

Athletics at the Carlisle Indian School

Consider and answer the following questions as you explore your image(s). Be prepared to discuss your answers and to provide specific examples to support your ideas.

Image caption or description:

Date (if known):

Do you see any relationship in the image(s) between athletics and gender roles/expectations?

Does the image convey the student(s)' sense of self-identity/Native identity? If so, how?

Does the file reflect any relationship between athletics and the school's mission to assimilate Native American children? According to the file, was this assimilationist mission successful or not?

Does anything about the image(s) surprise you? Why?

What questions does this image(s) raise in your mind?