A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER PRINTED DURING THE SCHOOL YEAR BY STUDENTS OF THE CARLISLE INDIAN SCHOOL

VOLUME XI

CARLISLE, PA., MARCH 12, 1915.

NUMBER 30 27

STUDENTS FROM THE CARLISLE INDIAN SCHOOL.

Working in the Ford Automobile Factory, Detroit, Mich.

These gentlemen came to Detroit the second week in January to take a full course through the Machine Shops, Chassis and Motor Departments of the Ford Motor Co. as a part of their vocational training. They lost no time in preliminaries, being eager and anxious to work and learn. The course will probably extend until late in October.

These are sterling types of Young America, clean-cut physical men, clear of eye, bright of brain, strong of body, typifying in appearance that they have been living in a most wholesome atmosphere, and are filled with the ambition to have "a place in the sun," and deliver to their fellowmen the full responsibilities of American citizenship.—From Ford Times.

THE SUNDAY EVENING PROTESTANT SERVICE.

By David Peever.

The meeting was led by Hiram Chase. After a hymn, Henry Hayes read a lesson from the Bible. Mr. Clevett lead in prayer. The choir sang "On Calvary's Brow."

We had with us Mr. Chessly, the Secretary of the Harrisburg Y. M. C. A. He gave a splendid talk on "The Cost of the Worth While."

The choir sang "The Anchor Holds."

The meeting was closed with the singing of the Lord's Prayer.

A LETTER FROM A FORMER STUDENT.

The following letter has been received by Mr. Lipps from Jennie

Ross, a former student, and was written from Laguna, N. Mex., under date of February 16, 1915:

"I am very glad to write to you again. I want to let you know that I am regaining my health. I am able to get around now and I feel just as well as ever, but I have not had time to write and inform you how I am getting along.

"There are fifteen patients here now, most of them Pueblos and Navajos.

"I am always anxious for Wednesday to come around for its that day that I get my ARROW. I call it my weekly letter from dear old Carlisle.

"Please remember me to my class, the Seniors, my teachers, and friends.

"I shall be very glad to hear from you and hear about Carlisle."

THE BAND.

By Charles Harrison.

Mr. Tyrrell has been sick with the gripe during the past week.

Alonson Lay is preparing for a baritone solo which he will render at the next concert.

Stephen St. Clair very generously treated the members of the Mahogany Orchestra last Saturday afternoon.

Ovilla Azure devotes his leisure moments in entertaining the occupants of the band section by rehearsing masterpieces of Verdi, Beethoven, and Listz.

After a business meeting held in Standard Hall last Monday evening, a few minutes were devoted to amusements such as clog dancing, speeches, and singing.

The Carlisle Arrow

Issued Fridays from the Carlisle Indian Press
About ten months in the year.

Twenty-Five Cents Weekly

Second-class matter—so entered at the Post-office at Carlisle, September 2, 1904.

Address all communications to the paper and they will receive prompt attention.

ATHLETICS.

By George A. Francis.

Our Varsity team played a veteran game on the 22nd of February at Albright College, Meyerstown, and were defeated by the score of 49 to 27. On the 1st of March another defeat was handed to them by Lebanon Valley College. Score 55 to 31. Finally, on the 4th, they landed a victory by defeating Conway Hall by the score of 20 to 18.

On the third the Junior Varsity defeated the strong team representing the Linder Shoe Factory by the score of 42 to 7.

On the 5th, Troop A, with the aid of three regular players from the Varsity team, and two band members, were able to defeat the Band Troop.

The track men have been out every day, despite the cold weather.

The one mile relay team, which ran against some of the best teams in the State, will leave for Pittsburg tomorrow. A. Miller will be taken along.

The long distance men have been training for two months and they are anxious to go out and compete with other college runners.

The lacrosse players are compelled to practice in the Cage on account of the field being covered with snow.

The baseball players are going around with long faces because they are not able to get out on the field, especially John Wallett and James Holstein, who are the two promising battery mates.

A SURPRISE PARTY.

By Juan Guterres.

