ALCOHOL.

By CALVIN LAMOUREAUX, Sioux, Grade 6A.

This topic is one much discussed in our country to-day. What is alcohol? It is a growth of yeast in liquid containing sugar. There are many drinks containing alcohol which drive a home to distress and the morals of a person who uses the drink will go to ruin.

Alcohol effects our body, health, brain, and all the organs that are in our body. Therefore if we want to be in good health and live a happy life we must not use it. In our country to-day people are homeless and hungry, and the cause is that the father of the home uses this drink.

Now our moral character is affected by the use of strong drink. The largest proportion of the people who commit crimes are or have been the victims of intoxicating liquor and it has driven them to commit these awful crimes. Those who use alcohol will lead others to do the same thing, and while under the influence of the liquor many are led to do wrong, which they must suffer for by undergoing various punishments.

The person who uses drink will have an unhealthy heart and the body will become weak. The study of alcohol shows that it affects animals as well as human persons. The use causes the heart to enlarge and changes some of the muscular fibers into fat. This drink effects any organ a person can name in the body. The use of it in time, day after day, can not be stopped unless a drug is taken to stop the appetite for the longing of this poison.

It is the cry among the Indians, "Stop the selling of liquor to the Indians." The only way is to co-operate and fight against it. When once the brain is affected the whole body is also wrecked. The brain controls the body and so to keep from all illness of the body and keep in good health, the use of alcohol must be given up.

The cells of the body are weakened, and the flow of the blood is not in circulation as it ought to be, and sometimes tubercule germs enter the body. If money spent for liquor could only be used for fighting against the selling of intoxicating drinks, it would be a great benefit to our nation and people.

For the last few years a great many of the people seem to think that saloons are a necessity, that the individual has a right to do with his own life as pleases, that prohibition does not prohibit. But people, who are fighting the liquor traffic are not satisfied with such conclusions and the day is coming when the use of alcohol will be no more.

All over the country and other countries you can find men and women burning with indignation at the abridgement of their personal rights. Personal rights are precious things, and million have given their lives for liberty. But homes are precious things, and souls are still more so and when homes are wrecked, and souls are lost and the innocent made to suffer, that certainly is not just. What about alcohol? Can it be stopped from being sold? How is the way to settle it and the right way?

GENERAL SCHOOL NEWS.

Mr. Dietz, better known to the world as "Lone Star, the artist," has been elected President of the Athletic Association.

The study hour from seven to eight o'clock will be discontinued for the rest of the school year. Out-of-door exercises will be the evening program.

The following girls from the Teachers' Club had the pleasure of going out to Mr. Miller's farm last Sunday afternoon: Jennie Ross, Rose Whipper, Mamie Mt. Pleasant, Nettie Kingsley, Corrine Janis, and Sarah Monteith. They were chaperoned by Miss Staubb.

CARPENTER SHOP.

By Newton Thompson.

Joseph Guyon is making a book-case for an exhibit.

On account of the bad weather all the boys are working inside.

The delay in building a new grandstand is mostly on account of the bad weather.

Some of the carpenter boys were working at the Studio, which is going to be changed to Alumni reception hall.

The two large tables are finished and are ready for the paint shop. The other twenty tables will also be finished in the near future.

ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT.

By George Merrill.

Adolph Morrin returned to the shop recently. He is now working at repairing.

William Perrin, one of the advanced plumbers, left Monday for his home in Montana.

John Allen, Francis Kettle, Victor Dolan, and Walter Bradby form the all-day detail. They are still working at the studio.

PAINT SHOP.

By Charles Harrison.

The painters will have their hands full all summer.

The painters are now working on swings and jacks, and painting all the out side wood work of the Large Boys' Quarters.

After being absent for a month, James Garvie is back on the painting force. At present he is decorating the laundry; he seems to like the place very well.

Second-class matter—so entered at the Post-office at Carlisle, September 2, 1904.

Address all communications to the paper and they will receive prompt attention.

ATHLETIC NOTES.

The lacrosse team defeated the University of Pennsylvania upon our field last Saturday by the score of 7 to 0.

