

The Carlisle Arrow

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER PRINTED DURING THE SCHOOL YEAR BY THE STUDENTS OF THE CARLISLE INDIAN SCHOOL

VOLUME XII

CARLISLE, PA., NOVEMBER 5, 1915.

NUMBER 10

CAPT. PETER CALAC, Fullback

Captain Peter Calac is proving himself a tower of strength in the backfield in all of Carlisle's games, and thus far he has made consistent gains against the strongest teams played. He is spoken of as a promising candidate for All-American honors.

WEST VIRGINIA WESLEYAN, 14—CARLISLE, 0.

West Virginia Wesleyan won from Carlisle to the tune of 14 to 0, not because they had a better team than Carlisle, but because Wesleyan took advantage of Carlisle's weakness; for example, the first touchdown was made by a forward pass, which should have been broken up. Since Lehigh beat us by a forward pass the halfbacks have been thoroughly coached to break these up, but some how in every game Carlisle's opponents gets away with a pass for a touchdown. Wesleyan's last points came in the last minute of play, when Carlisle punted.

Carlisle took the ball down the field on three different occasions to Wesleyan's 5-yard line only to be held. Carlisle's attempt to place the ball behind their opponents' goal was very feeble; however, in the middle of the field Carlisle put up good offensive and defensive football.

For Carlisle, Dickerson, who went in at left halfback was the particular ground gainer. Tibbetts played well at Looks' end and as usual Captain Calac put up his great game.

THE INDIAN EXHIBIT AT WESTERN MONTANA FAIR.

Among the many fine exhibits at the Western Montana Fair, none have occasioned more favorable comments than that of the Flathead Indians. Under the management of Superintendent Morgan, the Flatheads have installed an agricultural exhibit that in itself will discount the average county fair.

The showing made of the products of Indian farmers is highly creditable to the Indians. The exhibit of Indian handicraft is both interesting and artistic.

The time and money spent by the officials of the Indian Bureau in assembling this truly creditable exhibit is to be commended. It is not only a demonstration of what the Indians can and will do, when given proper encouragement, but it is an incentive to them for doing still better things.

—The Missoulian.

INDIAN BABIES SCORE HIGH IN SHOW.

Fairview, Okla.—Some of the Indian babies shown at the contest here scored high in the examinations conducted under the direction of agricultural and mechanical college professors. Stella Mixhair, 10 months old, and Mary Mixhair, sisters, scored 91 and 90.

The Indian babies would have scored even higher had it not been for roughness of their skins and the lack of grooming. The Indians took great interest in the baby show, and the mothers were proud of their children, asking knowledge of how to care for them as white mothers do.—St. Louis Star.

Closed Saloons Decrease Number of Arrests.

Chief of Police Frank B. Ripple, of Bemidji, Minn., in his report for the months of July, August, and September, 1915, shows 16 arrests for drunkenness as compared with 126 men arrested during the same period of the preceding year, when the saloons were in existence there. The saloons of Bemidji were closed on November 30, 1914, in conformity with the provisions of the treaty with the Chipewya Indians of February 22, 1855.

Washing dishes in a hot kitchen is not quiet so heating as playing tennis, but either is light compared with trying to convince a girl of the truth of the comparison.—Louisville Courier Journal.

Because a student was killed in a class rush at Princeton all such events have been tabooed there. It is getting so that a college student can't risk his life at all unless he puts on a football uniform.—Grand Rapids (Mich.) Press.

THE PROTESTANT MEETING.

By Hattie McAfee.

The meeting was opened at the usual hour by Cora Battice.

The Scripture was read by Amy Smith, while the prayer was lead by Sara Monteith.

After the selection from the choir, a piano solo was given by Mamie Green.

The speaker for the evening was Rev. Henry Roe Cloud, who gave us an excellent talk. His text was, "Blessed is he that hungereth and thirsteth after righteousness, for he shall be filled."

Righteousness means not only morality and right living, but also a striving to make one's work as perfect as one can make it. No one is righteous who is content to do inferior work.

He also said that after we have given up all hopes for the work we have performed twice and failed, we should try once more.

A RARE TREAT COMING.

Tomorrow night at 7:30 Mr. Ralph Bingham, humorist and musician, will appear at the Auditorium. We are assured that Mr. Bingham is a high-class entertainer. He is usually accompanied by Mrs. Bingham, who is said to be a musician of no mean ability herself.

