THE COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

The Commencement exercises of the class of 1910, from the baccalaureate address delivered in the auditorium by Dr. W. H. P. Faunce, president of Brown University, on Sunday afternoon, to the close of the alumni reception on Friday evening, were attended by a large and appreciative audiences. A great number of guests, patrons and other visitors were present, the weather was delightful and every event, except the superintendent's reception to the graduates, which had to be postponed on account of the illness of Mrs. Smith, passed off smoothly reflecting much credit on the participants in the various features of the week.

The drills in the gymnasium for the school on Monday and for the public on Tuesday, followed by the military drill on the campus at which Captain Allen, U. S. A., awarded the prize for the best drilled troop to Troop F, were equalled in interest only by the three performances of the opera, "The Captain of Plymouth" on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights. The presence of Mr. Henry C. Eldridge, composer of the opera, added to the enthusiasm of Wednesday evening's entertainment.

The first exhibition lacrosse game and the annual handicap track meet were held on Indian field Wednesday afternoon. A large number of "rooters" cheered the winners of the game and the track events. The teams matched in the lacrosse game were both made up of students reinforced on one side by Mr. John White, the coach. The side dubbed "Blacks" defeated their opponents, the "Reds". The summary of events and winners in the track and field meet follows:

The Graduation Exercises.

Graduation exercises proper were held in the gymnasium on Thursday afternoon. The graduates, the girls attired in dainty white dresses and the boys in neat serge suits, shared the honors of the hour with the distinguished speakers of the afternoon, Hon. Robert G. Valentine, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, who made a brief address and presented the diplomas; and His Excellency, Governor Stuart, of Pennsylvania, who also spoke to the graduates. Besides these speeches, a number of talks were delivered by students showing the various phases of industrial and academic work at Carlisle. Each did his part well. These talks were illustrated by actual demonstrations of the work in progress. A class in stenography and typewriting gave an exhibition of its ability in that work; a class in the Normal Department under the direction of two pupil teachers, showed results obtained there; the making of a mission style table and chair by boys from the carpentry department, the painting of a carriage, signs, etc., by some representatives from that department, and the building of a brick wall and plastering by the masonry department apprentices served to show in interesting form how and what the industrial departments are accomplishing for the Indian boys at Carlisle. The music by the band, the mandolin club, the students' chorus, and a double quartet was repeatedly encored.

Gymnastic and Military Drills.

The gymnastic drills in the gymnasium included troop drills by a company of Carlisle cadets, a pyramid drill by small boys, an Indian club drill by the large boys and girls, a bar bell drill by the girls, and a sabre drill by the boys. These were all under the direction of Capt. Harry Wheeler. The band was in attendance and furnished music for the occasion.

The military drill for prizes took place on the campus immediately after the gymnastic drills. The prizes offered were for the best drilled company, a trophy cup, a sword for its captain and an ice-cream treat for the entire company. The company standing second also received the treat and the captain was presented a gold medal. All the companies first passed in review before the officer who was to make the decision, Capt. Allen, who was specially detailed from Washington for this drill, and then each company was drilled by its captain for ten minutes. At the end of the maneuvers, Capt. Allen announced his decision, the first prize going to Company F, the Small Boys' troop, and Company B, Peter Houser, captain, second. Capt. Allen presented the sword to William Owl, captain of the winning company, and complimented all the boys on their splendid showing.

"The Captain of Plymouth."

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings were given over to performances of "The Captain of Plymouth," the comic opera which was so well received when presented at last year's commencement. Its success was

THE NEXT FOOTBALL SCHEDULE.

Below will be found our football schedule for next season's gridiron campaign. The list of games is a longer and harder one than most schedules of the previous years but Mr. Warner believes that the new rules will enable a team to play a harder schedule of games with less hardship upon the players than formerly, because so many rough features have been eliminated by the rules committee and the game is bound to be more open.

It will be noticed that all the games will be played in the East and practically all will be played upon college grounds. Judging from the numerous requests for games from prominent teams in all parts of the country it seems that the Indians are becoming more popular as a football attraction each year and the school is to be congratulated upon being able to arrange a schedule with such representative and prominent teams.

Many changes have been made over the schedules of the previous years, the notable ones being dropping of all the western games, the playing of Dickinson for the first time since 1906, Cornell for the first time since 1902 and taking on a game with Princeton at the latter's request. Bucknell was substituted for State College on account of the latter team's unsportsmanlike and ungentlemanly conduct in the game at Wilkesbarre last year.

