VOLUME XI

CARLISLE, PA., APRIL 9, 1915.

NUMBER 31

THE Y. M. AND Y. W. C. A. PARTY.

By Henry P. Sutton.

On the evening of April 1st the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. gave a party in the Y. M. C. A. Hall. It began at 7 o'clock with hearty handshaking. Each person was provided with a paper sack which was tied to his right hand and he was to shake hands until the sack was worn out. This mode of making acquaintances was a novelty which created much amusement and worked out successfully as a "formality breaker."

The next surprise, on the well arranged program, was the announcement of a peanut-hunting contest. Prior to the beginning of the party a number of peanuts had been hidden in various nooks and corners of the Hall. Upon the announcement of such a contest a general scramble took place. After the contest closed, the winner's name, Stephen St. Clair, was announced. He won with twenty-two peanuts to his credit, all of which he rapidly ate.

The Y. W. quartet, composed of Alta Printup, Lucy Charles, Mary Welch, and Gertrude Sutton, sang a beautiful selection. The Y. M. orchestra played several pleasing numbers. Piano solos were given by Thersa Lay and Mr. Hagey. The Y. M. quartet, composed of Kenneth King, Mr. Overton L. Burney, Charles Harrison, and Charles Apekaum, contributed to the pleasure of the evening by singing two numbers.

Other games indulged in were an advertisement contest, the art gallery, moving pictures, Indian tribes, and bean guessing. In the bean guessing contest Jesse Wofford won the prize.

At about 9 o'clock refreshments were served; they consisted of sandwiches, coffee, doughnuts, oranges, and other delicacies.

At 10 o'clock, which was the time set for adjournment, happy "Good-nights" were said, which ended another pleasant evening at Carlisle.

All who were present expressed themselves as having a most enjoyable time.

FROM MR. LIPPS'S TALK.

In his remarks Saturday evening, Mr. Lipps said that those students who are weak in any subject will be given the opportunity to study during vacation. They will also have a teacher to help them. He also said:

"I should like to have more students come to talk with me about their plans for the summer, especially members of the Junior class.

"I am glad to see you take an interest in horses, cows, and sheep. I should like to see more of you go back home and farm your lands after you get through here."

DOMESTIC SCIENCE DEPARTMENT.

By Rosa Allen.

The dining room is now finished and in use.

A few of the cooking class girls have gone to the country.

The morning class made cranberry jelly, and the afternoon class made cranberry pies.

Tuesday the time was given to making doughnuts and sandwiches for the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. party.

The classes are taking a great interest in the little cottage, where they hope to do real housekeeping.

PICTURES OF WESTERN LIFE.

Saturday evening we were entertained at the Auditorium by Mr. Red Fox James, who gave us many interesting views of western life.

The first picture shown by Mr. James was of a bush laden with beautiful yellow roses. While it was on the screen, Mr. James sang "Only a Rosebud."

Mr. James showed an interesting picture of his adopted brother.

THE BAND.

By Charles Harrison.

Clarence Bennett is negotiating with the leader for a job.

James Garvie and Charles White Wolfe spent the week-end visiting friends in Middlesex.

Leverne Bonser, who intended going on the Outing with the first party, has been retained because of his valuable service in the band.

The band constitution, on which Ovilla Azure spent many weary hours, has been completed by him and put into pamphlet form by James Holy Eagle at the Print Shop.

The sweet strains of John Gokee's brass band are heard daily in the west section of the Quarters. Hiram Chase, the base player, is a prominent member of this organization.

Mr. Solomon Morrin, one of our ex-students, has been appointed to the position of painter at Fort Totten. While here he was a faithful member of the band, and also proved himself an efficient painter.

BOY SCOUT NOTES.

By Ralph Tourtillotte.

Last Saturday a party of Scouts went out with Red Fox James and had a pleasant time that will long be remembered. With the assistance of Red Fox, they built a wind-break cabin. They made coffee, and fried bacon and eggs that the farmers near by gave them. Red Fox instructed the Scouts on different plants and trees.

An official hike will be taken tomorrow. There will be a blazed trail leading to a treasure box valued at two dollars, which will be buried by Red Fox James.

Mr. Brown will go with the Scouts, as also will Mr. James and the Rev. Mr. Springer. All Indian Scouts are invited to go on the hike. Good eatings and a good camp are promised.

ATHLETICS.

By George A. Francis.

The girls' basketball team journeyed to Harrisburg on the 31st to play the girls of Central High School. They were defeated by the score of 31 to 14.