Admission to this entertainment is free to all students and to officials and employees and members of their families. Also free to such guests of officials and employees as have their regular residence outside of Carlisle or vicinity.

Admission to all others, 35 cents. Tickets obtainable at the main entrance of the Academic Building from 7 o'clock.

THE CATHOLIC MEETING.

By Jane Gayton.

The regular Sunday mass was celebrated by Father Feeser. He preached on "Purgatory," and reminded us of the charity we should have for the dead. He said in part: "Just as the ruler in the Gospel had gone to Jesus Christ and asked him to come and lay his hand upon his daughter and restore her to life, so should we also address ourselves to Jesus in behalf of our departed brethren.

He then explained what was meant by purgatory, a place or state of punishment and purification where some souls suffer for a time after death and before entering into the Kingdom of Heaven. The Bible says that "Nothing defiled can enter Heaven."

The evening services opened with the "Our Father," "Hail Mary," the Apostles' Creed, and an act of contrition, followed by a violin solo by Fred Cardin. The title of the selection was "Thou art my Hope, Dear Sacred Heart."

Father Feeser then spoke to us of ecclesiastical feasts and holy days of obligation. "These," he said, "are days every Catholic is bound to observe as far as he is able, just as he observes Sunday. He must, therefore, assist at Holy Mass, unless he be excused for a serious reason."

Another hymn was sung and Benediction followed.

On Monday, November 1st. at 7 o'clock, Father Feeser celebrated Mass, which all the Catholic students attended.

THE SUSANS.

By Addie Hovermale.

The Susans met in their society hall at the usual time. Roll was called, each number responding with the name of something to eat. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and there were two girls confirmed, Alice Crowe and Hattie Feather. Owing to the length of the program, all business was postponed until the next meeting. The reporter gave her notes and then the following program was rendered:

Song—Susans.

Recitation—Emma Conners.

Instrumental duet—Martha Wheelock and Sophia Newagon.

Essay—Myrl Springer.

Piano solo—Sara Fowler.

Vocal solo—Ida Clark.

Story—Agnes Owl.

Reading—Sallie Greybeard.

Recitation—Kathryn Waldon.

Into the darkened room came ghosts at the end of the program. Ghosts also appeared from our sister Mercer Society.

Next in order was the critic's report and then visitors' talks. Those who gave helpful remarks were Messrs. Welch, Burney, McGillis, Rocque, and Helms. Other visitors were Mrs. Foster, Miss Hagan, Miss Gaither, and Messrs. Perrault, Cushing, Leader, Leith, Miles, Francis, Wells, and Warrington.

The meeting adjourned early, owing to the fact that there were several in the hall who wished to attend the masquerade party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brown.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

A card received from Hiram Chase, '15, states that "wedding bells" were his recently.

Rufus Youngbird and Amanda Wolfe, former students of Carlisle, were married last month, and are now living in Philadelphia.

Mr. Boltz and family removed from their down-town residence to their new cottage at the south end of the campus the first of this week.

The vocational students were rather busy the past week preparing their costumes for the masquerade party which took place last Monday evening.

Mrs. J. W. Cook, a former employee of Carlisle, has been recently transferred from Riverside, Cal., to Chilocco, Okla., where she will be principal teacher.

The "odd" vocational girls enjoyed the walk out to the farm Thursday afternoon. They are hoping to go again because they had plenty of fresh milk and cream.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley and two children are occupying quarters temporarily at Kola-Tipi pending the completion of the new cottage built for them at the south end of the campus.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rendtorff, of Chicago, Illinois, are here on a three weeks' visit to their son, Dr. Walter Rendtorff. They came to get acquainted with their new grandson, Robert Carlisle.

Mr. Hall's talk to the girls was one that we should all remember. He impressed upon the girls the importance of high ideals, and of living up to them. If our ideals are high, we can be good home-makers.

Mr. Lien, a native of China, who is now attending Princeton University, gave an interesting talk on the subject "What the Y. M. C. A. Has Done for China" on last Friday evening at the Methodist Church.

Mr. Lipps writes from Washington that the committee on the course of study for Indian Schools are nearing the completion of their work and that he hopes to be back at Carlisle by the close of the current week.

George Vedernack, better known as "Cotton," is coaching the Quaker team in Pitcairn, Pa. While here in 1911 he was recognized as a star end. The Quakers are known to be among the best players of western Pennsylvania.

Fred Cardin, a noted musician, gave a most beautiful violin selection at the Catholic meeting last Sunday evening. It was greatly enjoyed by all who were present.

