CONDITIONS IN OKLAHOMA.

A former student writes of the conditions surrounding her home:

We all went to church Christmas and New Year's as usual, with plenty of drunkards.

There have been so much drunkenness since this Oklahoma country was opened and settled up with the whites, as they have saloons at every little town.

Also, Indians are fond of whisky. I was out at — taking children to school and the town was just building up, when I was there, but I could see saloons almost on every street. Both of my children are at school. One in the native school and the other at Lawrence. The time you passed Lawrence, my boy was at that school last October.

The land is allotted to us. I got 120 acres as second grade land. First grade, they only got 60 acres. Third grade, they got I think, about 400 acres.

Our school opened October 5, 1879.

The Indians came in native dress.

The term for which students come to Carlisle is 5 years or until they graduate.

Students who graduate like the graduates of other institutions seek employment and many find it, some at home, some out in the world. The per cent of graduates who have retrograded since they went home is small.

Nearly all are self-supporting and doing well from a business standpoint and are rated as good citizens wherever they dwell.

A few are attending higher schools and colleges.

There is only one way:

To Civilize the Indian
get him into civilization, to keep him civilized, let him stay.

How is an Indian to become a civilized individual man if he has no individual civilized chances.

It would rob them of manhood and make paupers of emigrants coming to us from any country in the world to reservate and double-bureauize them as we do our Indians.

Man-on-the-band-stand.

A number of our "O iting" students are in for Commencement.

Farm patrons and country friends of the school are arriving.

Mrs. Senseney, of Chambersburg, is the Commencement guest of her daughter.

The Commencement number will appear about the second or third of March.

Printer Matilde Garnier has come in from the country to join her class, that of 1906.

The Russia-Japanese war is the general topic of conversation, and a few sympathize with Russia.

Mr. George Vaux and sister Miss Mary with a friend Miss. Francis from Philadelphia arrived as we went to press.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wells, ex students and their little son Alfred, all of Anadarko, Oklahoma, are with us.

Alice Dextator, 1903 came from Crow Agency, Montana; where she was employed, to attend the Commencement exercises.

Mrs. C. W. Bingham, of Mt. Morris, N. Y. is visiting her sister, Miss Scales. Miss Curriden of Chambersburg, is also a guest of Miss Scales.

Last Thursday evening Miss Ecker, who has charge of the darning class of the sewing department, took a large party of Catholic girls down to the pie-social, which was held for the benefit of the church. They all had a very pleasant and enjoyable evening.

