A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER EDITED AND PRINTED BY THE STUDENTS OF THE UNITED STATES INDIAN SCHOOL

VOLUME VIII.

CARLISLE, PA., OCTOBER 20, 1911.

NUMBER 6

GENERAL SCHOOL NEWS.

The carpenters are busy remodeling the plumbing shop.

Agnes Jacobs has been promoted to the dressmaking class.

Are you helping to keep the campus clean and free from all paper?

Philip Cornelius has been elected captain of the second football team.

A few more students are talking of going to the country for the winter.

The Sunday school class is glad to welcome back their teacher, Mr. Davy.

Lillian Rice, who is in Moorestown, N. J., reports that she has a fine home.

Eva Flood writes that she is getting along well at Moorestown, New Jersey.

John Conly, who is in Tullytown, Pa., writes to a friend that he is getting along all right.

Rachel Chase, who left last fall for her home in Wisconsin, is now in St. Paul, Minnesota.

Jack Jackson is working for Rudy & Son, printers, down town. He is missed by the printers.

Lloyd Crouse, one of our ex-students, is working at blacksmithing in Versailles, New York.

The printers are busy again on Mr. Friedman's annual report. It is a big job, and a particular one.

Edith Emery, who is living with Miss Edge at Downingtown, writes that she wants to stay out all winter.

A letter received from Mitchel La Fleur informs us that he expects to return to Carlisle, some time this month.

Through a letter we learn that Fred Cornelius is doing well at Mt. Pleasant, Michigan, where he is employed.

The band boys are glad to have with them again, Jonas Homer, who has lately returned from his home in New York.

Through a letter we learn that Louisa Degan is doing well at her country home near Rising Sun, Maryland.

Louise Kenney Class '10, sends best regards to friends at Carlisle; she is at present on a visit to Sherman Institute.

Next week the dressmaking class will start on the uniform skirts for the new girls; they have already finished over fifty.

Miss Ruth Cowdry has recently been appointed secretary of the Y. W. C. A. for the year; we extend to her a hearty welcome.

Margaret DeLorimiere, Class '09, writes from Washington, D. C., that she had the pleasure of visiting Mt. Vernon on the second.

A letter has been received from Roy Tarbell, stating that he is well and enjoying life on his father's farm near Hogansburg, New York.

Philip Clairmont, who was at his home during the summer, returned bringing with him nine new students from Rosebud, South Dakota.

James Compton, ex-student, writes from Ross Fork, Idaho, that he is getting along very well. He wishes to be remembered to his friends.

A letter received from Daisy Mingo, states that she is much improved in health. She expects, soon, to accept a position in Boston Mass.

This is in very truth "October's bright blue weather," and we should make the most of it by remaining outside as much, and as long as possible.

Charles Richards, an ex-student, writes that he will make his home in Mendham, N. J., for the winter. He states that he is getting along very well.

Mary C. Harris is now at Haskell visiting with her brother, who is a student at that school. She arrived there in time to attend the County Fair.

James Luther, ex-student, writes from Gallup, New Mexico, that he is working at his trade every day. He wishes to be remembered to his friends.

Robert DePoe, who was graduated from Carlisle several years ago, writes that he intends to make Carlisle a visit on his way to the Mohonk Conference.

Gus Welch, one of the football players, and a popular member of the Senior Class, was sent to Washington, D. C., as a scout in the Georgetown game.

Eliza Keshena writes to a friend that she is doing office work in Keshena, her home town. She closes with "Best wishes to teachers and other friends."

Fred Sickles, who is attending High School in Allentown, New Jersey, writes that he is getting along well in his studies. He sends best regards to his classmates, the Juniors.

A letter lately received from Louisa Thompson, who is living with a family at Glenstown, Pa., states that she is very happy. She says that "no girl could have a better home."

Mr. E. F. Bassford, of New York City, a brother of Mr. Bassford who coached our baseball team two years ago, recently paid Carlisle a short visit. He was delighted with the work of our school.

Mrs. Ruth D. Yeatman, of Kennett Square, Pa., a patron of the school, writes to Mr. Friedman as follows: "Lucy Calhoun, who is living with me, is doing very well and seems to like it here. She says she likes her country home and has learned many things during her outing time."

The printers are busy on the Annual Report.

The Juniors are studying the trees on our campus.

Everet Paul is visiting at the home of Robert Tahamont, in Newark, New Jersey.

A number of the boys are training every day for the cross country race, which will take place sometime this month.

Mr. Boltz, our shoemaker, is kept very busy repairing shoes; nearly all of his apprentices are new boys who have lately enrolled.