NOVEMBER.

"Chill November brings the blast;
Then the leaves are falling fast."
"Who said November's face was grim?
Who said her voice was harsh and sad?
I heard her sing in woodpath dim,
I met her on the shore so glad,
So smiling, I could kiss her feet!
There never was a month so sweet."

—Lucy Larcom.

"In November the harvest is gathered;
Thanksgiving brings praise and good cheer;
We thank the good Lord for the blessings
He sends us all through the year."—Selected.

HENRY ROE CLOUD SPEAKS TO STUDENTS.

The following paragraphs have been submitted by students and are evidence of the impression made by Rev. Cloud's talk:

Rev. Henry Roe Cloud, one of our visitors, gave us a splendid talk Sunday night. He told us about two men finding hidden treasure. The two men found gold, hidden in the ground. They filled their bags and pockets with gold and started home. Before they reached home they became tired and thirsty and threw away their gold. Although gold is precious, life is more precious than gold.

"Set your purpose on one thing, and it shall be fulfilled."

"When you are discouraged and about to give up in any department of your life, try again."

In his talk to the boys and girls last Sunday evening, Rev. Henry Roe Cloud stated that in spite of the fact that he was kicked out of the stable by "Katie," the mule, he stuck to his job. That is a fine example and we should try to stick to our aim in spite of any difficulty or peril that may confront us.

Rev. Henry Roe Cloud, who is visiting Carlisle, gave a very interesting talk Sunday evening. The fact that he is an Indian made a great impression on the students. His motto is, "Whatever you undertake, stick to it." He says whoever hungereth and thirsteth after righteousness shall be filled. Righteousness does not only mean to be just good, but also to do one's work well. If you have the go-at-it-tiveness you can not fail in life.

"Have one object in life and hunger and thirst after that one thing and you will be sure of success."

Mr. Cloud held the audience last Sunday evening as few other speakers have done. His talk was an inspiration to all, and those who missed hearing him speak were indeed very unfortunate.

Rev. Henry Roe Cloud called our attention to the fact that "the Indian is slow but not inferior." Let us prove our superiority by being quick to take the initiative.

Hallowe'en Masquerade for Employees.

On last Friday evening a masquerade party for the employees was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Brown. The hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Weber, and Miss Georgenson. The decorations were appropriate for the occasion, such as autumn leaves, witches, black cats, and jack o'lanterns. One of the striking features of the evening's entertainment was the cleverness and originality of some of the costumes. Hallowe'en games were played, and during the course of the evening delicious refreshments were served. Perhaps the most astonishing feature of the occasion was the fact that the "little Brownies" soundly slept through all the gaiety of the evening. The guests reluctantly departed at a late hour.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

As Peter Tarbell has been playing good games for the "Reserves," he has been shifted to the Varsity.

Nancy Peters said that she enjoys her Sunday walks, especially when she comes to the turnip patch.

Francis J. Eastman was one of the main stars last Saturday, taking the ball from midfield twice for touchdowns.

The Model Home Cottage girls enjoyed eating Agnes Hatch's box of chocolates which she received from one of her friends.

Moses A. Bailey is expected here some day this week from Pleasant, Mich. He expects to enter Conway Hall as a student.

Xavier Downwind is very much delighted because he was taken from the Hotshots' football squad and assigned to the Varsity squad.

Frank Leith, who was one of the guests of the Susan Society last Friday evening, was very much frightened by the Hallowe'en ghosts.

Through a letter we learn that Della Chinault, a former student of Carlisle, is employed in a ladies' tailoring firm at her home in Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

Mr. Robert E. Hall, who is national secretary of the Y. M. C. A. for Indian Schools, gave a helpful talk to the girls Thursday evening in the assembly room.

The Girls Quarters were found very beautifully decorated Sunday morning with cornfodder, slopwagons, and other things too numerous to mention.

The "Bridget" girls all seem to be very chummy, and if you notice you will see a lot of them gather in Nancy Peters' room on the third floor of the Girls' Quarters.

We are all glad to have William R. Pelcher with us as a student here. He came from Mt. Pleasant, Mich., Indian School, where he played on their Varsity football team.

Miss M. V. Gaither, who was for a number of years the girls' outing agent here, made Carlisle a short visit last week. Her friends were very glad to see her again. She is now superintendent of an Indian School for girls at Springfield, S. Dak.