The Blues took first place in the baseball league by defeating the Golds on the 2nd, the Golds thereby dropping to last place. Score, 7 to 3.

On the 17th the handicap meet will take place on our Athletic Field. The prizes are to be the Keystone Medals, given to the first three men who finish in each event.

On the 24th we are to have a dual track meet with Dickinson College, also on our Athletic Field.

Captain Scott Dewey, who was working so hard for the team, was called home. This was a hard blow to the team as he had proved himself a valuable member. Francis Oaks was selected to fill the vacancy left by Captain Dewey.

On the 24th a mile or a two-mile relay team will be sent to the Pennsylvania relay carnival races at Philadelphia.

The men who will represent Carlisle at Buffalo on the 9th are as follows: Lewis Flammand and George May for the 220 and 100 yards; George Tibbetts, 440 yards; Ben Guyon, 660 yards, and Francis Oaks, half-mile.

Jesse Wofford was elected captain of the Juniors' track team.

Last Friday George May and Louis Flammand ran a hard 220-yard dash to see which would go to Buffalo. George May won by about 2 yards.

CARLISLE DEFEATS CORNELL IN LACROSSE.

Last Monday Carlisle defeated Cornell University in one of the best early season contests ever seen on the home field. As Cornell is considered to have one of the best teams in the country, with the young and inexperienced team he had selected to meet the Ithacans, Coach O'Neil had little hopes of securing a 6 to 2 victory. The day was an ideal one for lacrosse and a large crowd witnessed the game. The school band was on hand to furnish the music.

The game was close and interesting throughout, although the greater portion of the contest was played in Cornell's territory. The first half ended with the score standing 2 to 1 in Cornell's favor. In the last half the Indians came back strong and played a better game on both attack and defense, scoring 5 points and holding their opponents scoreless, the final score ending 6 to 2. Welch, former Carlisle track and football star, refereed the game. Time of halves, 30 and 25 minutes.

To-morrow Carlisle plays Johns Hopkins at Baltimore. This will be one of the hardest games of the season. Johns Hopkins defeated Carlisle last year by the score of 7 to 2, and to-morrow Carlisle will endeavor to secure revenge.

THE SUNDAY EVENING PROTESTANT SERVICE.

By David Peever.

The meeting was led by Henry Hayes. The choir sang several selections, after which the leader read a lesson from the Bible.

We had with us Dr. Morgan, of Dickinson College, who gave us a splendid talk.

He said there is no one else in the world who is remembered so much as Christ. He also said: "You probably can not name ten persons who lived a thousand years ago. But there is one who was born nineteen hundred years ago, and he is remembered by millions of people."

The meeting was closed by singing the Lord's Prayer.

THE CATHOLIC MEETING.

By George White.

Father Stock told us of the Resurrection of Our Lord. He said that we should all rejoice on this day, because everything speaks of the Resurrection of Our Lord, for our salvation.

Benediction followed after the singing of a hymn.

GENERAL SCHOOL NEWS

BY STUDENT REPORTERS.

James Welch has joined the band.

Enriquez Herrera and Fred Curtin have returned from the Outing.

William Bruner and Joseph Helms spent Sunday with friends in Newville.

It is a pity Easter comes only once a year. The ham and eggs were good.

There were 22 boys who received holy communion at the Catholic Church Easter Sunday.

Last Friday Miss McDowell took the Juniors out for a walk to study the different kinds of trees.

Harry Charles, who left for the country last week, writes that he has a good home in Bridgeville, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Meyer and Harvey, Junior, went to Schaefferstown to spend Easter with Mr. Meyer's parents.

The glory of the beautiful Easter afternoon seemed to be expressed in the way the band played "Hearts and Flowers."

The band was very much strengthened and inspired by having with them Sunday afternoon, little "Pete" with his trumpet.

The Episcopalian students went in relays to the different services on Easter morning. There were forty communicants from the school.

Anna La Fernier, Sarah Monteith, and Jane Gayton did not go to the Domestic Science class last Thursday afternoon on account of the cooking they had to do in the Girls' Quarters.

Since the country students went out the number of troops at the Small Boys' Quarters has been reduced to two, yet there is hope of their making a good showing in the military drills this spring.

The special programs to be given by the four literary societies in honor of the Senior class are scheduled as follows: Susans, April 9th; Mercers, April 16th; Invincibles, April 23rd; Standards, April 30th.

Mrs. Charles A. Bender came from Philadelphia to visit with Miss Bender for a few days last week. Miss Bender accompanied her back to Philadelphia Sunday, where she had the pleasure of seeing her brother, "Chief" Bender.