The prospects for the 1910 team seem considerably better than last year.

GENERAL SCHOOL NEWS.

(Crowded out of the Senior Number.)

Miss Anna Heagy was one of the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stauffer during commencement.

Montreville Yuda and Peter Jordon represented the sophomore class at opening exercises last Monday.

Mrs. Sellers and daughters of Dauphin, Pa., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stauffer during commencement.

Among the many visitors during commencement week were Mrs. Runnels and two children, of West Chester, Pennsylvania.

Bernard Herman, who came here with his mother two weeks ago, began his studies with the sophomore class last Monday.

Many of the boys spent their half-holiday last Friday at the Cave. They report having had a good time trying to explore it.

Katie Wesh will leave for her home at Keshena, Wisconsin, Wednesday evening. The good wishes of her teachers, friends and classmates go with her.

Helen Kimmell, who has been assisting in the Club kitchen for the last three months, is now preparing to go out into the country with the first party.

Mrs. Green Clay Smith (mother of Mrs. Friedman) who has been ill for the past two weeks, is now convalescing nicely. We all rejoice at her improvement.

Miss Ida Swallow and a friend came from Oak Lane, Pennsylvania, for commencement. Miss Swallow visited her brothers and a sister who are students here.

In the handicap meet which was held last Wednesday, Sampson Burd distinguished himself as an all-around athlete. He surprised the natives by capturing four prizes.

Mr. Stauffer gave a treat to each member of the band as a reward for their good playing during the commencement exercises. The boys appreciated the kindness very much.

Wauseka, William Garlow and William Newashe, left last Friday morning for Harrisburg, where they will play ball with the Harrisburg League Team during the coming season.

Last Sunday Antone Danforth came in from the country to visit his friends. He has been living at New Kingston, Pa., but a few days ago the people for whom he is working moved to Carlisle and now he expects to visit the school often.

After the performance of the opera last Friday evening at Harrisburg Mr. Eldridge, who composed the music of, "Captain of Plymouth," had to bid us good-bye; we all regretted to have him leave but he left us complimentary copies of some of the songs we sang.

The Y. M. C. A. had a very interesting meeting last Sunday evening; it was conducted by president, James Mumblehead. Mr. Friedman was called upon and he made an address to the boys that will probably make a lasting impression upon them. The meeting closed with very helpful remarks from Mr. Whitwell.

Sunday evening, April 2, Superintendent Friedman and Mr. Whitwell each gave inspiring talks to the members of the Y. M. C. A. The words spoken by them will long be remembered and be helpful to those who are going home, or to the country, and to those of us who remain here during the summer. The subject of their talks was "Character," and they proved to us that character is the most important thing in upholding the individual or the nation. After the meeting was over Mr. Whitwell presented to the members cases containing the membership cards.

ABOUT CARLISLE ATHLETICS.

The relay team and Tewanima won the feature events at the big indoor meet recently held at Buffalo. The Buffalo papers commented as follows:

The Carlisle Indians, always popular with the Buffalo sport-loving public, were the big attraction at the 65th Regiment games last evening. Glenn Warner always sends out a strong team, and his medley-relay team is no exception to the rule. Any team that has anything on the 65th Regiment aggregation is a good one, and the Carlisle team certainly had it on the locals.

Parlour and DuPuis ran the 220 for their respective teams, the former finishing three yards ahead. Joe Slomin led Twohearts a merry chase, but the man with the fickle name closed up the gap until a bare yard intervened. Blackstar sprinted in the second lap of his 660 and at the finish passed Ferris, gradually pulling away from him until he had fifteen yards at the finish.

Edgar Moore never needed this handicap, for Joe Driscoll could not come within striking distance of him. Moore finished 30 yards to the good. His time for the half was 1:57 4-5, which is 11-5 seconds better than the old armory record held by Joe Driscoll. The Indians were generously applauded for their work.