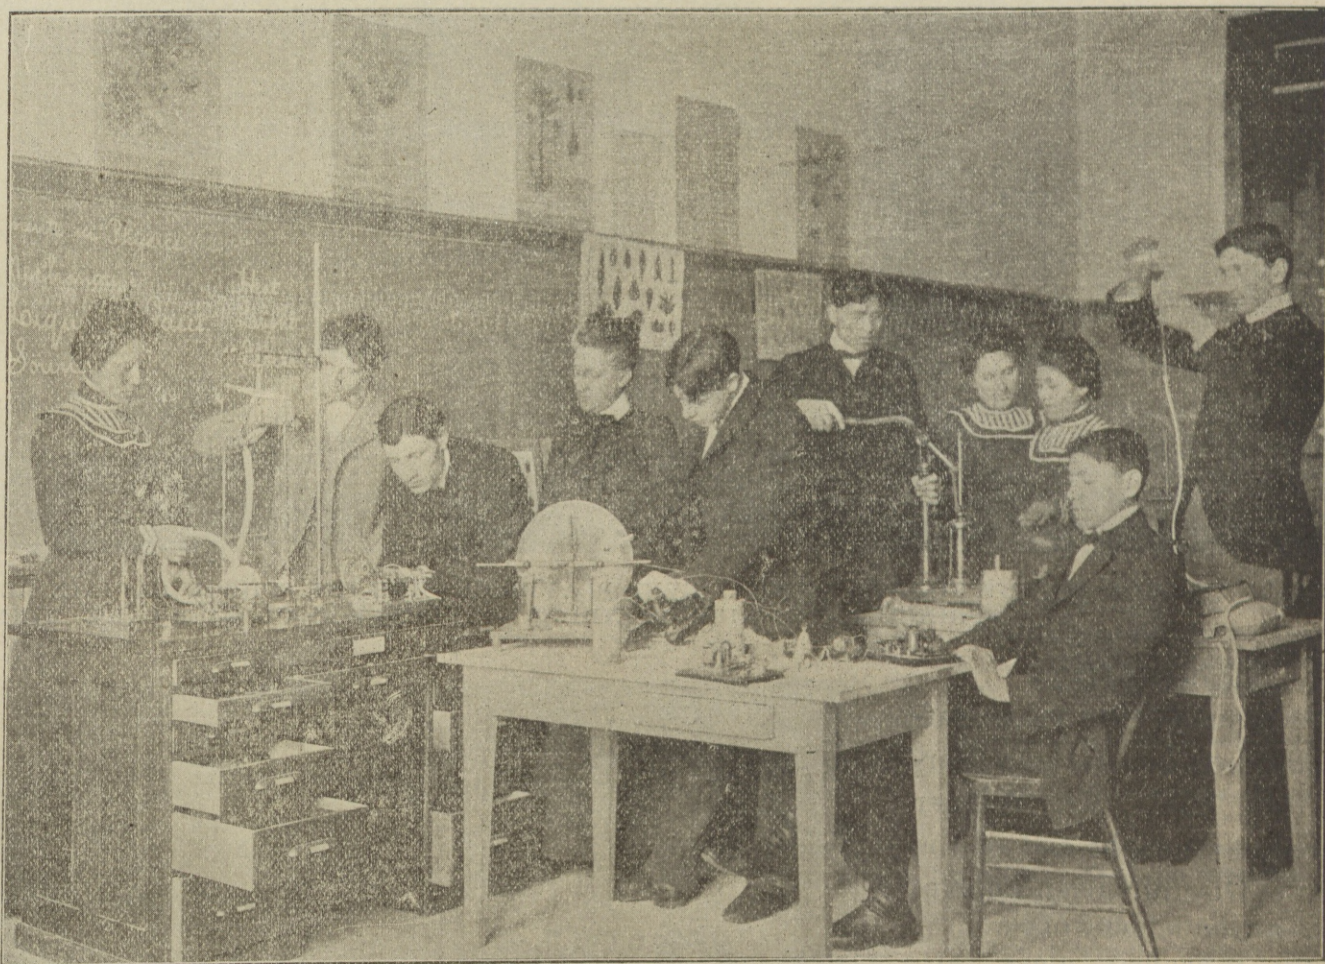

The next issue of the RED MAN will be a combined number of two weeks in order to print the full commencement proceedings together. It will come out a few days later than our regular publication day—Friday, and a few days earlier than Friday of the following week.

A good audience from Carlisle witnessed the gymnastic exercises on Tuesday evening. This exhibition of calisthenics, company drill and general apparatus work always attracts, and the perfection of movement to music is satisfying, showing painstaking effort on the part of Disciplinarian Thompson as instructor. The students are willing learners and make a fine showing. The same exhibition was given for the benefit of the student body and faculty on Monday evening.

The Junior's reception to the Seniors was held in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, Feb. 11, 1904. Besides the members of the two classes and their teachers, a few other guests were present. The Hall was prettily decorated with the class colors of the two classes. Valentine's Day being so near, hearts of various sizes and colors, were used very effectively both for decoration and for games. Original fortunes were told through a large red heart in a corner of the room. In a search for hidden hearts, Henry Rowldges received a prize for finding the greatest number. The matching hearts arranged couples for the refreshments, of icecream, cake, candy and coffee. The evening was enjoyed by all.

is the team of five years later, '99, when Coach Glenn Warner took hold. Mr. Warner stands at the right end of the 1st row. Disciplinarian Thompson is at the left end of the row. Martin Wheelock, class 1902, for two years Captain of the team, is the center man standing. Isaac Seneca, 1900, first man on the left second row is an efficient employee at Cantonment, Oklahoma. The man on the extreme right is the great Met-the-oxen as the newspapers named him---Metoxen, now classed among the best farmers at Oneida. The man at the extreme left last row sitting is last year's Captain Johnson. Next to him is Edwin Smith, '01, married to one of our graduates and now settled in the State of Washington. The center man was the Captain of the team in '98,—Frank Hudson, called by the newspapers The-man-with-the-cunning-toe, who never was excelled in this country as a drop-kicker. He is now head book-keeper in a leading bank in Pittsburg. The man on his left is Captain Rogers, of the University of Minnesota. He has made such a record as has given him the name of the great Rogers. Caleb Sickles is on Rogers' left. He graduated in 1898, and this year took a diploma from the Ohio Medical College. On his right in the row above is John Warren, class 1900, now a student of law at the University of Minnesota. The others we have no recent record of. As was stated last week, Mr. Warner leaves Carlisle, this Spring to go to Cornell to coach the team of his Alma Mater.

IN LUCK.

If the following taken from the Che-mawa American relative to one of our old time pupils, is true we are ready to cultivate his acquaintance over again:

Clarence Three Stars, a day school teacher on the Pine Ridge reservation, and the first full blood Sioux Indian who ever taught, has discovered a rich deposit of bituminous coal in Nebraska. The State offers a bounty of $4000 for the discovery of a 26 inch vein. Three Stars finds that he has six inches to spare in his case and inspectors have been sent by the governor to examine the mine.
