A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER PRINTED DURING THE SCHOOL YEAR BY STUDENTS OF THE CARLISLE INDIAN SCHOOL

VOLUME XI

CARLISLE, PA., NOVEMBER 13, 1914.

NUMBER 11

A REVIVAL AT CROW.

Commissioner Sells, unannounced, arrived at Crow Agency on October 6. During his visit he gave the entire reservation a most comprehensive survey. He rode, at the very least, five hundred miles in all directions, examining schools, calling upon the missionaries, inspecting the irrigation work and the cattle industry, visiting Indian homes, meeting the Indians in council, talking with them individually and listening always with the utmost deference and patience to their wishes or complaints. In nearly all of his trips he was entirely unaccompanied except by a driver. Nothing escaped his eye, and he asked information of every one with whom he came in contact, no matter how humble. As a consequence, there is probably no one more generally familiar with conditions on the reservation than the Commissioner himself.

The results of his visit are already apparent. It is not merely in material improvements already under way, but in that indefinable gain in spirit, in stamina and purpose. He has talked with force and directness to the Indians, making them feel that they have a sure and sympathetic friend, but that friendship means mutual confidence and obligations; that he intends to do his part, but they also have a part to perform. To employees he has made it clear in wisely chosen words that he has no sympathy with the selfish equation in their work, and that the ideals he wishes to have dominate are those of patience and co-operation, efficiency, and sympathetic service. A broader spirit of helpfulness towards the Indian himself, constructive and vitalizing, characterizes the Commissioner's attitude; it is the human side of the problem which appeals to him.

Superintendent and Mrs. Estep gave a reception in his honor, this being the only entertainment for which he allowed himself any opportunity. The residents of the village were all invited, the employees remaining to hear the Commissioner speak after the reception. The other official visitors on this occasion were Chief Inspector E. B. Linnen, Special Agent Fred S. Cook, Dr. C. R. Dewey, and Mrs. E. E. Newton.

Crow is again on the map, but the color of it is changed from black to the red of courage and new purpose. —The Indian School Journal.

GENERAL SCHOOL NEWS.

Last Saturday the Specials were defeated by the Band team by the score of 39 to 0.

Miss Snoddy, Mrs. Ewing, and Miss Roberts have been chosen to act as an advisory committee for the Y. W. C. A.

In the game between the Band and the Specials last Saturday, Leon Boutwell and Irving Sherman starred for the Band team.

Miss Estelle Bradley, class '14, who has been reviewing special subjects in the departmental grades since her graduation, went home last Monday.

We were glad to have Mr. Dagenett and Mr. Gansworth with us, as it gives us new inspiration to endeavor to become citizens of the United States.

General Pratt said that there is a lesson in every kind of work we do; we must begin at the bottom and work up, no matter how slowly the work is.

The Textile Club of Manchester, N. H., met the football team at the depot. After dinner they furnished eight touring cars and took the boys about the city.

Mr. Gansworth is a good example of General Pratt's saying, "The way to civilize an Indian is to bring him into civilization, and the way to keep him civilized is to let him stay."

THE SUNDAY EVENING PROTESTANT SERVICE.

By Ella Fox.

The leaders for the evening were Amy Smith and Henry Sutton.

Henry Sutton read a chapter from the Bible. Ella Fox read the text of the Sunday school lesson, after which a quartet composed of Cherokee boys, Nick Bradley, Loyd Welch, James West, and Ned Wilnota sang a selection in their native language. Amy Smith gave a recitation and Gertrude Sutton sang a solo.

Miss Dabb gave a talk on Y. W. C. A. work

General Pratt talked on "Discipline and Order."

Mr. Lipps also gave a good talk, as he always does.

The meeting closed with the singing of the Lord's prayer by the girls.

THE CATHOLIC MEETING.

By Anna La Fernier.

On account of the absence of Father Stock there was no benediction. There were prayers and hymns by the members.

Sister Regina told us a beautiful story entitled "A Chapel in the Mountain." Another hymn was sung, after which the meeting closed with a prayer.

