial is a new and distinct departure in Expositions. Former exhibitions have invariably been held in inland cities, and were all of one general character, while this celebration is situated on the shores of the finest and most historic body of water in America, large enough to float the navies of the world, and upon which will be held the greatest naval rendezvous in the world's history.

It is within a few hours' travel of more than 21,000,000 persons, and twenty-four hours of two-thirds of the entire population of the United States, easily reached by seven great trunk lines of railways and twenty-six lines of steamships, which center at the Tidewater cities of Norfolk, Portsmouth, and Newport News.

World's Fairs have been the time-keepers of progress, but the Jamestown Exposition is the advance agent of higher civilization, which will create an era of increased prosperity and material advancement, and at the same time will more than realize the prediction to be the greatest, most gorgeous and novel celebration ever undertaken in the United States or any foreign country.

Exchanges

The Signal, the publication of the New Jersey State Normal is just entering upon its fourteenth volume and comes to us a well-edited, neatly gotten-up magazine. Its news notes are varied and interesting and its advertising patronage very comforting. We note no less than an even dozen firms advertising 'goodies and sweeties' for the coming school marm's in its columns. Away back in one corner it says "ARROW Carlisle—Your paper breaths a wholesome spirit of hang-togetherness that is refreshing." Oh, Beatrice, thanks awfully.

Vol. VII, No. 2 of The Wesleyan, published by students of Wesleyan Female College, Macon, Ga., is a beauty. This magazine is one of the many real good College "mags" that come to our table, but this number is accompanied by eleven beautiful half-tones of eleven beautiful Wesleyans, the staff of the magazine. It was cruel to do it but those eleven now add cheer to our Wigwam, even if we did have to mutilate the publication.

If you cannot forgive your enemies, try it on some of your fool friends.

The real meaning of the word "hero" is: "A sincere man." Alas! How few heroes there are nowadays!

Prospective West Pointer

William J. Gardner, our left end on the football team, has received the distinguished honor of an appointment to West Point and is now preparing himself to enter the Government school. He will devote his time to study so that his entrance examination may be not only be a credit to Carlisle but also to his native State, South Dakota, from whence he secures his appointment.

The Rose Stock Company

The presentation of a "Quaker Tragedy" by the Rose Stock Company on Wednesday evening in the Auditorium was one of the best productions seen in many seasons. N. H. Showalter, "the Rollingmill man," is a talented and conscientious actor of no mean degree and his portrayal of John Miller was a thoroughly studied and finished piece of acting. Martha Edwards, as Ola, and E'sie Mae Williams, as Clara Birdsall ably supported the star and received proper recognition from the audience. The story of the play is a pretty one: a self-sacrificing black-sheep son who is constantly shielding his hypocritical brother. A woman's love and a happy ending.

The specialties were far above the average. Charley Ahearn is a finished bicyclist, both trick and fancy. Fred Morgan's impersonations and imitations were very amusing, and Dal Jeffries showed careful training in an athletic number.

Ex-Carlisle Student

Doubtless some of our student readers remember one Wesley Tallchief who left school some time ago. On his return home Wesley was unable to get the work he wished so he wrote to his former country father Mr. Ellsworth Haines, one of our patrons, asking him for work. Mr. Haines accepted him and Wesley worked there something over a year. All the time he was looking forward to obtaining a position on the Railroad, and secured a place last Spring with the Penna. R. R. Co.

A few days ago Wesley visited Mr. Haines and the report is that this ex-Carlisle is a full fledged fireman on the main line of the Penna. R. R. Further he visited the old church he had joined while living at Mr. Haines' paid up his dues there and said he still wished to be considered a member. This is the story of only one boy, brought up on a reservation in the State of New York who has gone out into the world of industry, found his work and kept it. I believe there are many such. Can't some reader give us some others?

➔ The football team have been traveling about considerably of late. After the Minneapolis game they came South to Nashville, Tenn., where they played Thursday and then back to Cincinnati for a game on Saturday. Next week at Norfolk, Va., against the University of Virginia. We hope this is a triumphal march to close the season.