The "Whites," who were the winners of the basketball game last Saturday evening, consisted of the following: Captain Lucy West, right forward; Nettie Standingbear, left forward; Irene Davenport, center; Lizzie Allen, right guard; Sara Monteith, left guard.

Last week Miss Donaldson took all the vocational girls down to the first farm, where everybody enjoyed Mr. Simon's talk concerning butter making. We thank Mr. Simons for the instructions he gave us about separating milk and cream and making butter.

The girls of the "even" section, instead of having the usual opening exercises Monday morning, were busily engaged in cleaning out the onions which had been put in the desks of Miss McDowell's room, the desks having been victims of the boys' Hallowe'en pranks.

The pupils were entertained with games in the gym last Saturday evening. We all enjoyed them very much. The games were basketball, acrobatic stunts done by several boys, races, and other games. The most important event of the evening was the "Charlie Chaplin" contest won by Wilber Anderson. There were also present two colored boys fit for excellent comedians on the stage.

There is great danger in constant dissatisfaction. Sooner or later it will involve the health, or finances, or both, for it destroys the mental balance, and impairs the judgment.—Newcomb.

(These shop notes held over from last week because of lack of space)

DOMESTIC SCIENCE.

By Sallie Greybeard.

During Miss Keck's absence in Washington, Miss Montion had charge of the classes.

The past month has been devoted to breadmaking. While waiting for the bread to rise, we studied our lessons and made a few extra dishes.

Several meals have been served, and while at the table the meals were criticised and correct table etiquette made the chief subject of conversation.

TAILOR SHOP.

By Alfred Wells.

The shop was paid a short but very pleasant visit Friday afternoon by the girls of Room No. 11.

Several new officers' uniforms have been made for the commissioned officers during the past few weeks.

Isaac Willis, on account of his vocational course, has discontinued his excellent work in the shop to take up wood work for the coming three months.

THE TIN SHOP.

By Henry Perrault.

The boys of this department have just completed the repair work that was required at the boiler house.

Mr. George, who was off duty for a week, has resumed his duties again. The boys have certainly missed him during his absence.

David Crowe has returned to the shop. He is a good worker and will strengthen the crew.

Mr. George and his helpers are about ready to start putting a new roof on the lower part of the cage.

PRINT SHOP.

By E. A. Wood.

The beginners all show an aptness for their trade and are progressing rapidly.

Charles Walker has returned to the shop to resume his draft work in the "Art Preservative."

Robert Edwards, an ex-student, is enjoying the benefits of diligence and industry. He writes: "I am improving as a printer. Have been working up right along in Demmon, Mich."

LAUNDRY.

By Eva E. Jones.

Della John is our assistant laundress.

The masons were called in to do a little repairing on the floor near the mangle.

Julia W. Grey is becoming an expert in handling the trucks. It is very interesting to watch her work.

Lena Parker is taking her turn as housekeeper at the "Model Home Cottage." We miss her very much.

The girls were surprised when Lucy K. West displayed her talent as plumber. She is just the girl for cases of emergency.

LARGE BOYS' QUARTERS.

By Henry Sutton.

There has been a recent improvement made in the disciplinarian's office. An opening has been cut through the wall, and in this opening has been placed an iron grating window through which business is transacted. It takes on the appearance of a ticket office. This is a good system of doing business and gives the occupants of the office more privacy.

There have also been some improvements made in the clothing room which greatly facilitate the handling of laundry.

BLACKSMITH SHOP.

By David Bird.

Otto Thunder is busy making tools for the shop.

James Welch has made a fine set of wrenches for shop use.

Fred Broker has just completed a fine set of andirons for Mr. Meyer.

Alex Washington and Jesse Welch have proved themselves to be good mechanics by making a couple pairs of fine spurs which they intend to use when they get out West again.

KITCHEN AND BAKERY.

By Green Choate.

The kitchen is always clean and in order for inspection, and I am sure the people who visit the kitchen can not see anything that is not clean or in order.

There are several new boys working in the kitchen now, and we all hope they will make good cooks in the near future.

The bakery has a large detail now. They are baking twelve hundred loaves of bread a day.

The boys all felt very sorry this morning when Jacob Herman, the star baker, had to go to the hospital. We hope he will recover soon.

GIRLS' QUARTERS.

By Alta Printup.

The stove in the kitchen has been repaired. The girls are glad, for they will continue to serve meals occasionally.

Saturday morning the Misses Heany and Battice entertained Messrs. Calac and Broker at breakfast. Little Leona Bonser waited on the table with a great deal of credit to herself.