THE Y. W. C. A.

Florence M. Edwards.

A meeting was held on Wednesday evening in the Y. W. C. A. hall

The president being absent, Miss Dabb took charge.

After some hymns and a prayer, Miss Dabb gave a talk on "The Purpose of the Y. W. C. A."

The cabinet girls held a meeting Sunday afternoon and elected Marie Mason president to succeed Estelle Bradley, who resigned on account of returning to her home.

The Carlisle Arrow

Issued Fridays from the Carlisle Indian Press
About ten months in the year.

Twenty-Five Cents Yearly

Second-class matter—so entered at the Post-office at Carlisle, September 2, 1904.

Address all communications to the paper and they will receive prompt attention.

ATHLETICS.

Carlisle was able only to tie Holy Cross at Manchester last Saturday, the score being 0 to 0. Both teams played well defensively and kept their opponents from gaining ground consistently. Carlisle gained the greater number of yards, but Holy Cross' tiger-like defense stopped the Indians when they became dangerous.

The team left last night for Chicago, where Notre Dame will be played on Saturday. Notre Dame defeated Haskell recently, 21 to 6, and Carlisle will endeavor to at least make a better showing than the Haskellites did. Lookaround resumed practice this week and has been placed at center. Prospects were very materially brightened when Ex-Captain Welch joined the squad. The lack of a good quarterback and field general has been felt all the season, and, while Welch did not intend to play this fall, he offered his services realizing Carlisle's desperate need. Welch has played three years on the team and has another year to play.

Injuries to Fred Broker and Wofford, both left halfbacks, has made it necessary to call upon the Reserves for a man to fill in that position, and Grant White has been playing on the Varsity all the week. He lacks weight, but is a clever runner, good punter, and handles the forward pass very well.

The annual cross-country race was run last Monday evening over the regular course, which is about 4½ miles. There were about 30 starters, and the race was run in good time and closely contested. First place was won by James Chavez, who was closely followed by George Warrington and George Cushing. Cushing was the winner last year. The others finished in the following order: Francis Oakes, fourth; George Allen, fifth; Carmelite Torres, sixth; Leon Miller, seventh; Jesse Welch, eighth; Ben Guyon, ninth; and Obed Axtell, tenth. James Chavez's prize was the usual engraved gold watch, and the others were awarded sweaters or coat jerseys.

Indian Reserves, 17; Pennsylvania Military College, 6.

The Reserves defeated the Pennsylvania Military College last Saturday at Chester by the score of 17 to 6. The day was ideal for football, and the largest crowd of the season saw the contest. In the first quarter the cadets had the ball most of the time, but once taking possession of the ball from their own 20-yard line the young Indians began their march down the field. A series of long end runs by White, Tibbets, Crow, and the powerful line plunging of Fullback Fly advanced the ball to the opponents' 10-yard line, where they lost the ball on a fumble. After the cadets had been forced to punt in the midfield, the Indians again began their march for their opponents' goal, this time to the 3-yard line, where the first quarter ended.

In the beginning of the second quarter, Fly went over the line on the first play for the first touchdown and White kicked goal. A short time after this the Indians had again advanced the ball to their opponents 25-yard line, where White dropped back and kicked a field goal. From this time on P. M. C. fought desperately and opened up with a number of new plays, which the Indians could not solve immediately, and having made some long gains by end runs and forward passes they finally went over the Indian's goal for their only score of the game.

The third quarter was more evenly fought, with the exception that the Reserves failed to capture a forward pass behind the opponent's goal, which would have added another touchdown to their credit.

In the final period the Indians again made another touchdown, making the final score 17 to 6.

The Reserves play at Middletown to-morrow, and as the Middletown team has been greatly strengthened since they played here a closer game is expected.

CHAPEL EXERCISES.

BY STUDENT REPORTERS.

The morning speaker was Hattie McOffee, who gave a beautiful reading entitled "Nobility."

Jesse Wofford represented his class in the afternoon by giving an essay entitled "Responsibility of the American People."

Mr. De Huff told us the story of "A Message to Garcia."