Invincible Debating Society

The Invincibles have had a splendid meetings in days gone by, but the meeting on Friday evening last was even better than their former assemblies. The attendance was large and made it necessary for sergeant-at-arms Guy Cooley to carry in more chairs. There was much enthusiasm among the members, many facts were brought out concerning their future prospects. There are many reasons for believing that this society will not run very far behind this coming winter.

The new members who recently pledged themselves to support the society are doing extremely well.

John Runclose gave an organ solo which was greatly appreciated.

Misses Wood and Goyituey and Mr. Colegrove were the honored visitors. Miss Wood, former advisory member of the society was called upon to say a few words in which she expressed her appreciation of the strong efforts put forth in these meetings. Miss Goyituey was next called upon to make a speech, she also congratulated the society for their efforts. Mr. Colegrove, our present advisory member, was next called upon to make a few remarks. He presented some new thoughts to the members with great favor and earnestness.

The program which was duly appreciated and well carried out, was as follows: Declamation, Albert Jackson; Essay, Peter Thomas; Extemporaneous speeches, John Monhart and Jonas Homer; Oration, Guy Cooley; Organ solo, John Runclose; Debate, Resolved, "That the people of New York state should have elected W. R. Hearst as governor of their commonwealth." Affirmative, Casper Cornelius and Simeon Stabler; Negative, William White and Joshua Billings. The Affirmative won.

Housekeeping

Miss Goyituey showed herself just the one to give a talk on "Housekeeping" to our students. It was one of the most practical Chapel talks of the year. Much of it was based on the experience that comes to our girls in good homes under the outing system.

Carlisle girls are very fortunate in having opportunity to learn housekeeping and cooking under the careful supervision of a sympathetic mother in a small family. It goes ahead of class work every time.

A shoe that pinches our neighbor's foot is a ridiculous vanity.

→ Freeman Johnson, a member of the Senior class, proved himself a singer last Friday evening in the Standard Society meeting by singing a song entitled, "Some one thinks of some one."

→ Any of the employees desiring magazines for the coming year would be wise in seeing the clubbing offers to subscribers to be found at the Printing Office. A dollar or two may be saved thereby.

→ The freshman class have for the past two weeks been studying grammar in conjugation of the verb in simple forms, and they all enjoy it very much but are hoping to finish the task in a few days.

→ Miss Flora Jamison, Seneca, of Cattaraugus, New York, is employed on the south side, in Chicago and frequently calls on Mr. and Mrs. James E. Johnson. She says it is good to get among old Carlisle people once more.

→ Mrs. Susie B. Ryan, a student here in years gone by, but now of Wolf Point, Montana, writes that one of her greatest pleasures is the receipt of the ARROW each week, which keeps her in touch with her Alma Mater.

→ Stewart Hazlett, '99, now a prosperous ranchman at Browning, Montana, was a business visitor in Chicago the early part of November and called on Mr. and Mrs. James E. Johnson at the Northwestern University Dental School.

→ The third team will not play any games until Thanksgiving day. The game on that day will be at Allentown, Pa., with the strong Muhlenburg college eleven. The third team haven't lost a game yet and we expect the team to bring home another scalp on that day.

→ In a letter to a friend we learn that Richard Hinman is enjoying a country life in Robbinsville, New Jersey. He says his schooling has begun. He states too, that his health is in the best of condition. Richard wishes to be remembered to all of his friends at Carlisle.

→ Miss Bowersox gave the morning division a helpful talk about students finding things out for themselves on different subjects in the Library. We hope all who belong to the three societies will remember and be helped by it. The Library is full of good books on different subjects and we have no excuse. So let us help ourselves first and then ask others for help.

→ The Printing Department expects to turn out elaborate Thanksgiving Menu Cards, for the students' dinner on the 29th day of November, on which day the people of this country, "shall meet in their homes or their churches, devotedly acknowledge all that has been given them and to pray that they may receive power to use these gifts aright."— Says a "white typo."

→ Miss Grove arrived last Monday night from her home at Center Hall, Pa., to assume her new duties in the students' dining hall. Mrs. Morret, who has been assisting in the dining hall for several weeks, will transfer to the hospital. The students will miss her pleasant face greatly but it will be for the benefit of those under treatment in the hospital.