INDUSTRIAL AND INSTITUTIONAL DEPARTMENTS

"A first condition of Citizenship and of self-respect is the power of self-support."

THE FIRST FARM.

By Jacob Spokogee.

Wilford Eshelman has been detailed to the first farm.

Some of the boys planted onions, lettuce, turnips, peas, and beans.

During the past week the boys plowed one of the fields. They now have only two pieces to plow, and with favorable weather they will soon have the ground ready for seeding and planting.

THE BLACKSMITH SHOP.

By Guy Burns.

Some kitchen utensils were made for the Domestic Science Department.

During the week Ben Bearchild put in most of his time corking horse shoes.

Much repair work usually comes in at about this time of the year. All the boys are eager for a job to demonstrate what they can do in that line of work.

We were sorry to lose our tool-smith, James B. Welch, who went to the country with the first party. Some of the tools he made are among our best samples.

THE PAINT SHOP.

By Joseph Morrin.

The painters are now working on the grand stand. When this is finished the improvement will be very noticeable.

Now that the metal ceilings are in place in Small Boys' Quarters, the next large job will be to paint the interior, the ceilings, walls, and wood-work.

THE PRIMARY DEPARTMENT.

By Marie Belbeck.

The pupils find the study of birds very interesting.

Among the Outing students was Walter Starr, a first grade pupil, who went away with a happy face and the idea that he is not only going to feed chickens but going to learn to plow also.

THE CARPENTER SHOP.

By Loverne Bonser.

A new supply of lumber is being stored away.

William Mountain has been absent from the shop on account of illness.

Some repairs have been made on the fire escape at the Academic Building.

A miniature barn, granary, chicken coop, and hog shed have been made for the Agricultural Department.

THE PLUMBING SHOP.

By Francis Kettle.

A small job was done in the Hospital repairing the bath room in both wards.

A card was received from Peter Calac, sending his best regards to his plumber friends.

The damper regulator in the boiler house was taken apart and a new diaphragm was put in.

George Cushing, one of our good boys in the shop, left for the country with the first party.

THE LAUNDRY.

By Lena Parker.

Two of our assistants, Bertha Duncan and Anna Lorew, left for the country, Friday.

Louisa Striker, one of our faithful workers, has been taken out from the Laundry and is now detailed to work in the Girls' Quarters.

THE SHEET METAL SHOP.

By James Holstein.

We received a large assignment of roofing tin, which is being put up in rolls and painted for the new roofs.

In the Mechanical Drawing Department we have been drafting elbows and flaring pans, which we are making up during our spare time.

THE PRINT SHOP.

By Juan Guterres.

Theodore Bellefeuille, who recently arrived from Callaway, Minn., joined our force this week. He will work at the trade all day, and already is taking right hold of things.

Robert Geronimo left for Mt. Hermon, Mass., last Wednesday, where he will continue his academic studies. We will miss him very much, as he was one of our industrious printers.

THE DOMESTIC ART DEPARTMENT.

By Mamie Mt. Pleasant.

Mary Lonechief is progressing rapidly in bobbin lace making.

The dressmakers have begun making the afternoon dresses for Company B.

The material for making summer hats has arrived and the class will soon begin working on different styles.

THE HOSPITAL.

By Lyman Madison.

All wards and halls have been oiled, and beds, chairs, and tables enameled.

The hospital orderly is now doing relief duties at the Large Boys' dispensary.

Mr. Abrams remembered us Easter, by placing a plant on each dining table.

Last week Mrs. Wylde gave emphasized instructions on the neat and accurate keeping of clinical charts.

Miss Tyndall, one of our nurses who has been on the sick list, is improving. She is greatly missed from her duties.

Miss Noble surprised the nurses and patients on Easter morning by placing an Easter egg and a rabbit at each place.

During the past few weeks written lectures have been given on pneumonia, influenza, follicular tonsillitis, and typhoid fever.

The nurses are making a general review of everything taken up this year, for the final examinations to be given the first week in May.

CHAPEL EXERCISES.

By Marie Garlow.

After an absence of two weeks we were glad to see Mr. DeHuff conducting the exercises.

Mr. DeHuff announced that from now on Miss Dunagan would have charge of the singing, with Theresa Lay as accompanist.

The speakers were representatives of the Freshman class. Lucy West in the morning read the "Ship of State," and in the afternoon Francis Kettle gave "Flag of Our Nation."

Mr. DeHuff's remarks were in accord with those subjects.