Miss Burden, of Washington, D. C., visited the literary societies and seemed greatly interested in everything. We like such visitors.

Mr. Albert Nash, a graduate of Carlisle, and now a prosperous business man of Philadelphia, is here visiting his brothers and friends.

A number of the students have received post-cards from members of the party who are in attendance at the Indian Congress in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Denny left Tuesday night for Columbus, Ohio, where they will spend a few days; they also expect to visit Mr. Denny's home in Wisconsin.

Miss Deatrick's Bible Class have chosen Nan Saunooke as their president and Evelyn Pierce as their secretary. They also chose a name, "The Gleaners."

Mr. Nagay was the speaker at the Y. M. C. A. meeting last Sunday evening. It was one of the most interesting talks that the boys have ever heard in that hall.

At the Catholic meeting Father Stock gave a short address and then a program was given as follows:

Recitation, Benedict Cloud; vocal solo, Carrie Dunbar; story, Agnes Waite; violin solo, Frances Dunbar; essay, Joseph Loudbear; vocal duet, Clemence La Traille and Anna Beau; address, John Farr. After the singing of a hymn, the meeting closed.

Among the recent contributors to the school museum are the Spreckels Sugar Refining Co., The Linen Thread Co., of Philadelphia, Walter Baker & Co., of Dorchester, Mass., Brainerd and Armstrong Co., Silk Manufacturers, New London, Conn., The Franklin Sugar Refining Co., Philadelphia, Pa., The Carter Ink Co., Boston, Mass., and The Merrimack Manufacturing Co., Lowell, Mass.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting last Sunday evening was led by Lyda Wheelock. Miss Dabb was present and she gave a very interesting talk on Y. W. C. A. work. Forty-four girls handed in their names for membership. After the exercises, a Union Cabinet was held; many helpful suggestions were made, and all that is now needed is to work hard so that we may make the Association stronger than ever before.

The Mercer Society was called to order by the president, Nan Saunooke. At roll call each member responded with a quotation. The minutes were read and approved. Thirza Bernell gave her report, after which this program was rendered: Song, Mercers; recitation, Thirza Bernell; piano solo, Mary Pleets; impromptu, Clemence La Traille; vocal solo, Leila Waterman; select reading, Margaret LaVatta; vocal duet, Agnes Jacobs and Nona Crowe; story, Lillian Porterfield; vocal solo; Agnes Jacobs. The critic gave her report and the house then adjourned.

The Standard meeting last Friday was called to order by Vice-President Simon Needham. The society song was sung and a motion that the regular program be postponed and an election held, was carried. The following were elected to office: President, John Farr; vice-president, Fred Cardin; secretary, Gus Welch; treasurer, Levi Hillman; critic, John Goslin; sergeant-at-arms, James Crane; assistant critic, James Walker; music manager, Harrison Smith;

Montreville Yuda; corresponding-secretary, Alfred Lamont; editor, Benedict Cloud. While the tellers were counting the votes, Montreville Yuda gave a very interesting talk on the benefits to be derived from the literary society work. Five new members were initiated and two names were presented. Miss McDowell was the official visitor. After the critic's report the house adjourned.

Susans' Public Entertainment.

Last Saturday evening the Susan Longstreth Literary Society gave their first public entertainment. It was held in the Auditorium, and every member taking part should feel proud of the fact that they had part in so creditable an affair. THE ARROW would like to give the names of all students who helped make the program so successful, but our limited space prevents this. Following we print an abbreviated program of the entertainment, every number of which was satisfactorily presented.

Good Talk to Students.

Mr. Hiram Chase, an Omaha, and a successful lawyer of Pender, Nebr., paid a short visit to Carlisle last week. His son entered the school a short time ago. While here he talked to several classes in one of the school-rooms, reminding them of the great opportunities they have here, and urged them to make good use of them. He told them that it was not only the knowledge gained from books that would help them in after life, but the lessons learned in living and building on the solid foundations of good morals and Christianity, would be a never-ending guide.

We only regret that all pupils could not have heard these words from one who has had the actual experiences. Mr. Chase expected to visit the school near Pittsburg, where he was educated, and the Indian Conference at Columbus, on his way home.

ABOUT CARLISLE ATHLETICS.

Carlisle defeated Georgetown University at Washington last Saturday by the score of 28-5 before a large crowd among whom were many Government officials and a large delegation from the Indian office.

Georgetown had a fast, heavy team, but their defense was powerless before the Indians' attack. The touchdown scored against Carlisle was the result of a blocked kick which a Georgetown player recovered behind the Indians' goal. Carlisle gained most of her points upon long gains by Powell, Thorpe and Newashe, while Captain Burd scored on a long run after a trick play.