OPINIONS OF THE GAME

"Pudge" Heffelfinger—Those Indians play football. They have the "nose for the ball" and are right there all the time. I don't think there were more than two times in the whole game when the ball hit the ground without one of those Carlisle players getting it. Mt. Pleasant is one of the best, if not the best kicker the game has ever developed.

John Gleason, president of the Minnesota athletic board of control—While it is not pleasant to lose a game like this, it is some comfort to know that we have lost to as good a team as Carlisle. There is nothing to say except that we were fairly beaten by a better team.

Frank Reed, business manager for Minnesota—They beat us.

Sig Harris, assistant coach of Minnesota—The Indians played all around us today, and, while we have no excuses to make, we feel it a misfortune that we should have shown up so badly in so many of the essentials of the game. The Indians are certainly a great bunch to follow the ball, and showed great football instincts thruout the game.

Professor James Paige, faculty member of the Minnesota athletic board of control—This is not pleasant, but we cannot complain. Carlisle won fairly and is entitled to full credit for its victory. We try to do better next time.

Harry G. Gale, umpire—The Indians played a brilliant game. Their ability to advance the ball on old-style plays was surprising. They had a great advantage in the fact that they had a good goal-kicker. The game was very clean.

Dr. H. L. Williams, Athletic Director Minnesota—Carlisle has a fine team. They played the best game on the field today. They deserved everything they got and the best team won. This, however, does not detract in any way from the magnificent game put up by Carlisle. The Indians played hard all of the time, but played clean football.

John Warren, guard on the famous 1903 gopher team—Carlisle won on its merits. It was not luck, but it was clean football, and the Indians were the better at it. The line-men certainly played great ball. They charged hard and fast, and altho they were out weighed they seemed to more than hold their own.

"Gil" Dobie former quarterback on Minnesota and coach of the Fargo Agricultural college—Minnesota was outplayed and best team won. The Indians seem to diagnose the gopher plays and they sifted thru the Minnesota line continually. I had expected Minnesota to make a better showing.

Simon Michelet, Indian agent at White Earth—It was a case of the real Americans against the latter-day comers of the country, and the score tells the story. Of course I wanted the Indians to win, but the game was a good clean exhibition thruout, and, from my experience with the Indians, should say that they are mighty good winners. The game was clean.

George Otte, former tackle on the gopher team—We were defeated, and it was done fairly and squarely. The Carlisle team certainly played great football. Libby is a wonder and Mount Pleasant is a good second. Minnesota has won the championship of the west, and should not be discouraged, however. The men played a good game and the students have no kick coming.

Carlisle's teamwork could not be improved upon, and the individuality of the players was a little short of marvelous.

Libby at the quarter ran his team with splendid generalship. This, coupled with Mount Pleasant's steady but not sensational punting and Libby's goal kicking, played a big part in the victory.

Too much praise cannot be given the play of the Indians. Their speed was even in excess of the reports coming before them. As a whole the team moved with wonderful speed and individually they are wonders. They are after the ball all of the time and on kick or fumble the gophers generally arrived just a fraction of a second too late. When the redmen struck, they struck with telling force, and the speed of the backfield men and dodging ability proved a constant menace to Minnesota.—Journal.

Junior Varsity Overwhelms Bellaire—40 to 6

On Indian Field last Saturday fully 400 enthusiastic students saw the Junior Varsity walk over the Bellaire team of Carlisle in a game of foot-ball. The game was called at 2:30 P. M. Junior Varsity kicked off to Bellaire on their five-yard line who returned it to their own twenty-five line; after several attempts to penetrate the Juniors' line was forced to punt, Archambault returned the ball back ten yards. The Junior Varsity gained at will but after reaching the one-yard line struck a stone wall and the ball went to Bellaire on downs, who punted out of danger to their own thirty-yard line. The Juniors then began their powerful attack, and in a few minutes Miller was shoved over the line for a touchdown. Walker kicking the goal and making the score 6 to 0. Bellaire then kicked off to the Junior Varsity who returned it to their own twenty-five yard line. After several attempts to penetrate the strong line of the Bellaire team was forced to punt and Quarterback Klyne returned the ball in the middle of the field; after an attempt for a quarterback run Klyne was thrown for a loss of five yards and was forced to punt and the ball sailed high in the air and on a bounce a Bellaire man recovering the ball ran twenty yards for a touchdown. The goal was kicked score 6 to 6. Junior Varsity then received the kick and ran it to their own thirty-five yard line and by terrific line plunges and end runs placed the ball on their opponents' fifteen-yard line, but after several attempts to gain had failed Davenport dropped back and kicked a field goal from the twenty-yard line making the score 10 to 6.