THE BAND.

By Gustave Looks.

Owing to the absence of some of the band boys on the 16th, the concert was postponed by Mr. Tyrrell and the orchestra rendered a program for the evening.

There is much improvement in the playing of the band since the evening rehearsals have been taken up.

Instruction book have been issued so the boys may work on exercises by which they will profit greatly.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

(Held over from last week because of lack of space.)

The members of the First Presbyterian Church have organized an orchestra, which all boys who are members of the band were requested to join. The first practice was held last Tuesday evening.

Martha Wheelock was the guest of Miss Montion Maude Cook, Lena Parker, Agnes Hatch, and Rosa Allen at the Model Home Cottage on Sunday. Martha gave several selections on her mandolin.

The Y. M. C. A. sociable was enjoyed by everyone that attended. We enjoyed the piano duet given by Daniel Chase and David Wasase; also the refreshments, which consisted of potato chips, apples, cake, and cocoa.

CORRECTIONS.

A letter received from Nettie Kingsley states that she wishes to correct a statement in a recent numbers of The Arrow which quoted her as saying that she longs to be back at Carlisle. She states that she is perfectly happy in her country home at West Chester, and that she is doing her best to uphold the Carlisle standard. She enjoys attending the State Normal there and does not wish she were back at Carlisle.

The debaters at the Susan's meeting, October 22, were. Affirmative: Rhoda Fobb and Lizzie Allen. Negative: Sarah Fowler and Eva Jones, instead of Eva Jones being second speaker for both sides, as was reported in the last issue of The Arrow.

Florence Renville writes from Peever, S. Dak., asking that the item in a recent issue of The Arrow which stated she was acting as "cook" at the Sisseton Agency School be corrected to read that she was acting for a short time as boys' matron at that school.

Rev. Henry Roe-Cloud Speaks to Students.

Rev. Henry Roe Cloud made a very interesting talk Sunday evening, and those who paid close attention will be greatly benefited, if they will only follow his example.

Mr. Cloud stated that he studied and learned many things while behind the plow. Why shouldn't we learn one English word every day, which we can easily do if enough effort is put forth?

Director of Mechanic Arts Arrives.

Mr. Roy H. Bradley, together with his wife and two children, arrived on the campus Saturday morning. They are soon to occupy one of the cottages near the hospital.

Mr. Bradley has come to take up his work as director of mechanic arts. The boys welcome him because they have been waiting for that part of the work.

Haskell's Superintendent a Visitor.

Supt. John R. Wise, of Haskell Institute, paid Carlisle a short visit Thursday, October 28, on his way back to Haskell from Washington. The students from Haskell were especially glad to see him. Mr. Wise was for a number of years assistant superintendent here at Carlisle.

THE MERCER SOCIETY.

By Mary G. Wilmet.

The house was called to order by the president at the usual time. Roll was called and each member responded with a quotation.

Miss Gaither gave a helpful talk to the girls. Next in order came the confirmation of the new member, Nellie Brown. The following program was then rendered:

Song—Mercers.
Recitation—Unita Lipps.
Violin Solo—Julia Gray.
Oration—Roberta Seneca.
Vocal Solo—Mary Ann Cutler.
Declamation—Leona Cecil.
Guitar Duet—Jane Gayton and Gertrude Pego.
Hallowe'en Sayings—Amy B. Smith.
Reading—Louise Striker.
Piano Solo—Mamie Green.
Society Prophecy—Mary Lonechief.
Incantation—Mary Welch, Etta Waggoner, and Belle Peniska.

Ghosts—Flora Peters, Lena Parker, Rose Beauregard, Elizabeth Janis, Anna Boyd, Mary Wilmet, Mabel Gilpin, and Mary Horsechief.

George Francis, George Merrill, Earl Wilber, Homer

Lipps, Felix Brisboise, Henry Herrera, Lawrence Silverheels, and Louis Flammond were the visitors. Other visitors were: Miss Austin, Miss Keck, Miss Hagan, Mrs. Ewing, and Miss Gaither, Miss Williams and Miss Sweeney were the official visitors.

The critic's report was omitted on account of the long program.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

Howard Foreman came in from the country for a short visit on Sunday.

Alex Roy can be heard all over the quarters practicing on his trumpet.

Owen Woottakewabitty writes from Fulton House, Pa., and states that he has a very pleasant home.

The officers are now looking forward to their reception, which will be held on the 11th of November.