Last Wednesday evening, after the basketball game, a surprise party was given in honor of Red Fox James, as a tribute in introducing the Boy Scout movement in the Indian School.

After all the Scouts had gathered around for an evening of pleasure, Mr. Simons, former Scoutmaster, gave an introductory address, after which a Red Fox yell, led by Messrs. Tibbets, Blythe, and Simons, was most heartily given.

Clement Vigil gave a talk on how much the boys appreciated the services of Red Fox. Other speakers were Fred Blythe, George Tibbets, John Fish, and Benjamin Caswell. The visiting Scout guest was Walter Bradby, who also gave an interesting talk.

Ice cream and cakes were served, while the graphophone entertained the party with its pleasing music.

BOY SCOUT NOTES.

By Ralph Tourtillotte.

Mathew Cata is patrol leader of the Rattlesnake patrol.

Roy Oshkosh is patrol leader of the Rocky Mountain Goat patrol.

Red Fox James will leave the first part of April for a lecture tour of the West.

The name of Scout Quarters is "Winne-Taska," which means pleasant laughter.

Benjamin Caswell was appointed as advisor and assistant Scoutmaster of Troop Two.

Zeph Simons will do Y. M. C. A. work in his own State after he leaves us. The boys regret to see him go.

The newly organized Catholic Scouts will not be installed until necessary instructions have been received.

Clement Vigil is assistant Scoutmaster and leader of the Catholic Troop. Pablo Herrera is his assistant. The troop leader and president is John Fish.

The Scouts have organized a baseball team. Obed Axtell is their captain. On the 3rd of April the Scouts expect to give a play in honor of Red Fox James and Zeph Simons.

Homer Lipps has been received into the Indian Troop and elected as their leader. He is preparing for the first-class test, and about twelve others are preparing for the second-class test. These tests will be given at the next meeting.

GENERAL SCHOOL NEWS.

BY STUDENT REPORTERS.

Mr. Albert A. Nash, of Philadelphia, was a week-end visitor.

Pupils of the primary grades are studying "Domestic Animals."

Joseph Morrin spent Sunday in Dillsburg visiting country friends.

Many were the illusive tricks that Mr. Keene produced with the aid of a "hoosy-doosy" stick.

Mr. Clevett, the physical trainer, has picked six track men who are to go to Pittsburg Saturday.

The first Outing Party will leave April second. Many of the girls are anxious for the time to come.

One of the magician's cleverest tricks was transferring the Princess from the Egyptian casket to the cage.

The school was honored last week by a visit from several members of the Pennsylvania State Legislature.

The Wichita Indians have invited the Seminoles to a big dinner to celebrate the Chief's birthday on April 4th.

The students were much interested in the talk given by Mr. Chessly Sunday, particularly in the story of Billy Hicks.

We are very sorry to have Miss Klepfer leave us. Her kindness and her patience with us will not be forgotten.

John Gokee was elected captain of the band basketball team and Charles Blackbird captain of the baseball team.

At the band meeting Monday evening Ovilla Azure and Michael Wilkie favored the members with several French songs.

Last Monday night Guy Burns was elected president of the "First Presbyterian Bible Class" or the so-called "Wigwam Club."

The small boys are planning to organize a baseball team, and the outlook is very bright, as they have some good players.

Everybody, excepting those who didn't catch any, were pleased when Mr. Keene threw the candy from a hat to the audience.

Troop "A" defeated the band basketball team, last Friday evening, by a score of 40 to 21. The defeated team played a plucky game, but they were weak in team work.

INDUSTRIAL AND INSTITUTIONAL
DEPARTMENTS

"A first condition of Citizenship and of self-respect is the power of self-support."

THE CARPENTER SHOP.

By Laverne Bonsor.

Another coal box has been made. William Thayer made a tool chest for himself.

A number of chairs and tables were repaired during the week.

The bureau for the library has been crated, weighed, and shipped to the San Francisco Exposition.

THE FIRST FARM.

By Jacob Spokogee.

John Buffalo has recently joined the farm detail.

Joseph Hicks and Andrew Goforth worked at the second farm the latter part of the week.