With about five minutes yet to play the Bellaires kicked off to the Junior Varsity's five-yard line in which Walker returned the kick to mid-field. After several attempts at end runs the Bellaires were again forced to punt Archambault returning the ball to his own forty-yard line. Then the Juniors started to march down the field and after a few long end runs Miller was again shoved over for a touchdown. Walker kicking the goal, score 16 to 6. The Juniors then kicked off to Bellaire and after a few rushes the whistle blew, the ball in Bellaire's possession.

In the second half the teams exchanged goals. There was a little change. Taylor went in as guard and Hemlock took Walker's place at halfback. Bellaire again kicked off to Juniors and after a few rushes the ball was in mid-field, the Juniors then punted and the ball was on their opponents' five yard line. Klyne was forced to punt but the ball was blocked and Wolfe the Junior star little end dropped on the ball for a touchdown. Davenport kicking the goal score 22 to 6. The Juniors received the kick off and after a few rushes Archambault left the game and Sundown was placed at quarter and Twin at end and Sheehan took Capt. Cooley's place at guard. On a fake play Hemlock ran thirty yards for a touchdown. Davenport again kicking the goal—score 28 to 6. The Juniors again received the kick and after a few long runs Wolfe the plucky little end scored another touchdown. Davenport kicked the goal score 34 to 6. The Bellaires again kicked off and the Juniors instead of rushing the ball booted the pigskin to their opponents' twenty-yard line in which they were forced to punt. After a few rushes Davenport tried another field goal but the wind was too strong and the ball went wide. The Bellaires then punted out from the twenty-five yard line and again the Juniors rushed the ball to their opponents' ten-yard line from which Davenport went over for the last touchdown. Davenport again kicked goal score 40 to 6. With about a minute to play the Juniors kicked off and in an attempt for a quarterback run Klyne had his knee hurt and just then the referee's whistle blew. The second half ended with the ball in mid-field score 40 to 6. Time of halves 20 and 15 minutes.

Harnessmakers—Blacksmiths

Last Saturday at 9:30 A. M. the Harnessmakers and the Blacksmiths lined up for their annual game of foot-ball on the Athletic field before a crowd of enthusiastic spectators. Both teams were well prepared for the contest, having put the best material that was in each team to determine who were the mightiest on the gridiron. The Blacksmiths kicked off to the Harnessmakers on the latter's 10-yard line, from whence they advanced the ball toward the goal with surprising team-work. The Blacksmiths bewildered by the playing of their opponents took a brace and compelled the advancing leathermen to punt, but only to gain it again because of the poor judgment displayed by the Blacksmiths' back-field. Three successive times the Harnessmakers were compelled to punt and each time gaining the ball, the last bringing near to the Blacksmiths goal, where with a few rushes the Harnessmakers carried the ball over for a touchdown. The goal was missed. Score first half 5—0, in favor of Harnessmakers.

The second half was the scene of real football struggle, the punting displayed by both teams was of first class order, the Harnessmakers excelling. As the oval spired through the air cries from the side lines, "Nail him Harnessmakers, hammer away Blacksmiths," could be heard from the loyal rooters of both sides. The dazzled Blacksmiths tried to score but could not as the Waxpullers held them in check by their wonderful punting. The final score Harnessmakers 5, Blacksmiths 0.—NUT QUAD.

Mr. Gansworth in Buffalo

When Mr. Colegrove was in Buffalo, N. Y., recently he spent an evening with Carlisle's old friend Howard Gansworth. Mr. Gansworth is at present employed with a manufacturing company and is greatly interested in his work.

Mr. Gansworth is still one of us at heart and his friendships formed at Carlisle as student and employee are as dear to him as ever. We wish him well—his success is ours.

Printers—Carpenters

Last Saturday the Carpenters' famous foot-ball team met its Waterloo in a fiercely contested gridiron battle, fought between them and the sturdy Printers.