He also read a short article from the "Hardware Trade," entitled "Can You Do a Thing After Being Told Once?"

Some of the thoughts were as follows:

Be alert.

Be ready.

Rely on yourself.

Be faithful to a trust.

Do what you are told willingly and without unnecessary questions, and do it after being told once.

CARD OF THANKS.

To the thoughtful friends who collectively and individually evidenced their sympathy by word and floral offering when we were borne down in bereavement by the loss of a loving wife and mother, we express our deep sense of appreciation.

WM. SHAMBAUGH AND FAMILY.

GENERAL SCHOOL NEWS.

Aaron and Francis Kettle have been called home on account of the serious condition of one of their brothers.

The members of the First Presbyterian Church are taking up contributions to send to the poor sufferers of Belgium. We feel that even so small a sum as we may contribute will be of some help.

Mr. Gansworth asked the students not to go back to live on the reservation and on the Government. He advised them to go into the world and make men and women of themselves and strive for the best places in work and in society.

Last Monday Mr. Brown talked to the printers on the "art of printing and the necessity for order while at work." He read to them from the "Apprenticeship of Horace Greeley." The printers are to have a meeting of this kind every day.

NOTES FROM MR. GANSWORTH'S TALK.
BY STUDENT REPORTERS

If I can do things I am sure you can do them also.

I succeeded in life because I did not stay on the reservation.

Always seek for, and prove yourself worthy to appreciate the best, and you will be sure to succeed in life.

Don't go back to the reservation. Get out among your white brothers and learn their best way of living, and so become good citizens.

After a twelve years' absence I am glad to return to Carlisle to show you somewhat of my success, not in a boastful way, but so that you may feel that a like success is possible for you.

I am trying to live up to General Pratt's teachings, "The way to civilize an Indian is to bring him to civilization. The way to keep him civilized is to keep him there." That's what I am trying to do, to stay where I belong.

When I graduated from Carlisle I thought the only way to "stick" to my trade was to keep away from the reservation and so I went to New York State, where I worked until I went to Iowa, where I am well established in business.

I thought how good it would be to come back to Carlisle and tell you of the honor that has been conferred upon me, that of being sent as a delegate from Iowa to attend a convention of the American Federation of Labor in Philadelphia.

NOTES FROM GENERAL PRATT'S TALK
BY STUDENT REPORTERS.

The girls march better than the boys.

Don't be afraid to begin from the bottom.

Get ready to become citizens of the United States.

There is nothing better than to be a citizen of the United States.

To get on successfully in the world you must forget that you are an Indian.

Get ready; there's a place for each one of you. Get ready to fill it when the time comes.

I am still the Father of Carlisle, and I have always the interest of you boys and girls at heart.

Order is heaven's first law. It is also the military's first law. Without order there can be no discipline.

If you get your lessons well you are getting ready for the things that Mr. Dagenett has been telling you about.

Obedience is the law of the universe. Without obedience we can never be successful anywhere, so learn the lesson to-day.

General Pratt said, "Get ready, get ready." Then he made the pupils say, "Get ready." Then he told them to say, "I will get ready." After that he said, "What are you going to get ready for?" "Citizenship."

NOTES FROM MR. DAGENETT'S TALK.
BY STUDENT REPORTERS.

There are Indians in the Lower and Upper Houses of Congress, not because they are Indians, but because they are good citizens. There is no reason why some of the boys in this school should not become members of Congress, or fill any of the high places within the gift of the people. You have identically the same opportunity to become legislators of your country. In fact, you have much better opportunities than two at least of the Indians who are now in Congress.

GENERAL SCHOOL NEWS

BY STUDENT REPORTERS.

Martha Wheelock has returned from a month's leave.

The new grandstand on the Athletic Field is almost completed.

Margaret Moore was recently promoted to the plain dressmaking class.

Whenever General Pratt gave a speech he was greeted with enthusiastic applause.

Beginning with next week, Chapel exercises will come on Wednesdays instead of Mondays.

Miguel Little has gone home on leave of absence because of the serious illness of his mother.