Swarthmore lacrosse team plays our team here at 3:00 p. m. to-morrow. Swarthmore is the best team upon the schedule thus far, and as Carlisle has been weakened by losing several good men who have gone home or gone out under the outing to work, it will keep the team hustling all the time to stir off defeat.

Coach O'Neil has again taken up the lacrosse coaching, and the boys are very glad to see him back. It was his good work in former seasons which has enabled the lacrosse team to do as well as it has thus far this season.

The relay team leaves for Philadelphia to-morrow and will run in the fastest class against Syracuse, Columbia, Ohio State, and several other large university teams.

Prospects early in the season were bright for a fast relay team, but the fastest men upon the team have left school and only one of last year's team remains. Carlisle cannot hope to win in such fast company, but it is hoped, however, that a creditable showing will be made.

Only one week more before the class contests—May 2nd. Get busy.

BASE BALL LEAGUE FORMED.

A Board of Directors were chosen last Friday for the purpose of organizing a base-ball league among the boys students. There were eight clubs formed under the names of some of the leading teams of the American and National League as follows: Athletics, Phillies, Tigers, Pirates, Sox, Giants, Cubs, and the Yankees.

IS THIS FOR YOU?

From The Brule Rustler.

If you want a promotion "Rustle;" be on the job—earn about twice what you are getting, and don't get sore about it; but go around in a chuckle, thinking how you are putting it all over Uncle Sam and he don't know it.

You may know that it is against the law for any person to work for the Government without being paid for their service. So if you are always the first one "on" and the last one "off" the job, and keep your work done better than is required, very likely in course of time some secret-service man will discover that you are violating the law, and to keep you out of jail, recommend that your salary be raised.

If you make a study of your job and become an expert in your line, use up Government fuel and light in special study, and show a real interest of your own in the Indians and their needs, it may help the spotters to find you; for you may not know that Uncle Sam has a bunch of fellows out spending all their time looking for folks who can do things, and they'll find you if you are the real thing in your line, and coax you to take money.

But—but—if you get sore it may fester and develop into tuberculosis of the brain, when you will some day drop into a hole in the ground.

You will probably get about what you are after in this world, if you really want it enough to rustle fair and honest for the job. Now will you rustle?

GENERAL SCHOOL NEWS.

The training table has been started.

Joseph L. Dogg is now at Fort Lapawi, Idaho.

Thomas Swimmer is working on his farm at Wakpalo, S. Dak.

The boys are busy preparing the ground for the spring crops.

A number of our teachers attended the Chautauqua lectures in town.

The latest news of Joseph Jocks locates him in Montreal, Canada.

Thamar Dupuis has been promoted to the Domestic Art Department.

The Sophomore Class are reading some of Washington Irving's stories.

The carpenter boys are working at the first farm remodeling the house.

The plumbers have just finished installing a new heating plant in the studio.

A large number of Catholic boys received holy communion Sunday morning.

Peter Jordan has been elected manager of the Pirates and Irvin Sherman as captain.

The greenhouse detail are very busy putting in the early vegetables in the school garden.

Louise Thomas, who is under the Outing, writes of a pleasant home and cheerful surroundings.

Louis Bitner has gone to Toledo, Iowa, to take treatment in the Indian sanatorium at that place.

The refusal of Mexico to salute our flag caused a great deal of talk in the Large Boys' Quarters last Monday.

The band, under James Garvie's leadership, gave its first concert since commencement last Wednesday evening.

Mr. Benj. Caswell and Mr. Prentice, from the Red Lake Reservation in Minnesota, were visitors here last week.

William Winneshiek left last Saturday for Mount Union, where he will play in the band during the spring and summer.

Our flag is said to be the prettiest of all flags, but we do not love it because it is pretty; we love it for what it represents.

THE Y. W. C. A.

By Minnie Charles.

The meeting for the evening was led by Jennie Ross. After an opening hymn and a prayer by Miss Finton, the Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Lovewell.

A selection was given by the Y. W. C. A. quartette and a reading by Mrs. Lovewell.

Miss Cowdry was the speaker for the evening. She told us about the New York Y. W. C. A. and the great work they are doing.

After another hymn the meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.

The Y. W. Cabinet Girls Entertain.