NOTES FROM ROOM NO. 8

Eleanor Houk received the sad intelligence of the sudden death of her father. We all feel the deepest sympathy for her.

We are much interested in collecting news items for our class paper which is read on Tuesday. Notes from all departments are given.

Edward Bresette, a former member of our class, writes that he is now at his home in Bayfield, Wis., but he expects to work at the State Experiment Farms near Ashland during the summer.

Lloyd Welch, Clement Vigil, and Fred Blythe were among the Scout "hikers" to Mount Holy Saturday. The dinner cooked over an open fire brought back pleasant memories. Clement entertained them with some interesting stories.

The composition work for last week was a description of Yellowstone Park. It afforded good opportunity for research work, in which some of the class were deeply interested. Several members, whose homes are near the Park, wrote very good descriptions of it.

An Enjoyable Dinner Party.

Last Thursday evening Miss Johnston and Messrs. Burney, McGillis, Broker, Gokee, and Hayes were most pleasantly entertained at dinner given by Mrs. Ewing and four of her girls proficient in the art of domestic science as evidenced by the delicious dinner served to the guests. The hostesses were Anna LaFernier,

Cora Battice, Jane Gayton and Sarah Montieith. The dinner was served by Josephine Holmes, Margaret Moore, and Lizzie Lieb in the newly furnished dining room at the Girls' Quarters. This also marked Mrs. Ewing's fifteenth wedding anniversary which added still more pleasure to the occasion. Later in the evening the party visited the Orpheum to see the "Master Key."

GENERAL SCHOOL NEWS.

BY STUDENT REPORTERS.

Mary Pleets left for her home in Fort Yates, N. Dak., last Monday evening.

The Easter services at the Methodist Church were very inspiring, especially the music.

Last Sunday, after the band concert, Miss Snoodly took the girls for a very enjoyable walk to the first farm.

Every one enjoyed the band concert Sunday afternoon, the only thing wrong about it was its shortness. We wanted some more.

Twenty-four girls, under Miss Johnston's care, left last Friday for country homes in various parts of Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

The Mandolin Club girls were surprised last Thursday, when Mr. Tyrrell gave each of them a box of candy. The box contained a big Easter egg and assorted chocolates. The name of each girl was written on the egg.

Last Saturday evening Red Fox James showed the students some very interesting pictures of the West. He also recited a poem of his own composition which brings out a comparison between the East and the West.

The Misses Kate and Anna Sweeney and Miss Dougherty, teachers in the public schools of Harrisburg, visited Miss Sweeney over Saturday and Sunday. The Misses Sweeney are the daughters of Mr. James Sweeney, State inspector of weights and measures.

The Seniors and afternoon Freshmen, accompanied by Mr. DeHuff and their respective teachers, went out to observe tree planting Monday. Mr. Abrams demonstrated and explained the proper way to dig the holes and arrange the soil to insure the growth of the tree.

NOTES FROM ROOM NO. 5.

A letter received from Thomas J. Irons tells us that he is at his home in St. Francis, S. Dak.

Our Boy Scouts are looking forward to a game of baseball with the Shippensburg Boy Scouts.

Joseph King, Christopher Thunder Hawk, and Philip Welmas have recently been promoted to Room 6.

Last week Julia Perrine gave a party in honor of Josephine Peters' birthday. The guests were Minnie Gray, Susan Jackson, Florence Perrine, Agnes Loren, and Julia Gray.

NOTES FROM ROOM NO. 10.

Mina Hicks is studying the science of cooking chicken.

The altar in the Catholic church was beautifully decorated with roses on Easter Sunday.

Last Friday Elnora and John Wyrick were called to their home in Oklahoma on account of illness in the family.

The morning division in Room 10 have begun the study of algebra and they are greatly interested in it.

Rose Copough, who left Carlisle last June and is now laundress in the Osage Indian School, sends greetings to her friends.

One of the interesting features of the lacrosse game last Monday was the red headed collegian who presented a fine target for the redskins.

JOYOUS DAYS.

Spring is here. We know it. The mild temperature of this week, together with the April showers, leaves no doubt in our minds. We were spared the snow-fall that visited New York and Philadelphia last Saturday. Apparently it all fell before any of it could get this far inland. The campus is alive with robin redbreasts, the blackbirds are beginning to loaf around in the trees, the narcissuses are stretching up rapidly, the sunny side of our large buildings is carpeted with dandelions in full bloom, while on sheltered south slopes in the woodlots of the vicinity may be found whole colonies of spring beauties.