The boys were just beginning to work outside when along came a March snow storm. Now they have to busy themselves by shoveling snow from the paths and wait for it to melt.

THE PAINT SHOP.

By Joseph Morrin.

The work in the Gym is now completed.

Samuel Collins has recently entered the shop.

A number of chairs were sent to the shop to be repainted for use in Large Boys' Quarters.

Two tables for the Girls' Quarters were stained and waxed. Also two cabinets for the Music Department and one for Mr. Dickey's residence.

The art frame which is to be exhibited at San Francisco was put in fine shape.

THE LAUNDRY.

By Lena Parker.

We are glad to have Miss Albert with us again, after a few days of absence.

The lessons for this month will be as follows: How to wash and iron table linen, doilies, dish cloths, and tea towels; how to heat irons and how to take care of them.

WOODWORKING SHOP.

By Joseph Javine.

Francis Bresette has joined our force.

Robert Broker sharpened all of his tools last week.

Mr. Lau and Ben Caswell made a bookcase for the new Agricultural Department.

Ben Swallow and Ray Komah have put a new floor on the kitchen porch. The former also repaired a few locks and knobs in the Girls' Quarters last week.

THE SHEET METAL SHOP.

By James Holstein.

We put spouting on the Dining Hall during the past week.

The roof at the Small Boys' Quarters was repaired last week.

We have been making a number of water buckets for the Commissary.

David Cabay, who has been sick at the Hospital for a number of days, has returned to the shop and resumed his work.

THE BLACKSMITH SHOP.

By Guy Burns.

The topic for the week's lecture was the horse's hoof.

Roy Burton completed a nice little anvil and is now working on another.

Xavier Downwind and Willis Jackson have turned out quite a number of bolts for the boiler house.

Francis Oaks, a new apprentice, put most of his time in welding links and is doing well on straight and coil-twisted chains.

A cart was repaired and a dozen end and center clips for the double-trees were finished. We also made a dozen rods for the Domestic Science Department.

THE PRINT SHOP.

By Juan Guterres.

Setting up about 50 pounds of pi, which was the result of carelessness, will keep a certain boy going for some days.

Josephus Seneca is a splendid little worker. He applies himself to the job at hand until it is finished. Good habit for older boys to cultivate.

James Eagle, as job pressman, has put out during the week 10,000 letter heads for the Society of American Indians, and 3,000 intricate blank forms for Supt. F. C. Campbell, of the Cheyenne Agency, S. Dak.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE DEPARTMENT.

By Rosa Allen.

The housekeepers during the week were Mary Gokee and Rachel Holmes.

The girls learned how to make cornbread, sugar cookies, and steamed dumplings. They also learned to make white sauce.

The subject of conversation for Tuesday was "Colds." We learned that colds are caused by over-eating. On Friday we discussed "Personal Appearance."

THE HOSPITAL.

By Mary Horsechief.

The lecture last week was on tuberculosis.

Lena Watson is the senior nurse for the month of March.

This week we had a lecture on typhoid fever and a review on practical nursing.

The dispensary nurses are Emerald Bottineau, Marie Garlow, Alice Tyn-dall and Mary Horsechief.

THE DOMESTIC ART DEPARTMENT.

By Uneeda Burson.

Christy Ransom is making a beautiful embroidered hand bag.

The girls have completed the dresses for the "Bonnybell" play.

THE CATHOLIC MEETING.

By George White.

After a prayer and a hymn, Father Stock told us the necessity and value of prayer. Some of the thoughts expressed were that prayer is the first of all things which we must employ; we must not only say prayers in the morning and night, but also several times during the day.

After several hymns, benediction service followed.

CHAPEL EXERCISES.

By Marie Garlow.

The exercises opened by singing "God of Our Nations," from the Anvil Chorus.

The Juniors were represented in the morning by Obed Axtel, who gave a fine declamation entitled "America, a World Power." The afternoon speaker, also a Junior, gave a reading on the "Dignity of Labor."

Mr. De Huff introduced Professor Kent, who talked to us on "Agriculture."

THE PLUMBING SHOP.