Last Saturday afternoon the newly elected and the retiring cabinet girls gave a charming little reception to the Bible Class teachers in the Y. M. C. A. hall. Ice cream, wafers, and coffee were served. Theresa Lay furnished excellent music and different games were played. The party also took in the lacrosse game between our boys and Pennsylvania.

THE BOYS' HOLY NAME SOCIETY.

By Fred J. Ettawageshik.

The Boys' Holy Name Society held its regular meeting in the auditorium.

It opened with a prayer. The following program was well rendered: Hymn, "Holy God We Praise Thy Name," Society; reading, Henry Herrera; duet, Jose Montoya and George Cushing; violin solo, Antoine Anaquott; reading, Fred Ettawageshik; Spanish hymn, Henry Herrera and Jose Montoya; piano solo, Antoine Anaquott; talk, "The Holy Order of the Christian Brothers of Santa Fe, New Mexico, and the experience of Mr. Foster Otto, an ex-student, while at Santa Fe, and how he came to join the order," Sister Veronica; hymn, "O Lord I am not Worthy," Society.

A prayer by the Society closed the meeting.

THE Y. M. C. A. MEETING.

By Nelson R. Lay.

Peter Jackson led. The Scripture lesson was from the 25th chapter of Matthew, first thirteen verses. The speakers for the evening were Zephaniah Simons and John Gibson. Mr. Meyer gave the boys a brief talk of encouragement. He said they must be careful when they go away to choose good company and depend on themselves. After several hymns were sung, Mr. Meyer closed with the benediction.

THE GIRLS' HOLY NAME SOCIETY.

By Blanche Jollie.

The meeting opened with a prayer. A hymn by the members was followed by the program: Recitation, Julia Pena; reading, Eva Williams; duet, Maude Cooke, Margaret Moore; talk on "Advice," Jeannette Pappin; reading, Mary Shomin; Indian song, Gertrude Brought, Laura Merrival; reading, Eva Smith; piano solo, Gertrude Bresette; hymn, members.

A prayer closed the meeting.

Sad Death of Ex-Student's Daughter.

In a letter from Rulo, Neb., dated April 13, Jane Vetter announces the death, on March 1, of her little adopted daughter, a dearly beloved child of 4 years and 11 months. It was a particularly sad case, as the disease was diphtheria, and sympathizing friends were not allowed to come and offer the comfort usual on such occasions.

Our warmest sympathy is extended to the sorrowing mother. May she find consolation in the blessed words.

"Let the little ones come unto me, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

Writes About Her Happy Home in Arizona.

Mrs. Joseph B. Hardy, formerly Miss Stacey Beck, Carlisle '10, now living at Ft. Defiance, Ariz., where her husband is agency carpenter, writes happily of "a darling baby boy a year old, fat and chubby, with light complexion and big black eyes."

We have a mental picture of Stacey with that sweet boy whom their Carlisle friends already love and would very much like to see.

Mrs. Hardy says further that they will soon have a cottage of their own where she and Joseph, Junior, are going to raise chickens.

Birds of a feather flock together.

NOTES ABOUT EX-STUDENTS.

James W. Perry writes from Scotts, Cal.

Archie Quamala writes that his present address is Toreva, Ariz.

Lydia A. S. Corbett writes from Kamiah, Idaho, that she is keeping house.

THE LITERARY SOCIETIES.

THE STANDARDS

By Henry P. Sutton.

The meeting was called to order by the President which was followed by the singing of the Standard song.

There being no regular program the meeting was wholly voluntary. Piano solos were given by Stephen St. Clair and Henry Sutton.

The house adopted two questions for future debate. The question that was adopted for the evening read thus: Resolved, "That country life is better than city life." George Tibbetts, Mark Yesteya, and John Gokee were challengers of Robert Geronimo, Henry Sutton, and Marcus Carabajal. There was no decision given it being a voluntary debate.

Mr. Whitwell was the official visitor and he gave a splendid talk to the boys.

THE INVINCIBLES

By Jesse Wofford.

The meeting was opened by the President who read a lesson from the Bible.

There were not many members present so the meeting was carried voluntarily. First on the program was a select reading by Fred Ettwageshik; extemporaneous speeches, Walter Bradby, George Francis, and Matthew Cata.

