

Locations of Off-Reservation Indian Boarding Schools in the U.S.

1. Carlisle Indian Industrial School (Carlisle, Pennsylvania) – opened October 1879
2. Chemawa Indian School (Salem, Oregon) – opened February 1880
3. Chilocco Indian School (Chilocco, Oklahoma) – opened January 1884
4. Genoa Indian Industrial School (Genoa, Nebraska) – opened February 1884
5. Albuquerque Indian School (Albuquerque, New Mexico) – opened August 1884
6. Haskell Industrial Training School (Lawrence, Kansas) – opened September 1884
7. Grand Junction Indian School (Grand Junction, Colorado) – opened 1886
8. Santa Fe Indian School (Santa Fe, New Mexico) – opened October 1890
9. Stewart Indian School (Carson City, Nevada) – opened December 1890
10. Fort Mojave Industrial School (Fort Mojave, Arizona) – opened December 1890
11. Pierre Indian School (Pierre, South Dakota) – opened February 1891
12. Phoenix Indian School (Phoenix, Arizona) – opened September 1891
13. Fort Lewis Indian School (Fort Lewis, Colorado) – opened March 1892
14. Fort Shaw Indian Boarding School (Fort Shaw, Montana) – opened December 1892
15. Mount Pleasant Indian Industrial School (Mount Pleasant, Michigan) – opened January 1893
16. Tomah Indian Industrial School (Tomah, Wisconsin) – opened January 1893
17. Pipestone Indian School (Pipestone, Minnesota) – opened February 1893
18. Flandreau Indian School (Flandreau, South Dakota) – opened March 1893
19. Wittenberg Indian School (Wittenberg, Wisconsin) – opened August 1895
20. Greenville Indian Industrial School (Greenville, California) – opened September 1895
21. Morris Industrial School for Indians (Morris, Minnesota) – opened April 1897
22. Chamberlain Indian School (Chamberlain, South Dakota) – opened March 1898
23. Fort Bidwell Indian School (Fort Bidwell, California) – opened April 1898
24. Rapid City Indian School (Rapid City, South Dakota) – opened September 1898
25. Sherman Institute (Riverside, California) – opened July 1902
26. Wahpeton Indian School (Wahpeton, North Dakota) – opened February 1908
27. Bismarck Indian School (Bismarck, North Dakota) – opened December 1908