By Francis Kettle.

A wash basin in Athletic Quarters was repaired.

The motors in the Print Shop were also cleaned and repaired.

The bath tubs in Girls' Quarters were gone over and repaired.

Some of the boys are working on the sewer line from the Small Boys' Quarters.

A small job of repairing at Mr. Tyrrell's house was done in the early part of the week.

GENERAL SCHOOL NEWS.

By Student Reporters.

John Gokee spent the week-end with friends in Greason, Pa.

Frances Roberts, who went to Outing early in February, returned several days ago and is again studying in Room 10.

Alonson Lay and his Mohogany Orchestra are playing for all entertainments given in our Auditorium. Last Saturday they played for Mr. Keene, the magician, and to-morrow evening they will play for "Bonnybell," the play which will be given by members of the four literary societies.

Miss Mary Finney, matron in the Cleveland, Ohio, Railroad station, spent a couple of days last week with Ethel and Delight Lynd.

Bacone College has recently sent out three missionaries to different fields; one to Panhuska, Okla., one to Florida, and another to China.

After five months' work at the Teachers' Club, Eusevia Vargas and Sarah Monteith have been transferred to the girls' clothing room.

Mr. Chessly said in his talk that most of the people are at the third base waiting for a helping hand rather than working their way home.

Last Saturday evening we were entertained by a clever magician. One of his cunning tricks was to change a number of foreign flags into "Old Glory."

Many of the boys from the Small Boys' Quarters have signed to go out into the country with the first party. They are anxious for the time to come, so that they may see the different parts of Pennsylvania.

A regular snowball war between the small boys and some of the large boys was held on the Campus last Sunday evening. The fact that the small boys took refuge in Mr. Denney's fort tells the ending.

THE Y. W. C. A.

By Mary Welch.

We were glad to have a large attendance at the Y. W. C. A. Sunday afternoon. The meeting was led by Amy Smith. It opened with the singing of two hymns. After a reading of the Scripture lesson, Agnes Owl led in prayer. Stories of heroes of the Bible, such as Gideon, Solomon, and Peter, were told by Mamie Mt. Pleasant and Florence Edwards. Amy Smith and Mary Welch sang a duet entitled "The Beautiful Land."

Miss Hagan was the speaker for the afternoon. She said we should be able to give to our people what we receive while we are in school. She told how badly our help is needed on reservations, and especially on the Omaha Reservation.

GENERAL SCHOOL NEWS

By Student Reporters.

Owing to the deep snow on the Athletic Field, the lacrosse candidates will discontinue the usual outdoor scrimmages and practice in the Cage instead.

Howard Foreman, Grant White Jr., Alexander Washington, Isaac Longshore, and Gustave McDonald are learning horticulture from Mr. Abrams, our florist.

Last Saturday and Sunday the chirps of the robins were quieted by the fall of a foot of snow. According to that, Mr. Ground Hog must have been running a bluff.

Mr. Keene had two big football players to assist him on the stage, Joseph Helms and Kenneth King. Each acted his part as though he were experienced in the business.

The boys and girls who are to take part in "Bonnybell" to-morrow evening have been faithfully practicing and the show promises to be among the best held here this winter.

Silas White, George Clifford, Anna Cole, and Margaret Pickett have gone home and their names have been dropped from our rolls. Ethel Greenhair is home on leave of absence.

On account of the bad weather last Sunday, everybody attended morning services on the grounds. Mr. Griffiths gave a short talk on the "making of useful men and women" in the Auditorium.

J. V. Abeyta, Governor of the Isleta Pueblo Indians of New Mexico, and Antonio Abeita, an ex-student of Hampton Institute, paid Carlisle a short visit on their way home from Washington, D. C.

The snow took us unawares. Who said we were going to have an early spring? Likewise, where is that groundhog? And moreover, March came in like a lion or like a lamb, or like neither one, any way you want to look at it.

The essays on the subject of alcohol, as required by the Indian Office for this school year, have all been finished, graded and forwarded to Supervisor Brown at Muskogee. They were forwarded a week ahead of the time limit set by the Indian Office.