The debate was next in order. The question read thus: Resolved, "That women should have the right of suffrage." Fred Ettwageshik and Matthew Cata upheld the affirmative side; George Francis and Jose Montoya the negative side.

The judges were Don Ortego, Horace Powshiek and Charles Whitehorn. They decided in favor of the negative side.

Miss McDowell was the official visitor.

THE MERCERS.

By Mary D. Jimerson.

The meeting was opened by the President at the usual time.

Next in order was the roll-call. After preliminary business the following program was rendered:

Song, Mercers; piano solo, Thresa Lay; piano solo, Corrine Janis; anecdotes, Alice Logan; instrumental duet, Jane Gayton and Mary Pleets.

Debate: Resolved, "That the contract system of employing convict labor ought to be abolished." Affirmatives, Amy Smith, Mary Welch; Negatives, Lucy West, Julia Pena.

The Judges gave their decision in favor of the Negatives.

Miss Moore and Mr. Burney were the official visitors. Other visitors were Misses Myrtle Thomas, Evelyn Springer, and Messrs. McGillis and Jordan.

After the critic's report the house adjourned.

THE SUSANS.

By Mamie Mt. Pleasant.

After the society song by the Susans, the following numbers were given: Recitation, Anna Schenadore; vocal solo, Clara Irving; anecdotes, Ella Fox; guitar solo, Jeanette Pappan; anecdotes, Mary Gray; story, Nettie Kingsley; impromptu, Gertrude Bressette; vocal solo, Eunice Bartlette; recitation, Jeanette Pappan; piano solo, Sadie Metoxen; piano solo, Elsie Kopay. The visitors were Messrs. Burney, Jordan, and McGillis.

Nash Does Big Business In Small Town.

"When a new man cango into a town of 10,000 and leave it with a total of 15 orders you can just bet your bottom dollar that that man is one of the very promising "comers" in the specialty advertising business. We are referring this time to Nash. We have been immensely interested in his thorough working of the town above mentioned and are ready to guarantee that he will be one of the formidable figures in the big contests.

"Nash's customers included a millinery store, a clothier, a music house, a grocery, an implement dealer, a business college, a florist, a confectioner, a women's furnishing store, a firm of electrical contractors, and an undertaker."

Albert Nash came to Carlisle March 5, 1895, and graduate in 1897. He then attended other institutions of learning, where he specialized along certain lines. Mr. Nash was in the employ of Clarence E. Miller, manufacturer of athletic and canvas clothing, Philadelphia, Pa., as traveling salesman for several years, and now he is with the American Art Works. Their trade journal has the above to say of his work. Mr. Nash's future looks bright to his old friends and they are predicting big success in the advertising field.

MISS HERMAN TRANSFERRED TO AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT.

Miss Beatrice Herman, a most efficient clerk in the Administration Building for the past three years, has been promoted to a position of trust in the Bureau of Chemistry of the Department of Agriculture in Philadelphia. Before entering upon her new responsibilities, Miss Herman has gone to her home in Kratzarville, Pa., to visit her parents, and for a much needed rest.

Miss Herman will be greatly missed at Carlisle, for she has over proved herself worthy of the respect and esteem of her associates.

Popular Ex-Student Married.

Joseph Sheehan, an ex-student now living in Baltimore, Md., writes that he was married last September to Miss Viola Beuchert. THE ARROW and friends extend best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Sheehan.

Normal Department Study About Birds.

The study of birds was a live subject in the Normal department during the past week.

Some things learned were:

Birds are good friends to us.

They eat the seeds of weeds.

They eat insect and worms.

Some birds have long bills and some have short bills.

Some birds fly in the air for mosquitoes.

Thoughts expressed by Normal pupils about birds:

I would not like to be a bird because birds do not have so much fun as boys do.

I would not like to be a bird because I would be afraid a boy would shoot me.

I would like to be a bird, then I could fly home.

I would like to be a goose, then I could swim, walk on the ground, and fly high.

Often thinks of Old Carlisle Friends.

In a letter to a friend Lillian Porterfield says in part: "I have often been back with you in Room 14, and it is a deep regret with me that I could not have stayed until graduation. I feel it now as Commencement draws near. I send my heartiest congratulations to my classmates and best wishes for their success."