Daniel Arapahoe, Wesley Youngbird, and David Peever have returned and been re-admitted.

Captain Crowe showed his ability for generalship by leading the "Reserves" to victory last Saturday.

Last Thursday evening while in New York City, the Varsity boys attended a performance at the Hippodrome.

After a long and tiresome journey from the New England States, the Varsity squad were glad to get back Sunday afternoon.

General Pratt never fails to give us some inspiring advice. His desire is that the Carlisle students shall be citizens of this their native country.

Thamar Dupuis, Lupie Spira, and Mamie Vilcan had the pleasure of attending the play, "Peg O' My Heart," which was given last week in town.

Mr. De Huff complimented the teachers and the students at chapel Monday for the interesting Peace program that was rendered last Saturday evening.

In his short talk Sunday evening, Mr. Lipps said: "Boys and girls, there are positions for all of you in this great country, so get ready and fit yourself for those positions."

In a letter to her daughter Maggie, Mrs. Kamie Oul Wahyaheetak, who is a graduate of Carlisle, tells her to fill her head with something that no one can take away, that is, a good education.

THE BLACKSMITH SHOP.

By George Roberts.

Louis Big Horn has been added to the blacksmith detail recently.

The blacksmith force spent Friday afternoon in setting tires. The rest of the week was given to general repair work.

TIN SHOP.

By James Holstein.

We have an order to make some dust pans.

We had to make some repairs on the roof of the florist's house.

We were given an order to make some gravey pans which we have finished.

THE BARBER SHOP.

By William Winneshiek.

Almost every barber's tool is used in the shop for the purpose of making the boys acquainted with their uses. The barber shop is always in a clean, sanitary condition.

Since the opening of the school last September, Boyd Crow and William Winneshiek have been in charge of the barber shop, which is frequently visited by both large and small boys.

BAKER SHOP.

By Chauncey White.

Last Saturday and Sunday Mr. Reneker visited his relatives in Harrisburg.

Last Thursday afternoon Charles Whitewolf made two pans of Uienna bread, and he said that he would bake some more because it tastes so good.

THE SEWING ROOM.

By Blanch Jollie.

The dressmakers are greatly interested in the special instructions that are given daily, and all are profiting by them.

Miss Yoos is now in charge of the plain and advanced dressmakers. Miss Searight has charge over the menders.

Those who won first premiums at the Fair were Elizabeth Janis, crocheted bag, $1.00; Mary Welch, table runner, 75c; Minnie Gray, sewing book, 50c; and Ada Curtis, a centerpiece, $1.00.

THE STABLE.

By James Crane.

The stable detail has six boys, John Walette, John Sutton, and Taylor Hanks in the forenoon, Silas White, Grant White, and James Crane in the afternoon.

Under the instructions of George Folk, the week's work is to feed and clean the horses and clean the stable every morning.

There are six horses, two mules, and a colt to care for. The quartermaster issues the orders concerning the teams and his instructions are followed out each day.

On Tuesday and Friday trash is hauled away from the various places on the Campus.

Wednesdays and Saturdays are market days and two boys, Taylor Hanks and John Sutton, are detailed to drive the herd to market.

On Sunday a team is used to take employees to the different churches in town.

Mrs. Susie Middleton is visiting her mother, Mrs. Wilder.

Dr. Rendtorff spent most of last week in New York on official business.

Sunday the nurses had with them for dinner and tea, Miss Theresa D. Lay, of the Senior Class.

Because of the examination the surgical lecture and demonstration were omitted; they will be given this week by Mrs. Wylde.

Thursday evening the nurses were given a written examination of twenty questions, taking in everything that they have had so far this year.

GENERAL SCHOOL NEWS.

By Student Reporters.

Miss Keck, our domestic science teacher, arrived last Friday.

Peter Tarbell has come in from the Outing and enrolled in Room 12.

Boys, brace up and take heed of what General Pratt said about our marching.

Joseph White, who went on leave about three weeks ago, has joined the Outing force.

The new concrete steps in front of the Large Boys' Quarters are a big improvement.