In the first half the Printers played a wonderful game keeping the Carpenters in their own territory most of the time. One of the star players for Printers was Captain James Paisano, who played half-back, he would shoot around the ends of opponents seemingly unseen, for long gains. He made a touch-down on one of his speedy end runs, but they failed to kick an easy goal.

The team work of the Printers was great; they out played the wood-workers in every respect. The Carpenters had a fierce punter back of their line; it seemed to be an easy matter for him to place the ball in the most difficult place in the field for his opponents to recover, but quarter-back Lydick was always there and run the punts back with great skill.

When the Carpenters had the ball they would hammer the line of the Printers but they always seemed to strike a stumbling block and would often fall behind the line for no gain. The forward pass worked well for the Printers. There were two instances when Jackson the Printers' end was down and a forward pass was made to him that he caught the ball and gained fifteen or twenty yards. The first half ended and the score stood 5 to 0 in favor of the Printers.

In the second half the Carpenters went into the struggle with a determination to win; they would rush the ball through the opponents' line for short gains. Near the last part of the second half the game was played mostly in the middle of the field. Neither side could score in the second half.

The Carpenters' half-back Pappan had his nose injured near the last part of the second-half.

On one occasion the Printers had an opportunity to score in the second half. Jackson caught a forward pass and had a clear field before him but he was blocked by his own men for just a second and the opportunity was lost. When the time was up the ball was on the Carpenters' 45-yard line and in their possession; the score was still 5 to 0.

The Printers have a chance to win the championship and no doubt they will improve it.

The whole school witnessed the game, there were hundreds of people who saw the Printers put the Carpenters out of business. The Carpenters will not appear on the field again this year. It was too bad that the Printers had to put them out but it couldn't be helped. THIN SPACE.

Indian Rooters at Minneapolis

About two hundred reservation Indians came in to Minneapolis to see the the Carlisle team clean up the University boys last Saturday and their presence was manifest by the yells and warwhoops at the plays of our team. There were about fifty aborigines from Manitoba also at the game, all helping Carlisle beat the pride of the west.

President Eliot Softens

Boston, Nov. 13.—Football, under the new rules, as demonstrated in the Harvard-Carlisle game at Cambridge Saturday, meets with favorable comment from President Charles W. Eliot, of Harvard University, in an interview made public yesterday.

President Eliot, whose attitude toward the sport last year made it seem probable that football would soon be dropped from Harvard's athletic schedule, attended Saturday's contest and expressed his enjoyment of the game, which, he said, appeared to him "free from unnecessary roughness." President Eliot said:

"I saw the game between Harvard and Carlisle at the Stadium, and I can say frankly that I enjoyed it. I consider that many of the things which appeared to me to be objectionable under the system employed in former years have been eradicated by the new rules, or, perhaps, by the new way of playing the game. The contest, in so far as I could see, was free from unnecessary roughness and there apparently was no brutality.

"Much has been done, to my mind' in improving the game by the rules committee this year, and there only remains further improvement in other years along the same lines. I hope to see the game again improved by additional modification along the same general lines as this year."

Football is considered on probation at Harvard this year. A committee appointed several months ago is still discussing the subject of athletic sports, with especial reference to foot-ball, but has not yet submitted its report. President Eliot's views as expressed today, it is expected, will have some weight with the committee in recommending that foot-ball be retained on the Crimson's athletic calendar.

Improvements in Large Boys' Quarters

One of the most important improvements of the year has been recently completed at Large Boys' Quarters. This is the placing of waste water sinks and three water faucets on the second and third floors. Until the present time it was necessary for all boys to go to the two faucets in the rear of quarters for water and to empty buckets. Eli Peazzoni has had charge of the work under Mr. Weber's direction. It is not necessary to say it is well done. There is but small chance for fire in this building but even the small chance is lessened with the water on each floor.

Society Visitors

Section 6, of the "Regulations Relating to the Literary Societies, 1906—7," reads as follows:

"Employees in details of two will take turns in visiting the societies, and give the Assistant Superintendent the benefit of their observations and criticisms."

The detail for this Friday evening is:—Invincibles, Messrs. Gumbriell and Bigjim; Standards, Misses Wood and Goytuey; Susans, Messrs. Nori and Stauffer.