While all the Indians played well, the work of the above mentioned players was especially brilliant and attracted much attention. The Indian lineup was as follows: Roberts, left end; Newashe, left tackle; Jordan, left guard; Garlow, center; Busch, right guard; Hodge, right tackle; Captain Burd, right end; Arcasa, quarter; Thorpe, left half; J. Wheelock, right half; Powell, full-back. James Crane played in the place of Wheelock during the latter part of the game.

Notes of The Game.

Roberts' work at end showed that he is a "Comer."

Arcasa never missed a punt, and he ran the team much better than he did last year.

Thorpe showed great improvement in his punting, and was there as usual with his end runs.

Wheelock was especially strong in helping to block opponents upon plays around his end of the line.

Captain Burd is proving to be another Exendine, and there will be very few ends in the country his equal this year.

Busch gave a good account of himself as guard, and when he develops a little more speed and quickness, will fill a big hole in the line.

Hodge and Jordan also played well, as did Garlow at center, where his steady work had much to do with Carlisle's success.

"Possum" certainly ripped up that wonderful Georgetown line, and if he keeps improving, will become a second Pete Hauser at line bucking.

Newashe ploughed along for good gains with his good-natured smile, and sometimes carrying two or three Georgetown players upon his back for yards.

A Dual Cross Country Race is being arranged with Penn, to be run in Philadelphia the morning of the Penn-Indian game. Those who show up the best on October 30 will, of course, be taken to Philadelphia to run against Pennsylvania and to witness the football game in the afternoon.

Carlisle will meet an unusually strong team at Pittsburg tomorrow. The University of Pittsburg were not scored upon last year, and in the last game with Carlisle defeated the Indians 14-3.

Coach O'Brien's reserves defeated Lebanon Valley College in a closely played game at Annville, last Saturday, 6-0.

Tomorrow the reserves play Conway at Biddle field, and both schools will be admitted to the game free.

The Cross Country Race will be held on Monday, October 30—one week from next Monday.

Invincibles Have Good Program.

The members of the Invincible Debating Society met in their hall at the usual hour with the president, Sylvester Long, in the chair. After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved, three members were sworn in. A clause, which was presented some time ago, was voted on and adopted by the house to be a part of their constitution. The following program was then rendered: Declamation, Josiah Saracino; essay, Jesse Wakeman, impromptus, Thomas Owl, Wm. Bishop, Philip Cornelius; select reading, Henry Standing Elk. Debate, "Res. That Military Tactics should be taught in Public Schools." Affirmatives, Philip Cornelius, Stafford Elgin; negatives, Wm. Bishop, Jesse Wakeman. The judges for the evening were, Zeph Simons, Benjamin Swallow and Henry Broker; they decided in favor of the affirmatives. After a few words from the newly-elected president of our brother society, the Standards, and from Miss Kaup the official visitor, adjournment was next in order.

GENERAL SCHOOL NEWS.

A number of boys took a walk to the mountains last Saturday.

A few boys have gone out to help the neighboring farmers husk and cut corn.

The boys of the lower grades are busy digging potatoes at the first and second farms.

Vernon Davis, one of the business students, returned last week to his home in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Miss Mollie Gaither, girls' outing agent, has charge of the Small Boys' Quarters during the the absence of Wallace Denny.

After spending a pleasant vacation at his home in Montana, George White has returned to continue his studies in Room 10.

Every Susan who took part in the entertainment showed loyalty to her society and to Carlisle by faithful practice and by quiet and willing obedience to orders.

At teacher's meeting Mr. Gill gave further instructions in regard to the plan for carrying on the work in "Citizenship" during his attendance this week at the Mohonk Conference.

The Susans wish to thank Benedict Cloud, Henry Vinson, Joseph Loudbear, Robert Weatherstone and George LaVatta for their kind assistance throughout the week of preparation for their entertainment.

Some of the girls, chaperoned by Miss Gaither and Miss Guest, had the privilege of seeing Madam Sherry played in the Carlisle opera house last Thursday evening. The costumes and scenery used were very beautiful.

At the Susan Literary meeting last Friday evening the following new members were confirmed: Anna, Clara and Cora Melton, Anna La Fernie, Genevieve Bebeau, Minnie O'Neal, Margaret Neveaux and Esther Dunbar.

At the opening exercises last Monday afternoon, Anna Chisholm represented the Sophomore Class by reciting, "Keep a Grip on Yourself." Good advice to follow. The afternoon division had for their representative, Alexander Arcasa; he gave a fine declamation entitled, "Positiveness."