The main event of the card was the special five-mile race between Obermeyer of Brooklyn, Corkery of Toronto and Tewanima, the great little Indian runner. At the end of the second mile Corkery was half a lap behind and after that never was a contender. In every lap of the 40, but the first, seventh, ninth and tenth, Tewanima made the pace. In the third lap of the fourth mile Corkery was lapped and after that the Indian commenced to pull away from Obermeyer. At the end of the fourth mile he was a quarter of a lap ahead and at the end of the race he was within twenty yards of lapping Obermeyer. The time was 25.39 2-5.—Buffalo Express.

One indoor record smashed, a flight of aeroplanes and a spectacular five-mile run were just a few of the many features which marked the indoor games of the 65th Regiment Athletic Association held last evening at the big Armory. The record was made in the last 880-yd. run in the especial medley race between the Carlisle Indians and the relay team of the 65th Regt. A. A. A. Joe Driscoll and Edgar Moore were the last men to fight it out. Moore, a long-limbed native American with a pretty stride, was off like a flash after Blackstar had gained a slight lead in the second 660 yards of the race. Driscoll trailed the flying red man and it was a heart-breaking pace to the finish.

The big crowd which filled the armory, was wildly enthusiastic and there was a general outburst when Moore crossed the line fully 20 yds. in advance of Driscoll. Moore, it was generally conceded, was one of the prettiest runners seen at the armory in some time. The record for this distance, 1:59, was made last November by Driscoll but Moore last night did it in 1:57 4-5.

It was the Red Man's night in point of honors. Little Tewanima from the Carlisle School proved a revelation. He was pitted against George J. Obermeyer of the National A. C. of Brooklyn and J. Corkery of I. C. A. C. of Toronto, in the special five-mile run.

Tewanima never changed his pace and was greeted with wild bursts of applause as he reeled off mile after mile. Obermeyer was making a gritty effort, but the red man had the stamina and at the clang of the bell he shot forth a burst of speed that made even the old timers sit up. He crossed the line with a wide margin to spare. The time for the five miles was 25:39 2-5.—Buffalo Courier.

Each member of the relay team won a gold watch and Tewanima's prize was a diamond ring.

The boys were the guests of the 65th Regiment on a trip to Niagara Falls the day after the meet,

The first matched game of lacrosse ever played at Carlisle resulted in a victory for Lehigh University last Saturday by a score of 3 to 2. The Indians scored 2 goals in the first half and seemed to have the game well in hand, but unusually rough tactics by the Lehigh players in the second half caused some of the Carlisle players to lose their nerve and enabled the visitors to win by a narrow margin. On the whole the showing made by Carlisle was as good as could be expected by a team playing their first game against an experienced team. Coach O'Neil has made a vast improvement in the team in the short time he has been here, and his coaching and the experience gained in the first few games, should enable the team to make a good record before the season is over.

The six members of the track team who took part in the big indoor meet at Pittsburg last Saturday night won honors for themselves and the school as follows: The two mile relay team consisting of Twohearts, Morris, Blackstar and Moore, won second place in their matched race with Pennsylvania and Yale; Penn. was first, and Yale third. Fred Pappan won second place in the two mile Middle-Atlantic A. A. U. Championship and was timed separately in 9 min., 55 sec., which is better time than the present school record held by Tewanima.

Tewanima won the five mile race easily. His prize was a gold time-keeper and stop watch combined. The other boys won silver medals.

This completes a very successful indoor track season.

The Class contest in track and field sports will be held April 23 and there is much speculation as to which class will have the honor of displaying the championship banner during the present school year. It will be a close contest between several of the classes. First places count 5, seconds 3, thirds 2, and fourths 1, so that many contestants will be able to score points even if they are not quite good enough to get first or second places.

Lewis Tewanima will compete in a special 10 mile indoor race in New York City next Saturday night. He has been improving his speed right along and expects to lower the indoor record, which he now holds for this distance.

THE COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

even greater this year. All of the principals and every chorus came in for much applause and many encores from the audiences which crowded the auditorium each night. Wednesday night's performances was especially interesting on account of the presence of Mr. Harry C. Eldridge, composer of the music of the opera, and such other distinguished visitors as Mr. Valentine, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and Bishop Darlington of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of Harrisburg.

The Opera in Harrisburg.

The Majestic Theatre in Harrisburg was the scene of still another performance of the opera on Friday afternoon and evening. A special train which left the school siding at 11:30 took the entire company, costumes and scenery, to the capital city where fresh laurels were added to those won on our stage. The audiences, while not as large as could have been wished for, made up in enthusiasm what they lacked in numbers and both performances went off well. All the work of producing the opera both in Carlisle and in Harrisburg was under the direction of Mr. Stauffer, director of music.