Mr. Gehringer gave a talk on "How to spend Halloween" last Sunday evening. It was enjoyed by all.

Mr. Roy F. Bradley, director of the mechanic arts division, has arrived in Carlisle and will soon be on duty.

Mrs. Victor Kelly and son Victor, Jr., have returned from a two weeks' visit in the western part of the State.

Leon Miller, who represented "Charlie Chaplin" last Saturday evening, was rather disappointed when he lost the first prize.

Last Friday evening, while visiting the Susan's Society, Harold Francis was well prepared for a speech, but to his surprise he was not called upon.

John Gibson '15, who is attending Mercersburg Academy, is coaching the Mercersburg "Spiders," which is composed of the smallest boys in the academy.

Last Friday evening all the members of the Y. M. C. A. attended a lecture in town. The speaker was Mr. Lien, a man from China, and all the boys enjoyed his talk very much.

We girls all enjoyed Nature's beautiful robe of various colors last Sunday afternoon while we were out for our afternoon walk. No artist can equal Mother Nature's paintings.

Last Saturday afternoon, Mr. Duran's "Bear Creek" boys played the "Cornell" team to a tie, 7-7, on Indian Field. The game was hard played, both sides fighting hard for victory.

Mr. Robert E. Hall, the International Y. M. C. A. Secretary, was one of our visitors during the week and gave the Y. M. C. A. boys several good talks, telling them of the good work that is carried out on several of the western reservations.

The "even" girls of the domestic science class were divided into three groups for lunch last week. The group under Eva Jones were very fortunate to have Catherine Vornwald with them, for she cooked the most delicious dish of macaroni.

Friends of Percy Porroka may be surprised to hear of his marriage to Miss Annie McConnell, which occurred in the month of September. Mr. Porroka was formerly a student of Carlisle. He spent several years under the outing system. He has many friends who wish him a long and happy married life.

Andrew Conner came in from the country for a visit on Sunday, and reported that he was earning a dollar a day, and would earn a hundred dollars in a hundred days, and a million dollars in a million days and be a millionaire.

Frank Vetterneck, of Odanah, Wis., and old student of Carlisle, has been visiting here for the last few days. He is at present playing football at Pitcairn, Pa., on a team called "Carlisle Ex-students." He says they have not lost a game yet. He has employment in Pittsburgh as an expert painter of passenger cars and receives from $4 to $5 a day.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

Donald McDowell reports that he had a profitable time last Saturday husking corn.

Fred Cardin gave an excellent violin selection at Benediction last Sunday evening.

Leon Miller made a great effort to be the best Charley Chaplin on Saturday evening.

We are glad to have Victor Kelly, Jr., on the campus once more after an absence of two weeks.

The masons have just completed a side walk in front of the alumni store back of Boys' Quarters.

Several new boys came last Saturday from Oklahoma. We hope they will be satisfied with the school.

The costumes worn by the students at the masquerade were very interesting and created much laughter.

The leading figure at the masquerade ball was Wilber Anderson as Charlie Chaplin. He won third prize.

The girls of the "Model Home Cottage" have heard interesting facts about Washington, D. C., since Miss Keck's return.

The girls at the "Model Home Cottage" are glad to have Miss Keck back again. She has been in Washington on business for over a week.

The day after Hallowe'en, Miss Reichel was surprised to find, on her class room desk, a "Ford" with the new 1898 Singer attachments.

The painters are very glad to have Lewis Johnson, a graduate of the Mr. Pleasant Indian School, in their detail. He expects to be an expert.

The Invincible Debating Society failed to have a meeting last Friday night because there were not enough members to carry on the business.

Two of the most interesting characters at the masquerade ball last Monday were the peanut twins, with their dainty gowns and strings of peanuts.

At the masquerade party, Asa Thunder made quite a hit in his costume and he especially entertained that portion of the audience who were in the gallery.

Robert Edwards is doing well in Demmon, Mich. He writes that The Arrow reminds him of the Friday mornings he used to spend helping to publish the paper.

Both classes of the home economic course visited the dairy barn at the first farm last week, as they are having problems in arithmetic about cattle and dairy products.

Miss M. V. Gaither was heartily welcomed by all the girls whom she knew. She made inquiries concerning some of the patrons she knew when she was the girls' field agent.

In the Methodist Sunday School, Mr. Lien was the speaker for the morning. He urged that many of the members of the Sunday school become missionaries among his people.