The Alumni Reception and Banquet.

The Carlisle Alumni Association gave its annual reception and banquet to the class of 1910 and other guests in the gymnasium on Friday night, bringing the commencement week gayeties to a pleasant close. The guests were received by a committee of graduates—Mrs. Denny, Alonzo Brown, Margaret Delorimiere and Joseph Libby—and made to feel at home in the tastefully decorated gymnasium. Dancing furnished the amusement until time to partake of the dainty banquet, which was served in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, and listen to the toasts and other speeches. Mr. Nori was toast master, and cleverly introduced each speaker. Mrs. Foster, the senior teacher, Sara Hoxie, the senior president, Peter Houser, captain of the 1910 football team, Mr. Walter B. Fry, of the Indian office, Mr. Horton C. Elm, Mrs. Louis Herman, Mr. Whitwell and Superintendent Friedman were called upon and each called forth applause by his or her remarks. The speechmaking continued until the train bringing back the opera company from Harrisburg came in, and then all returned to the dancing floor and the seniors who had missed most of the evening's festivities while taking part in the opera in Harrisburg, became the guests of the alumni. The dance program was lengthened in order to give these a taste of the fun, and all had a merry time until warned of the lateness of the hour by the strains of the good-night waltz.

GENERAL SCHOOL NEWS.

Michael Chabitnoy was an interested spectator at the matinee in Harrisburg Friday.

Miss Eudocia Sedick, '07, who is now living in Syracuse, New York, was an interested commencement visitor.

Frank Mt. Pleasant, Albert Exendine and Michael Chabitnoy were among the guests at the alumni reception Friday night.

Word comes to us from Jose Porter that he has work in a printing office at Shawnee, Oklahoma. We are glad to see that he is not losing any time laying around.

Friends of Julia White Feather and Mae Morris were glad to note their presence during our commencement week. Julia and Mae were surprised to see so many ex-Haskeltes enrolled as Carlisle students.

The individual troop drills on the campus were the features of last Tuesday's parade. The spectators seemed to enjoy the different movements very much and they showed their appreciation by much applauding.

Mr. Stauffer, Mr. Meyer, Mr. Collins, Mr. Wyatt, Mr. Ramsey, Mrs. Lovewell and Misses Sweeny, Johnston, and M. V. Gaither accompanied the opera cast to Harrisburg and helped to make their efforts a success.

William Etagaweshik, one of the older members of the printing department force, is now at work at the Cornman Print shop, Carlisle, Pa. William is a good, steady, reliable young man and will "make good" we are sure.

Many helpful talks were given the students during commencement week. One of the many good things Prof. Faunce said was that we must not wait to be made but we must make ourselves in the building up of our characters.

On Sunday evening George Thomas and Frank Johnson attended the Christian Endeavor meeting in the Second Presbyterian Church. They were invited to sing in the choir, and Frank gave a short talk on religious conditions at his home, by request.

Hortan Elm, an ex-student, gave several very interesting talks during his commencement visit. He is a farmer in New York, and for several years past has visited the school at graduating time. His many friends always give him a hearty welcome.

Miss Crosser, Miss Schultz, Margaret Blackwood, Miss Reichel and Miss Mann went to Harrisburg Friday to attend the matinee performance of "The Captain of Plymouth." They visited the capitol building and saw the sights of the town before time for the matinee.

Father Ganss, Father Brandt and the sisters entertained the Catholic seniors, on Saturday afternoon, at St. Katherine's Hall. An elaborate dinner was served, and late in the afternoon happy seniors journeyed homeward with the pleasant feeling that one more joyful day was put down in their honor.

A party of delegates from the Sioux tribe at Standing Rock, South Dakota, who have been in Washington for the last three weeks transacting business for their tribe, made Carlisle a short visit last week. Before coming to Carlisle, they paid a visit to Hampton Institute, the Alma Mater of several of them. They witnessed the dress parade on the campus and saw part of the dress rehearsal of the opera. They expressed themselves as pleased with the school and one observed that he didn't see how any one could be lonesome at Carlisle. In the party was Robert High Eagle, a brother of Mary Redthunder, who graduated from Hampton some years ago and is now cashier in the bank at Standing Rock.