Visitors on the campus for the past week were Rev. Henry Roe Cloud, Mr. Robert E. Hall, Miss M. V. Gaither, Mr. Tin Lien, Mr. John R. Wise, and Miss Katherine Brown.

Clarence Bennett, who is fast becoming a first-class trap drummer, has recently purchased himself a new snare drum which he displays every day playing for the student body as they march to dinner.

In a letter to a friend, Henry Red Owl states that he and Mrs. Red Owl, née Della Smith, are getting along very well. They have a little son, who is the joy of their home. Inclosed in the letter was a picture of the family. Henry sends best wishes to all whom he knew.

Miss Katherine Brown, of Tulalip Indian School, who is spending her vacation in Baltimore, Md., stopped over at the school for a visit to the different departments. Miss Brown was formerly instructor in Domestic Arts at Chemawa, but was transferred to Tulalip, where she holds the same position. She will remain at the school for a while, then go to Baltimore to finish her furlough of four months.

James Crane won second prize at the masquerade. James' suit was very becoming to him. When he becomes an Oregon Senator, we expect to see him dressed every evening as he was Monday night.

Last Saturday afternoon Shippensburg Y. M. C. A. played against our second football team. Nearly all of the students were present. We cheered our boys and encouraged them so that the score was 38 to 0 in favor of Carlisle. It was a very interesting game.

Ben Harrison, the Cornell's famous tackle, was among those who deserve much credit in the game last Saturday against the Bear Creek team. Ben has also made good in other things, having received special promotion last Tuesday from Room 6 to Room 7 (academic studies).

Nick Lassa was the chief figure at the new restaurant last Sunday evening when he entertained a few of his friends in the line of eats. He was showered with congratulations from all sides for his wonderful playing in the West Virginia game. "Lassa Back," is the name of one of the latest Varsity plays.

INDIAN PROGRESS.

That Cato Sells is discovering the Indian is eloquently attested by the premium list of the Fifth Annual Pima Indian Fair, to be held at Sacaton, Ariz., November 3 to 5. If this was to be the first Pima Indian fair the liberality and variety of the list might be viewed as an arrangement to promote interest. As it is the fifth, the list must be regarded as an appreciation of what has been accomplished.

All the agricultural products of the State are included. The corn premiums have a value of $127, and the total of all premiums reaches the handsome proportions of four figures.

The domestic department reveals the Indian woman in a new light. There are liberal premiums for needle work. The reader is rather taken back at an offer of $3.50 for children's nightgowns. The idea of a papoose in a nightie is so new as to be startling. It is equally difficult to picture the young aborigine with a swell layette outfit, including dress, skirt, night-dress, cap, sacques, shoes, band and shirt. What would you make of embroidered pillow cases in a tepee or wickieup? Two union suits are offered as first premium for embroidered towel while the second premium is a hair brush. The Pima is becoming softened by foppery.

The premiums for cooking are liberal and varied, the only addition to the list contained in the usual receipt books being cactus jam.

The moral of it all is that the Pima is living a great deal after the fashion of his white neighbors.—Cedar Rapids (Iowa) Gazette.

Some people are so neutral that they always order their English mutton chops with German fried potatoes.—Boston Transcript.

Let us celebrate the soil. Most men toil that they may own a piece of it; they measure their success in life by their ability to buy it. It is alike the passion of the parvenu and the pride of the aristocrat. No man but feels more of a man in the world if he have a bit of ground that he can call his own. However, small it is on the surface, it is four thousand miles deep; and that is a very handsome property.

Charles Dudley Warner.

Alumni Department Notes

By MRS. EMILY P. ROBITAILLE
Secretary.

In a letter received from Howard Jones, of Syracuse, N. Y., we learn of his recent illness. Since his recovery he has purchased a new model "Indian" motorcycle, which he rides back and forth to work.

Mary Pleets writes from Wahpeton, N. Dak., that she is attending the State Science School there. She also tells of two alumni of Carlisle, Ovilla Azure '15, and Mae Wheelock '12, who are employed at the school.

Daniel Plante has bought himself a farm near Belcourt, N. Dak., where he intends to go into the cattle business. He states that he does not regret coming to Carlisle to school, because he is now making good. He sends his regards to his teachers and classmates.

Joseph Gilman, one of our last year's football men, was recently married to Miss Lydia Douglas. Joseph is employed by the Ford Motor Co., of Detroit, Mich., and is getting along very well. Joseph has an excellent record at Carlisle, and great success is wished him by his friends.

From an Ex-Student of Twenty Years Ago.

Mr. Gus Welch, Carlisle, Pa.

My dear Gus:—It occurred to me to drop you just a few lines to inform you of the fact that I am still in the land of the living.

I was very sorry indeed I did not get to see Mr. Lipps on his visit here. I would liked to have seen him.

It has been twenty years ago since Mrs. Buck and I were students at dear Carlisle. I often look back on those days with pleasure. I spent five years of my happiest days at Carlisle. The training I received at Carlisle and the good effective talks that General Pratt made while I was there are the foundations of my success in life. I feel as though I owe the General an immensely large debt—one that would be impossible for me to ever pay back. Some year and a half ago I had the pleasure of meeting the General in Washington. We had several good old chats and it did me a world of good.

Gus, I will not attempt to tell you about my ranch, as you have been here yourself. You know our daughter Emma is attending high school in Calispell.

Many of the old returned students are doing very good, but some I am sorry and ashamed to say have gone back to the old Indian. Give my regards to the superintendent of Carlisle and Mrs. Robitaille. I wish you success in all your undertakings.

I am, your friend,

C. W. BUCK.

(Note:—The above letter was written by Charlie Buck, who married Spina Devereau. Mr. Buck is general manager of St. Marys International Telephone Company, of Browning, Mont., and is reputed to be a wealthy ranchman.

Marriage of Former Student.

Mary Shomin, a former student of Carlisle, who left for her home in Michigan two years ago, became the bride of Moses P. Kagechiwan on the 10th of October. The wedding took place at the residence of the Rev. P. B. Ferris, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Petoskey, Mich. They were attended by Emma Smith, sister of the groom, and J. William Ettawageshik, both of Harbor Springs, Mich. Mr. Kagechiwan is a graduate of the Mt. Pleasant

School, and has a good position with Stein's department store, of Harbor Springs, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses P. Kagechiwan will make Harbor Springs their home town.

A Happy Event.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Augustus Steele announce the marriage of their daughter, Edith McHarg, to Mr. Howard Edward Gansworth on Saturday, October 23d, 1915, at Saint Peter's Church, Geneva, N. Y.

Mr. Gansworth is a graduate of Carlisle, class 1894, and later graduated from Princeton University. He now holds a responsible position in Buffalo, N. Y.

Miss Steele was formerly librarian here and was very popular among students and employees.

Carlisle extends heartiest congratulations and best wishes for future happiness to Mr. and Mrs. Gansworth.

A Graduate Writes from the Far West.

Tulalip Indian Agency, Tulalip, Wash.
Carlisle Alumni Ass'n., Carlisle, Pa.

My dear Friends:—Possessing a spirit of "not wanting to be left out and ever ready to stand up for Carlisle," I submit herewith my address above which is my present location, as I understand through The Arrow that the whereabouts of the ex-students is desired by the Alumni Association.

I am now employed as assistant clerk at Tulalip, a result of training both at Carlisle and Haskell, for which schools I am ever ready to do homage.

Please forward me information relative to the work of the association and novelty catalogue.

Sincerely yours,

ALVIS MORRIN, '14.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

(Held over from last week's issue because of lack of space.)

Orrell Bonser has gone to live with her sister in Nashville, Tenn.

Mary Largen is taking music lessons. She practices every day.

The boys of the "even" division of the vocational course received their new arithmetics last week.

William Ghostdog has gone home to be with his father, who is reported as very seriously sick.

Clarence Bennett and Andrew Peters, of the Band football team, are two promising candidates.

We all had a very pleasant time at the sociable last Saturday evening. There were many new students present.

Last Saturday a number of boys cut corn for neighboring farmers, and reported that the dinner was worth the work.

A card was received from Francis Kettle, who is working for the Ford Motor Co. in Detroit, stating that the Carlisle boys are all well.

Last Sunday evening George Francis made his first appearance in the Catholic Orchestra. He plays the alto horn in this orchestra.

Mike Gurno, a bugler, is getting accustomed to rising early. He is up at five ready to sound the call. Keep it up, Mike, you are doing nobly.

Mrs. Ewing and Miss Beach took the girls out for a walk Sunday evening. We went to the first farm and everyone seemed to have a pleasant time of it.

Lillian Barnhart has been transferred to the Indian School at Phoenix, Ariz., where it is believed the climate will be more favorable for her health.

Andrew Peters is certainly a jolly boy. Every morning at five-thirty he can be heard singing his morning song. The title of this is, "Oh, How Cold I Am!"
